

Society Happenings and Church News

OF SOUTHERN PINES AND THE SANDHILLS

SIX MOORE COUNTY TEACHERS INITIATED INTO DELTA KAPPA GAMMA HONOR GROUP

Miss Kate McIntyre, Miss Leola Black and Mrs. Elliot Shearon of Southern Pines, Mrs. H. V. Chappell of Carthage, Miss Lucille Eifort of West End and Mrs. Dora Wedlock of Pinehurst were initiated into Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for women educators, at a meeting of the society held at the Officers' club, Fort Bragg, at 12 o'clock Saturday.

Miss Grace Van Dyke Moore, professor of education at Woman's college, Greensboro, and state president, conducted the initiation ceremonies.

A one o'clock luncheon followed, after which a new chapter, which was named the Phi chapter, was organized. Its membership will comprise women teachers of Lee, Harnett and Moore counties. The new chapter was formed from the Lambda chapter, which covered 10 counties with headquarters at Fayetteville. Phi chapter will have Sanford as headquarters. Miss Pauline Miller of Southern Pines, a member of Lambda chapter, was received into the new chapter by transfer.

Mrs. H. V. Chappell was elected vice president; Mrs. Wedlock, parliamentarian; and Miss Miller, recording secretary.

The state meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma will be held at Pinehurst the last of April.

Baptist Girls Have Easter Project

Patients at Moore County hospital will find colorful Easter eggs filled with jelly beans on their trays Easter Sunday morning, through courtesy of the Girls' auxiliary of the First Baptist church, members of which have spent two busy but happy afternoons at the home of their adult leader, Mrs. James Clayton, dyeing the eggshells. Friends of the young people saved the shells for them, removing the contents by breaking very small holes in the ends, and approximately 200 of these were dyed and filled, to be delivered to the hospital Friday.

Carrying out the project were Patty and Betty DuPree, Betty Parker and Ann Craft, assisted by Mrs. Clayton.

CHURCH WOMEN MEET IN FAYETTEVILLE; DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM

The Sixty-first Annual Meeting of the Women of the Church of Fayetteville Presbytery will be held at First Church in Fayetteville beginning with an executive board meeting Tuesday, April 11, at 2 p. m. An evening meeting for night circles will begin with registration at 6:30 and supper at 7 o'clock.

On Wednesday, April 12, registration begins at 9:30. This will be an all-day meeting for day circles.

Principal speakers will be Mrs. Julian B. Huttuff of Fayetteville, Synodical president, who will also install the officers; Dr. B. Frank Hall, former pastor of Central Presbyterian church in St. Louis, Mo., now pastor of Pearsall Presbyterian church in Wilmington; and Mrs. C. F. Harrington of Texas, one of three representatives from the Presbyterian Church US to the organizational meeting of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam, Holland, in 1948. She is also a member of the Central committee of the World Council of Churches, which includes 90 members, only two of whom are women, and chairman of the joint committee on adult work, Presbyterian Church US.

Mrs. Harrington is said to be in great demand as a speaker.

Fayetteville Presbytery includes Moore, Harnett, Johnston, Hoke, Cumberland, Scotland and Robeson counties.

Hospital Auxiliary Sets New Meeting Dates, Hears Enthusiastic Reports

Auxiliary Accepted In National Group

At a meeting of the Moore County Hospital auxiliary, held in the nurses' home on Tuesday, April 4, it was unanimously voted to amend the by-laws so that the times of meeting would suit all members. There will be four bi-monthly meetings a year, at 10:30 a. m., and on the alternate months there will be four social meetings at 3:30 p. m. which will feature a speaker.

The first meeting under the new program will be on May 2 and will bring a talk by Ross Porter, who is administrator of Duke hospital in Durham and who is also a member of the national committee of the American Hospital Association on Women's auxiliaries. The Moore County Hospital auxiliary has been accepted for membership in the national association and a handsome framed certificate to that effect was presented by the president, Mrs. Katherine N. McColl.

The Membership chairman, Mrs. Forrest Lockey, reported a total membership of 414, with 219 of these new members. So heartening was the doubling of the membership that there were cries of "Let's make it an even 500!"

For the Finance committee Mrs. William Wright reported that over $1300 had been brought in by the Carolina Razook Fashion Show and a vote of thanks was offered to Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgibbons and Mr. and Mrs. Razook for the benefit.

