MISS MARTHA GUION OF ABERDEEN AND DAVID LAWRENCE MEREDITH ARE WED

Page Memorial Methodist church was the scene of the wedding on June 8 of Miss Martha Louise Guion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lloyd Guion of Aberdeen, and David Lawrence Meredith, son of Dr. and Mrs. Clement O. Meredith of Guilford College.

The Rev. T. J. Whitehead, pastor of the church, heard the vows exchanged before a background of fern, white gladioli and lighted tapers. Mrs. E. L. Pleasants, organist, and W. P. Whitlock, vocalist, both of Aberdeen, presented wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white slipper satin with lace yoke and panel of lace extending down the front of the skirt. She carried a white Testament topped with an orchid.

Miss Gaynelle Gwyn of Aberdeen, maid of honor, wore a yellow marquisette dress and carried a bouquet of talisman roses. Bridesmaids were Misses Anne Pleasants, Joyce McLean, Sue Swearingen of Aberdeen, and Nancy Baum Funderburke of Greensboro. They wore gowns like that of the honor attendant and carried old fashioned nosegays.

William Osteen of Guilford College was best man. Ushers were Owen Meredith of Charlotte, William Ingram of Lilesville, Everette Guion and Lawrence Farrell of Aberdeen.

Kathy Whitlock of Aberdeen was flower girl. She wore a dress of white organdy over yellow.

The bride is a graduate of Woman's college in Greensboro and for the past year has been a member of the Guilford High school faculty. The bridegroom was graduated from Western Carolina Teachers college and is athletic director at Guilford High school.

For travel following the ceremony, Mrs. Meredith changed to a pink silk shantung suit with white accessories and her wedding orchids.

Following the rehearsal Wednesday evening, Miss Gaynelle Gwyn entertained at a cake cutting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Gwyn, for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Summer flowers were used throughout the house, with white predominating in the dining room. The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a bridal arrangement. On one end was the punch bowl, and the three-tiered wedding cake was at the other. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice, Mrs. George D. Martin served the cake. Mrs. Lee Buchan presided at the punch bowl.

About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. Adams Gives Shower Honoring Miss Virginia Hoskins

Honoring Miss Virginia Mae Hoskins, whose wedding to Samuel P. Wehunt, Jr., of Lincolnton, is set for June 17, Mrs. Alice Adams was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at Magnolia Lodge Tuesday night. Mixed summer flowers decorated the rooms.

Bingo was played, and Mrs. Elizabeth Eadie was winner of first prize, with other prizes going to Mrs. Ralph Chandler and Mrs. C. R. Mills. The shower gifts, which included many useful articles, were presented in a basket decorated in green and white. The bridal colors were repeated in the ice cream and frosted cakes served with lemon-pineapple punch.

Guests were Miss Hoskins, the bride-elect, and her mother, Mrs. David Hoskins; Mrs. D. E. Crosby, Mrs. Maude Thayer, Mrs. W. W. Olive, Mrs. Bruce Gale, Mrs. H. A. Lewis, Mrs. Carrie Higgins, Mrs. Walter Daeke, Mrs. Meisner, Mrs. Clodie Bourgault, Mrs. William Dale, Mrs. C. R. Mills, Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Mrs. R. A. Hamel, Mrs. Charles Block, Mrs. Elizabeth Eadie, Miss Anne Huntington, Miss Phyllis Hoskins, Miss Ethel Jones, and Mrs. J. C. Adams of Pinebluff. Participating in the shower but not present were Mrs. Lawton Hatch and Mrs. L. H. McNeill.

Legion Auxiliary Names Delegates, Elects Officers

The election of delegates to the Department Convention to be held in Charlotte June 24-28 and of officers to serve during the coming year featured the June meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, held Thursday night of last week with the president, Mrs. Virgil P. Clark, in the chair.

Mrs. Clark, Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin and Mrs. Joe Hensley were elected delegates, with Mrs. F. M. Dwight and Mrs. L. L. Woolley as alternates.

