SOUTHERN PINES DEBUTANTE

MISS LOUISE MILLIKEN

Miss Louise Milliken Will Make Debut At Annual Ball Next Week

Miss Louise Milliken, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Milliken of Southern Pines, will make her bow to society next week at the annual Debutante ball in Memorial auditorium, Raleigh, sponsored by the Terpsichorean club.

Naturally Louise is thrilled as she prepares to participate in this social highlight of the year and the exciting events attendant upon it, which will keep the 134 debs from throughout the state in a whirl from Thursday night through Saturday night.

She has chosen Wyndham Clark as her chief marshal, and as assistants, Bobby Harrington, Robert McLeod, Johnny Prizer of Brookline, N. H., and Carlton Kennedy of Carthage.

This season's only local deb will be a senior at St. Mary's, where she is active in all phases of college life. She is president of The Circle, a secret honor society; president of the Mu's, one of two athletic groups; vice president of the Doctor's Daughters club, posture queen for 1949-50, a member of the tennis team and the all-star basketball team, and secretary of the Hall council.

Louise is well versed in debutante balls, as her mother, the former Louise Manning of Raleigh, made her debut at the Terpsichorean club's first ball in 1923, and her sister Sue was presented at the 1941 ball.

Louise will be accompanied to Raleigh by her mother, who will attend a coffee hour for mothers of debs at Stratton Hall, home of Mrs. Norman Edward Edgerton, Jr., on Friday, as well as the Debutante ball that night.

Miss Margaret Bishop left last weekend for her cottage in Banner Elk, where she will remain until October.

ROUND OF SOCIAL EVENTS FETES MISS MCCAIN PRIOR TO WEDDING

Miss Jane Todd McCain was the center of a round of entertaining prior to her wedding yesterday afternoon.

First of the series of pre-nuptial courtesies was a lovely tea given in Raeford last Friday by Mrs. R. B. Lewis and Mrs. H. A. Cameron. They presented the bride-elect gifts of silver and crystal.

Friday evening at the Willis home in McCain, Mrs. H. S. Willis, Mrs. William Peck and Miss Carrie Toomer entertained 35 guests at dinner honoring Miss McCain.

Saturday morning Mrs. Frances M. Dwight was hostess at a coffee hour at her home on Highway 1, north of Southern Pines. Her sister, Mrs. Bernard Nance of Ellerbe, assisted in entertaining.

The bridal motif of green and white was used in the dining room, where the table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, feverfew and fern. White candles were used on the table and buffet.

Mrs. Walter Harper of Southern Pines poured coffee and Mrs. Ralph Caldwell of Aberdeen presided at the tea service. Chicken

Mr. and Mrs. Mills Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mills celebrated their second wedding anniversary Tuesday night by informally entertaining a number of friends.

For refreshments the guests were invited into the dining room, where the beautifully appointed table, with dishes of jello in assorted colors topped with whipped cream from which realistic gumdrop tulips "grew," gave the appearance of a huge flower bed. Cake and coca-colas were served, also.

For their cotton anniversary the couple were presented many useful gifts for their home.

There to join in the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leland, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cheatham, Mrs. Anna Patch Blue, Mrs. Lillian Miles Raymond, Mrs. Nancy McClellan, Mrs. Florence Edwards, Mrs. Emma Haines, Mrs. A. Johnnie Harrison, Miss Georgia Wilson, Clyde Council, Charles Patch and Mr. and Mrs. Buster C. Doyle.

Outdoor Supper

Half a dozen families gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Arnold Tuesday evening for an outdoor supper. . . not just a run-of-the-mill outdoor supper, but an extra special one at which fish caught at Shallotte on the North Carolina coast by the men of the families, on a weekend fishing trip, were served, with accessories.

In the fishing party, which brought back "a lard stand full" or about 50 pounds of fish, were Morris Arnold, Dock McRae, Taris Kruk, Curtis Bettini, Wilbur Edwards of Vass, Rt. 2, and his brother-in-law, Leonard Grant, of Warrenton, Ill.