Future benefits were discussed and the next one will be the showing of the Beckwith Garden on Easter Sunday afternoon.

It was voted that the Supply chairman, Mrs. Charles Crowl, be authorized to buy Mother Goose china for the trays in the children's ward and to pay the monthly bill for diaper-service to the nursery, the present project of the auxiliary.

MRS. EDWIN CAUSEY INSTALLED WORTHY MATRON, OES, IN PUBLIC CEREMONY

Officers of Magnolia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were installed in a public ceremony held Friday evening, March 24, at the Masonic hall.

Those officiating were: Mrs. R. G. Rosser, installing officer; Mrs. Emery Smith, installing marshal; Mrs. Charles Grey, installing organist; Mrs. William Dale, installing chaplain; Mrs. Joe C. Thomas, installing conductress.

Officers installed were: Mrs. Edwin Causey, worthy matron; Henry Parker, worthy patron; Mrs. Marshall McRae, associate matron; Herbert Dietenhofer, associate patron; Mrs. Ida Lorenson, secretary; Mrs. J. D. Sitterson, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Chappell, conductress; Mrs. Emery Smith, associate conductress; Mrs.

James Caldwell, marshal; Mrs. J. B. Parker, chaplain; Mrs. Graham Culbreth, organist; Mrs. Ray McDonald, Adah; Miss Helen McRae, Ruth; Mrs. Ed Finch, Esther; Mrs. W. H. Keith, Martha; Mrs. G. Edward Griffin, Electa; Mrs. Clayton McAdams, warder; and Mrs. Virgie Faris, sentinel.

The incoming Worthy Matron presented Mrs. Joe Thomas, the outgoing one, a Past Matron's jewel from the Chapter, for which the recipient graciously expressed her thanks. Past Patron Herbert Dietenhofer was presented a Past Patron's jewel by the incoming Patron. Mrs. Causey was presented flowers, a gift from the Past Matrons and Patrons.

Refreshments were served to members and visitors at the conclusion of the meeting.

Miss Christians Heard By Large Audience

On Thursday evening the Pinehurst forum presented Miss Mady Christians in excerpts from her plays before a large audience at the Pinehurst Country club. A capacity number enjoyed the popular country club buffet supper before Miss Christian's performance. Among those who entertained friends were General and Mrs. George C. Marshall, Dr. and Mrs. DeWitt B. Nettleton, Mr. and Mrs. Max von Schlegel, Mr. and Mrs. S. Donald Sherrerd, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGraw, Mrs. H. Frederick Lesh, Mrs. George Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Sledge, Mrs. Millard F. Tompkins and General and Mrs. Stuart Cutler.

Card Party Monday For Catholic Church

The sixth annual card party for the benefit of the Shrine Church of St. Anthony of Padua will be held at the Mid Pines hotel on Monday, April 10, at 2 p. m., and the sponsors extend a cordial invitation to all residents and guests to attend.

In order that a sufficient number of tables may be set up for players, those in charge will appreciate it if persons who have not yet made their reservations will do so at their earliest convenience.

Score pads and pencils will be provided, but it is requested that players furnish their own cards for whatever game they plan to play. Reservations and transportation for those not having cars may be made through Mrs. John Buchholz 8592, Miss Marguerite Wolf 6372 or Mrs. Eileen Healy 7561.

There are said to be many surprises and attractions in store for those who attend, and indications point to the affair's being a success, as others previously held at Mid Pines have been.

Patricia Ann Patch Honored on Birthday

Patricia Ann Patch, was honored at a delightful party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Patch, Jr., Saturday afternoon, April 1, in celebration of her fourth birthday.

Around 30 of her little friends were present, and they played outdoor games and enjoyed an Easter egg hunt. Mrs. Patch served birthday cake, cookies and ice cream and presented Easter balloon favors. Patricia was thrilled, as were her guests, when she opened the many attractive gifts.

KANSAS CITY COUPLE WED IN PRIVATE CEREMONY AT BENNETTSVILLE, S. C.

Miss Joanne Bevan and Private First Class David E. Lawrence, both of Kansas City, Mo., were united in marriage in a private ceremony at Bennettsville, S. C., on Sunday, April 2. Friends attending were Robert Dunlap and Robert Valentine of the United States Army, Fort Bragg.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Morrison of Kansas City, chose for her wedding a navy and white dress with which she wore matching accessories.

