

$25,000 of ABC Profits Is Added To County Till

A check for $25,000, Moore county's current share of profits from the two county ABC stores, was remitted to the county commissioners at Carthage Monday by M. G. McRae, of Southern Pines, ABC Board manager.

Along with this amount, to be added to the county treasury, Mr. McRae gave a report on activities for the first half of the current fiscal year, July 1-December 31, 1949. During that time, he said, the county received $100,000 as its share of profits on total sales of $600,958.10.

The Federal government received approximately $204,000 of this amount, he revealed, while to the State Department of Revenue went the sum of $51,081.43.

Total amount remitted to the Moore County treasurer by the ABC board since its inauguration 12 years ago has been $1,288,500, which has gone into the general fund to be expended for county-wide benefits.

Mr. McRae also reported on activities of the county's ABC law enforcement officers, whose salaries and expenses are paid from ABC store profits. During the July-December period Officers C. A. McCallum and C. C. McGee made 66 arrests, seized 97 and one-half gallons of whiskey, and destroyed six stills and 2,425 gallons of mash.

Of those arrested, 43 were convicted in court and fined a total of $1,645. Twenty-three cases are now pending in federal and superior courts.

Garden Club's Flower Exhibit Shows Paintings, Samplers, Spring Blooms

One of the most varied and colorful—as well as the most fragrant—of the series of art exhibits at the Fine Arts room, Southern Pines library, is that which opened this week under sponsorship of the Southern Pines Garden club.

Flower prints, flower paintings, flower samplers, flowers in needlepoint, flowers painted on glass and china and just flowers themselves, in graceful arrangements, make of the room a spring song of beauty.

Mrs. L. T. Avery and Mrs. B. F. Kraffert, Garden Club members in charge of the exhibit, have secured many beautiful flower representations, in a wide range of arts forms, on loan from Southern Pines homes and also from Miss Allie McIntosh's Antique shop. The beautiful paintings shown by Miss McIntosh are also examples of fine framing done at her shop.

Included in the display are a number of excellent French prints, a small glowing Van Gogh reproduction, an 18th century sampler, paintings of flower sellers of Old Charleston and one sample of the work of a local artist, a study of iris by Miss Emile May Wilson.

An arrangement of flame-colored camellias, a Chinese bowl of wild plum blossoms and a miniature garden of pixy moss with trailing arbutus add to the charm of the exhibit.

Items in the display were loaned by Mrs. Ernest L. Ives, Mrs. P. McCain, Mrs. L. H. Littlefield, Mrs. J. R. Marsh, Mrs. R. D. McCMahon, Mrs. B. F. Kraffert, Miss Harriet Barnum, Miss Emile May Wilson, Mrs. L. T. Avery, Miss Allie McIntosh.

PROMOTED

LYLE D. McDONALD, JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McDonald of Southern Pines, has been moved to Charlotte as Piedmont Airlines traffic representative, from Cincinnati, Ohio, where he had held this position since last May. The transfer, effective March 1, represents a promotion and is also indicative of Piedmont's expanding program now that the Supreme Court has certified its right to continue operation.

Mr. McDonald, a veteran of Navy service in the war, entered Piedmont's employ two years ago. He was stationed at Raleigh until his promotion to the Cincinnati post.

The airline, which has a stop at Southern Pines-Pinehurst, has grown consistently in its two years of existence and is planning additional services to be inaugurated soon.