Mrs. McLaughlin was chosen as president of the auxiliary, and the following were elected to serve with her: Mrs. Bertha Fields, 1st vice president; Mrs. Dan McNeill, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Veta E. Gorman, secretary; Mrs. Joe Hensley, treasurer; Mrs. W. E. Blue, chaplain; Mrs. L. L. Woolley, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. C. S. Patch, Jr., historian and scrapbook chairman.

Our Students: What They're Doing

JOHN LEWIS MCCAIN, son of Mrs. Paul P. McCain and the late Dr. McCain, who received his certificate in medicine June 5 from the University of North Carolina, spent last week at his home here and returned Monday to the University to prepare for state medical examinations to be given June 19. His summer job will be on the gate at Montreal, and he plans to continue his medical studies at the University of Virginia in the fall.

ROBERT E. HARRINGTON, freshman Air Force cadet during the past school year at the University of New Hampshire, was one of 13 cadets selected for honors at a military review held last Thursday in salute to the graduating class. Cadet Harrington was awarded a medal for military proficiency. He returned to Southern Pines Sunday to spend two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Elmer Harrington, at the Southland hotel, and will go back to New Hampshire June 24 as one of several college boys employed on the Tramway at Franconia Notch for the summer.

EDWARD NICHOLSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Nicholson, left Sunday morning for Camp Durant, the Oconeechee Council camp in Wake county, where he will be a waterfront counselor during the next eight weeks. He spent last week at Camp Barstow, the regional Boy Scout camp near Columbia, S. C., taking a training course. He will enter State college in the fall.

TOMMY GREY, who completed his junior year at ECTC in May, has a job at the Jewel Box for the summer.

Two children of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Spring became college graduates last week. MISS MARY RUTH SPRING graduated Monday night, June 5, at the College of Our Lady of the Elms, Chicopee, Mass., and ROBERT P. SPRING, Friday, June 9, at St. Anselm's college, Manchester, N. H. Mrs. Spring attended both graduations, and all were expected home this week after a brief visit with relatives in Springfield, Mass.

WYNDHAM CLARKE completed his sophomore year last week at State college, where he is studying architectural engineering, and spent two days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harden in Greensboro before coming home to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Louise W. Clarke. He will work with James B. Swett, engineer and surveyor, during his vacation.

TOMMY AVERY, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Avery, is at home from State college, where he completed his freshman year as a student of civil engineering.

BILL "MOGO" BAKER, new graduate of the Southern Pines High school where he was a triple-threat star athlete, is working for his father this summer at Baker's Food store. He has chosen the University of North Carolina as his alma mater, starting next fall.

JANET CORNWELL and MICKEY NICHOLSON, more new high school graduates, are entered for Appalachian State Teachers college at Boone, on the first lap toward careers as teachers. Janet and her brother Johnny are spending the month of June with their grandmother, Mrs. G. F. Cornwell at Montclair, N. J.

T. K. CAMPBELL is home from the University of North Carolina, where he has completed his sophomore year.

LOUISE MILLIKEN went to Chapel Hill Sunday to attend summer school at the University of North Carolina for six weeks. Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Milliken, motored to the university town with her.

ROLAND BOWERS, of the Southern Pines High school graduating class, has gone to work at the Colonial Stores as clerk and stock man.

REGGIE HAMEL, president of the class of 1950 at the Southern Pines High school, is employed at the new H & M Grocery store for the summer. He will enter the University of North Carolina in the fall, taking a pre-dental course.

CATHERINE SITTERSON, who enrolled at Woman's college as a freshman last fall, has returned to Greensboro for six weeks of summer school, after spending a few days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sitterson.

CAROLYN CHESTER, a Duke University (Durham) student, has gone to Chapel Hill for the first term of summer school at UNC.

JOY BRISTOW went to Raleigh Monday, accompanied by Betty Ellen Ritter of Pinehurst, to take the pre-entrance examination for nurse's training at Rex hospital. Both girls plan to enter the school of nursing this fall.

Bible Class Plans Covered Dish Supper

The Learn-More Bible class has planned a covered dish supper for 7 o'clock Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Emery Smith on May street. After supper the group will study the second chapter of Philipians.