Both bride and groom attended school in Kansas City, and Private First Class Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lawrence of Kansas City, is now attached to the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg. They are living in Garvin's trailer home at Manly.

Bird Club Schedules Powell's Pond Trip

The Southern Pines Bird club had an interesting meeting on April 4, listing new bird arrivals in the Sanctuary woods, as spring advances and migrations begin.

It is planned to have a trip to Powell's pond next Tuesday morning, if the weather is pleasant, starting promptly at 9:30 from 160 South Bennett street, the home of Miss Louise Haynes. The club is asking that all members with cars help with transportation, and it invites anyone who is interested in birds to join the party.

Teachers Return After Spring Holiday

A number of the teachers in the Southern Pines school spent the spring holidays out of town, returning in time for the reopening of school Wednesday.

Miss Ann Jones visited her family at Johns, and Miss Elizabeth Sawyer went to her home in Elizabeth City.

Miss Leola Black was in Thomasville with her people for a part of the week, and Miss Pauline Miller and her father spent from Saturday until Tuesday in Statesville.

Miss Martha Langston spent the time with her family in Asheville; Miss Thelma Moss went home to High Point; W. A. Leonard visited his people near Lexington, and John Rooks joined his wife at Stedman.

Miss Bess McIntyre went to her home in Wingate, Miss Abbie Sutherland to Belmont, S. C., and Miss Billie Williams to Walnut Cove. Mrs. Bill Hershell and Mrs. Edla B. Wicker were at their homes in Pinehurst.

Firemen's Ball Is Big Event Of Next Week

Highlighting next week's social calendar will be the 17th Annual Firemen's Ball, to be held at the Southern Pines Country club Tuesday evening under sponsorship of the local volunteer fire department.

Music will be by the Fayette Quintet, directed by Bill Lowden. A girl vocalist is featured.

Joe Garzik is chairman of arrangements, and all firemen have tickets for sale.

Guest Speaker At Church Supper

Dr. John R. Scottford of New York City will be guest speaker when the Church of Wide Fellowship holds its monthly supper meeting—a covered dish supper—next Tuesday evening. The meeting will be in the fellowship hall of the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church.

Dr. Scottford, editor of the Congregational national publication, "Advance," is author of a book, "Church Beautiful." He will speak on the church's building program.

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Circle 1 of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. F. M. Dwight, with 11 members and two visitors, Mrs. Joe C. Thomas and Mrs. Dan McNeill, present. Mrs. Haynes Britt conducted a Bible study from Genesis 18, entitled "Abraham's Prayers," and Mrs. Jack Frost presented Dr. Walter L. Lingle's Survey article, "What Kind of Education?"

Thirteen members and two visitors, Mrs. Walter Harper and Miss Catherine Bugbee, were present when Circle 2 met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Burns. Mrs. T. E. Davis was in charge of the Bible study and Mrs. Laura Woods gave the Survey article. Mrs. L. L. Woolley is chairman of this Circle.

Mrs. Charles Meares, chairman, was hostess to Circle 3 at her home Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. W. E. Blue conducting the Bible study and Mrs. Howard N. Butler giving the Survey article. Eight members were present.

Mrs. Lewis Kirk entertained Circle 4 at her home Monday night with Mrs. George Nevens assisting as co-hostess. There were 15 members present, including a new member, Mrs. Henry Graves, and three visitors, Mrs. Joe C. Thomas, Mrs. L. L. Woolley and Miss Betty Dorsett. Mrs. George Heinitsch conducted the Bible study and Miss Mary Cameron presented the Survey article. Mrs. J. W. Causey is the new chairman of this Circle.

Attendance at the four meetings totals 54 and two Circles are yet to report, No. 6, meeting Thursday night of this week, and No. 5, which meets next Tuesday morning.

Local Women Attend Training School

Eleven members of the Presbyterian Women of the Church attended the training school for Presbyterian women held at Antioch church near Raeford on Wednesday of last week. They were: Mrs. Joe C. Thomas, president of the Brownson Memorial group; Mrs. Howard N. Butler, Mrs. W. E. Blue, Mrs. Wayland Blue, Mrs. L. L. Woolley, Mrs. Paul P. McCain, Mrs. Charles Meares, Mrs. Robert Thomas, Mrs. Jack Frost, Mrs. James Pleasants, and Mrs. Walter Harper.

