COOK

"While we hate to lose him here, we are glad to see him win the promotion he deserves. I have found him most cooperative, a splendid officer."

Others spoke with regret at the loss of Cook, whose talents were especially exemplified during the weeks just past, when sickness has kept the department short-staffed. As the senior member when Chief Newton and Officer Morrison were both ill, he ably administered the department.

Was Laurinburg Chief

Cook has had previous experience as chief, as he held this position for three years at Laurinburg before coming to Southern Pines.

A native of Mt. Airy, he grew up in Aberdeen and attended school there, then served a three-year hitch in the Army and four in the U. S. Marine corps. After his discharge he served for a year with the Aberdeen police department, then went to Laurinburg as patrolman, soon to be promoted to chief.

He is a member of the Aberdeen Methodist church.

He and his wife, the former Miss Evelyn Ellis of Raeford, have three children, Betty, seven, Clyde, Jr., six, and Rockne, seven months old. They bought their home at 425 South Ashe street. The family will move to Jacksonville as soon as they have disposed of their home, and secured a place to live there.