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY AT VASS JOINS MISS MARILYN WOOD, HOWARD GSCHWIND

The marriage of Miss Celia Marilyn Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hoke Wood of Vass, and Charles Howard Gschwind, son of Charles Gschwind of Vass, was solemnized Saturday, June 10, at 7 p. m., at the Vass Presbyterian church. The Rev. C. K. Taffe officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Magnolia, pine and ivy formed a background for tall baskets of white gladioli and feverfew. Four ivy-twined candelabra holding white tapers completed the altar setting.

Miss Elizabeth Wood, pianist, of Newton, and Raymond Shaw, vocalist, of Sanford, aunt and cousin of the bride, presented a program of wedding music. Mr. Shaw sang "Because," and, as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace bridal gown. Her gauntlets were of matching lace, as was the tiera from which her shoulder-length veil fell. She carried a colonial bouquet of baby pink rosebuds and white bridal flowers, centered with a gardenia and showered with white satin ribbon and miniature pink rosebuds.

Miss Edith Ring of Vass was maid of honor. She wore a green sheer dress with lace yoke and carried a lace-covered basket filled with mixed flowers in pastel shades.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Ann Chappell and Miss Joanne Chappell, of Vass. They wore yellow sheer dresses of identical design as that of the maid of honor and carried yellow baskets of mixed flowers.

Thomas Gschwind of Aberdeen attended his brother as best man, and William H. Wood of Vass, brother of the bride, and Edward Gschwind of Greensboro, brother of the bridegroom, were usher-groomsman.

The bride's mother chose for the wedding a silver blue crepe, and Mrs. Gschwind, step-mother of the groom, was dressed in navy sheer crepe. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

Following the ceremony the couple received informally in the vestibule of the church, later leaving for a wedding trip. For travel the bride wore a green suit with white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Gschwind will reside temporarily with his parents until their new home now under construction, is completed.

The bride is a graduate of Vass-Lakeview High school, being president of the Class of 1950. The bridegroom is also a Vass-Lakeview graduate. He served in the Navy during World War 2 and since his discharge has been engaged in farming with his father.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: J. B. Wood and family, Siler City; Mr. and Mrs. Steve H. Wood, Lexington; Mrs. Celia Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw and family and Mrs. W. A. Shaw, Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shaw and Miss Louise Shaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoffman, Sanford; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wicker, Carthage; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Klingenschmidt, Mrs. Charles Rose and Miss Herminia Causey, Southern Pines; Mrs. W. P. Parker, Laurinburg; Miss Elsie Mae Gschwind, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. J. R. Thomas, Raeford; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gschwind, Greensboro.

An after-rehearsal party was given in the Sunday School department of the Presbyterian church by the bride's parents Friday night, with members of the wedding party, the two families and a few friends attending.

Miss Elizabeth Wood honored her niece with a luncheon at Hamel's Restaurant in Southern Pines at 1:00 o'clock Saturday. The bride-elect's place was marked with a corsage and she was presented with an arrangement of mixed flowers. Guests were the honoree, Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Gschwind, and the bride's three attendants.

Misses Elizabeth Ann Chappell and Joanne Chappell were hostesses at a shower party at the home of Miss Blanche Sturdivant Wednesday night. Sandra Craig, dressed as Cupid, brought the gifts into the room in a wagon labeled "Howard's cart."

Mrs. Ernest D. Ivey of Atlanta, Ga., is coming today to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Royer, bringing with her Joe Royer, who had been her guest since March.

Mrs. Jimmy Nanopoulos flew to New Bedford, Mass., on Wednesday of last week to attend the graduation of her brother-in-law, Charlie Nanopoulos. Charlie won a scholarship to Harvard and will enroll there in the fall.

Mrs. Paul Fitanides and son, Philip, left Wednesday night for New York to visit Philip's godmother, Mrs. Jean Kandioou, for a few days before going to Ogunquit, Me., to join Mr. Fitanides, who operates a shoe repair shop there during the summer months. They plan to return to Southern Pines in time for Philip to enter the second grade of the local school this fall.
