

Things Toughen Up For Two-Time Jail Escapee; Off He Goes To Prison Camp

Many Highway Safety Law Violators On Long Monday Docket

Harley V. Taylor, of Bladen county, haled into recorder's court Monday on two counts of escaping from the Moore County jail, was placed where he will find an exit not so simple—at the prison camp near Carthage, for 30 days.

Judge J. Vance Rowe made the suggestion that the elderly white man be first examined by the camp physician, and the doctor's advice followed as to his prison activities.

Chief Bernice Cameron of Carthage, in charge of the jail, said that when Taylor was committed to his care by Justice Hugh Kelly for 30 days last April, on a public drunkenness charge, he was made a trusty and allowed to help around the place. First thing anybody knew, he had walked on off. He was picked up at Aberdeen a few days ago, and returned to the jail. "He was mighty penitent," said the Chief, "and he looked like he intended to behave himself so we let him clean up the yard." Next thing, he was gone again. They didn't have much trouble finding him, and it is expected he will now "stay put" a while—for 30 days, anyhow.

Other cases on Monday's docket:

Speeders Convicted

For speeding—Elsie Bernice Keith, Sanford, $10 and costs; James Robert Ballew, Raleigh, $25 and costs; Alfred Harold Thomas, Carthage (also careless and reckless driving), $25 and costs; George M. Rebuck, Fort Bragg, $10 and costs; William Lee Black, Pinehurst (also improper equipment), asked trial by jury, set for September 12 with bond of $100; John Crane Houston, Baltimore, Md., called and failed, cash bond of $50 forfeited; Dan Harold, Cameron, capias returnable September 5 under $100 bond; James L. Pierson, called and failed, $50 cash bond forfeited; John L. Nelson, called and failed, $35 cash bond forfeited; Herman Mack, called and failed, $40 cash bond forfeited.

Driving while drunk—Rowland Bass, Vass (also permitting passenger to ride on running board); John Thomas Short, Carthage, Rt. 2 (also careless and reckless driving), both 60 days suspended on payment of $100 and costs, license revoked for 12 months.

Other highway safety law violations—Alton Earl King, Laurinburg, careless and reckless driving on motorbike, $25 and costs; Frank Goode, Jr., Pinehurst, careless and reckless driving causing accident, also carrying concealed weapon, three months suspended on condition defendant pay hospital bill of Carson Lemmons, and $100 cash to cover damage to Lemmons' car, plus costs; Jasper Gilmore Barber, Cameron, Rt. 1, careless and reckless driving colliding with another car causing damage, three months suspended on condition defendant pay damage to Sandy Kelly's car amounting to about $240, and pay fine of $25 and costs; Three defendants from Sanford faced the court on various charges in a combined case—James Clay, public drunkenness; Zinnie Crouch, carrying concealed weapon, and Charles Marsh, Jr., driving without license or brakes. Clay received a 30-day sentence, suspended on payment of $10; Crouch, 90 days, suspended on payment of $75, and Marsh 60 days, suspended on payment of $25, all to pay costs in addition to their fines.

Assault Cases

Other cases on Monday's docket—Maylon Allen, Robbins, assault with deadly weapon, 30 days suspended, $25 and costs; James Kennedy, Eagle Springs, assault with deadly weapon inflicting serious injury, six months on roads, suspended on account of his youth, and on condition he pay hospital and medical bills of prosecuting witness and surrender the pocket knife to be destroyed; also for the next two years not carry a knife on his person or violate any kind of law; Tom Gibson, West End, public drunkenness, 30 days suspended for 12 months on good behavior, not to drink any intoxicating beverages during that time.

John L. Maultsby, Aberdeen, Rt. 1, public drunkenness, disorderly conduct, carrying concealed weapon, continued to September 11; Sebault Thomas, Jackson Springs, and Ila Fry, Carthage, bedding and cohabiting, prayer for judgment continued on payment of costs (by male defendant) and on condition they no longer occupy the same house unless legally married to each other; Elijah Epps, West End, unlawful possession of ill icit whiskey for sale, four months suspended for two years on payment of $100 and costs, not to violate any prohibition laws during the next two years; John McCall, Vass, aiding and abetting in unlawful possession of illicit whiskey for sale, brew for sale, prayer for judgment continued on payment of costs.

"Butcher Knife" Willie C. Ciggins, Tramway, carrying concealed weapon, and Ellis M. Poindexter, Cameron, Rt. 1, unlawful possession of deadly weapon and driving without license, 30 days suspended on payment of a joint fine of $50 and half the costs each, the butcher knife to be destroyed ("if it is a butcher knife," noted the judge—"it looks more like a dagger.") Poindexter gave notice of appeal to superior court and appeal bond was set at $200.

Harvey McNeill, assault with deadly weapon, four months on roads; Billy Sercy, public drunkenness, called and failed, $100 cash bond forfeited to school fund. Cases on docket of Monday, August 21, hitherto unreported here—Meredith Robinson, Fort Bragg, careless and reckless driving resulting in personal injury and property damage, driving without license, three months on roads; sentence suspended on payment of costs since it was found defendant had already been alerted for service probably in Korea, and also in view of the fact that he was seriously injured in the accident and stayed in the hospital almost a month.

James Turner, Aberdeen, trespass, 30 days suspended on payment of costs, and on condition that defendant stay away from premises of Lucile DeLoach and otherwise obey the laws for the next two years; Addison Burns, Niagara, non-support of wife and children, three months on the roads; Claude Raymond Goebel, Jr., Allentown, Pa., speeding 85 mph, called and failed, cash bond of $100 forfeited; Robert Reeves, Winston, speeding, called and failed, cash bond of $40 forfeited.

FARM BUREAU

The Moore County Farm Bureau will meet Monday at 8 p. m. at the courthouse in Carthage, with E. Y. Floyd, of the Plant Food Institute, as guest speaker.

Mr. Floyd will discuss "Green Pastures in Moore County." The public is invited, said T. C. Auman, of West End, president.

A Farm Bureau district meeting will also be held at the courthouse, today (Friday) at 10 a. m.

Gridders Looking Good Despite Sultry Weather

Blue & White Aspirants Hold Daily Workouts

One of Southern Pines' delights is its weather, usually mild and sunny. The last several days have been no exception—that is, until Monday afternoon when 22 grid aspirants reported at Memorial Field for the first fall practice. Then and there the sun blazed forth in July-like glory, and by signal drill time the squad was ready for a signal to make it for the showers.

But Coach Leonard, who is in charge of the workouts during Coach Dawson's temporary absence, thought that as a group the players were in good condition.

Running through signals, punting drills, pass plays, and conditioning exercises are on tap for the rest of this week. Two practice sessions are being held daily, but no heavy equipment will be issued until next week. Then work will be begun toward getting the squad ready for the full-game scrimmages for the NCHSAA six-man football coaches clinic, scheduled here next Friday and Saturday.

Others are expected to join the squad next week with the opening of school.

Enjoy LABOR DAY ...the Laborless Way!

Spend Labor Day out of doors. Plan a picnic around a delicious smoked ham from your nearby friendly Colonial Store. They're juicy, tender, and full-flavored. Surround the ham with Colonial's other picnic-prizes—crisp potato chips, sweet and sour pickles, fresh cole slaw, hard-boiled eggs, lettuce, tomatoes, and plenty of Our Pride sandwich bread to encourage the feasters to make their own sandwiches. Be sure to bake your ham a day or two ahead of time, so that a Labor Day of hearty eating will still be your day to play!
