Vacation Bible School

The union Bible school of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches began its second week Monday with the record of a splendid week's work behind them. A total of 117 pupils have been enrolled with an average daily attendance of over 100.

Methodist Ladies' Night

It will be Ladies' night next Tuesday for the Carthage, Robbins, and Aberdeen Methodist Men's clubs. The meeting will be held at Center church and is put on by the ladies of the church for the benefit of their building fund. Word has spread concerning the wonderful dinners served by the ladies at Center and everyone is looking forward to going.

The address for the evening is also being anticipated with great interest. Miss Frances Ivey of Durham, secretary of the North Carolina Council of Churches, will make the speech and her reputation has also preceded her.