The group is hoping to have a large representation at Presbyterian next Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church in Fayetteville.

Travel Pictures At Civic Club Meeting

The Civic club will hold its regular monthly business meeting next Monday at 3 p. m., following a directors' meeting at 2:30. After the business, Esso-produced movies of Louisiana and Pennsylvania will be shown and tea will be served. Visitors as well as members are invited. There will be no charge.

No Open House On Good Friday

This being Good Friday, the Civic club will not hold open house this afternoon, but will resume its open house afternoons April 14.

Glee Club and Band of WSP To Give Concert

The West Southern Pines Glee club and band will give a concert at the Civic club building at 8 p. m. Tuesday, April 11, under sponsorship of the Civic club. There will be no admission charge, but an offering will be taken. Part of the proceeds will go to the band for its uniform fund.

Does Initiate Three Members

Three new members, Mrs. J. G. Womble and Mrs. Mark King of Southern Pines and Mrs. W. A. Wright of Pinehurst, were initiated into the Southern Pines Drove No. 42, BPO Does, in an impressive ceremony Tuesday night at the Civic Club building. The meeting was formal, with all officers wearing white. Mrs. J. D. Sitterson presided.

After the meeting the new members were entertained at the Elks lodge, where refreshments were served by the committee for the month, Mrs. S. T. Wallis, chairman; Mrs. A. Garland Pierce, Mrs. Jack Carter, Mrs. S. R. Jellison and Mrs. Thomas Vann, who will be in charge of social activities for the April 18 meeting at the Civic Club, also.

Wehant-Hoskins Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. James David Hoskins of Southern Pines announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Mae, to Sam Pincney Wehant, Jr., of Charlotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Wehant of Lincoln. A June wedding is planned.

Mrs. Wilson Is Circle Hostess

Mrs. Tom Wilson was hostess to Circles 1 and 2 of Manly Presbyterian Women of the Church Tuesday night. Mrs. John Duncan Chisholm conducted the business session and Mrs. J. R. Chisholm had charge of the Bible study. The hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. Davis Is Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. William P. Davis was hostess at two tables of bridge at her home in Knollwood Wednesday night of last week. Guests were Mrs. Harold Collins, Mrs. Lloyd Dahmen, Mrs. L. H. Cherry, Mrs. Gordon Faw, Miss Birdilla Bair, Mrs. Verdie Wiley, Mrs. Annabel Pearson and Mrs. S. T. Wallis.

Mrs. Joe Thomas Is Party Hostess

Mrs. Joe C. Thomas entertained a party of eight at her home on North Ashe street Wednesday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Charles Meares, Mrs. Robert Thomas, Mrs. P. V. Hatch, Mrs. Alice Adams, Mrs. Harold McNeill, Mrs. Harold Fowler, Mrs. Walter Harper and Mrs. Ray McDonald.

HUMPHREY'S STUDIOS
Social — Commercial — Portrait Photography
165 New Hampshire — Phones 7722 - 5032
SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.

SHRUBS & LANDSCAPING
FRANCIS M. DWIGHT
Tel. 8778—U.S. No. 1 Southern Pines, N. C.

Easter Greetings!

May Junior's Candy Egg Be The Sweetest. . .
May Sis's New Shoes Be The Shiniest. . . May
Mom's New Hat Be The Gayest. . . May All
Your Hearts Be The Lightest—This Easter.

WE ARE READY TO SERVE YOU
All Day Sunday, April 9th

Broad Street Pharmacy
PROPRIETORS
Joe Montesanti, Jr.—L. T. Talton

If you have put off your Easter buying until late you will find our stock most complete with the finest quality at popular prices.

Spring and Summer Clothing

- HATS for every occasion
- The Proper SHOES for your Outfit
- NECKTIES in all their Spring Colors
- HOSIERY in nearly every style
- SHIRTS in Dress and Sports Styles
- BELTS for your Suit or Slacks

Be sure to see our showing of Men's Wear—Quality at prices you can afford to pay

TOG SHOP
CHAS. S. PATCH, Prop. SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.