Visiting the Kleinspehns

Ralph Kleinspehn is spending a two weeks' vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kleinspehn, on E. New York avenue. He has as his guest Miss Rose Marie Lupino, of Watkins Glen, N. Y. They spent several days this week at Myrtle Beach.

Ralph is physical education director at the high school at Fillmore, N. Y., and this summer served as director of their summer recreation program.

His sister Ruth was home to see him last weekend from Winston-Salem, where she is a student nurse at the Baptist hospital.

Youth Fellowship Presents Program

A very impressive program with several silent pauses between readings was presented on Sunday night at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church when Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dutton and Dickie Ray gave the program of the Youth Fellowship entitled "Be Silent and Know." The Scripture was taken from Isa. 6 and 30 and John 7 and was read by Dickie Ray.

After the program refreshments were served by a committee of the Women of the Church.

Mrs. Lewis Is Hostess To Baptist YW Auxiliary

The Young Women's auxiliary of the Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bruce H. Lewis, with the president, Miss Audrey Epps, conducting the business session.

Miss Mary E. Hackney was leader of an interesting program on mission work in Italy.

The next meeting will be held with Miss Betty Dupree as hostess at her home on North Ashe street on September 12, and the project is to make up a Christmas package for children of Japan.

Bullock-Hunsucker Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hunsucker of the Southern Pines-Aberdeen road announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Hazeline, to Maynard Bullock, son of Mrs. O. M. Bullock of Vass and the late Mr. Bullock. The wedding took place Saturday, August 26, in Dillon, S. C.

House Party

Mrs. R. L. Chandler, Sr., and five of her friends, Mrs. William Dale, Mrs. N. S. Kimball, Mrs. Frank Buchan, Sr., Mrs. M. Y. Poe and Mrs. S. B. Richardson, were members of a house party at the Chandler cottage at Garden City beach from Monday until Thursday.

MISS JANE TODD MCCAIN EXCHANGES WEDDING VOWS WITH J. M. REAGAN, JR.

The wedding of Miss Jane Todd W. A. Peck of McCain, Mrs. L. T. McCain, daughter of Mrs. Paul Avery of Southern Pines, Mrs. Pressley McCain of Southern Currie McLaughlin of Raeford Pines and the late Dr. McCain, and Mrs. A. A. Vanore of Robbins. Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan Reagan of Hartford, Ala., was solemnized at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, August 31, at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church in Southern Pines. The ceremony was heard by the Rev. Bonneau H. Dickson, of the Rock Spring Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, Ga.

Ivy, smilax, palms and baskets filled with white gladioli decorated the church, and white tapers were on the altar.

Prior to the ceremony Charles Mills, organist, of Sarasota, Fla., and Miss Miralyn Johnson, vocalist, of Ashley Heights, presented a program of wedding music. Miss Johnson's numbers were "I Love Thee, Dear," "O Perfect Love," and, used as a prayer, "Seal Us, O Holy Spirit."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John McCain, of Southern Pines, wore a wedding gown of white satin fashioned on princess lines with lace medallions at the neck, and sleeves ending in points over the wrists. She wore her mother's veil, which fell from a Juliet cap of imported lace and was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a white purple-throated orchid surrounded loosely by white carnations.

Mrs. Daniel Miles McFarland of Raleigh, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Her bodice of ice-blue satin topped a full skirt of blue net over pink-orchid net. At her throat she wore a floating opal pendant, a gift of the bride, and in her hair a simple wreath of tiny pink-dot chrysanthemums. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pat Overton of Shelby, Miss Julia Kennerly of Monte Vallo, Ala., a cousin of the groom; Miss Elizabeth Flowers of Clarkston, Ga., and Miss Nancy Beam Funderburk of Greensboro. Miss Sara Johnston McCollum of Leaksville, small niece of the bride, was flower girl. All of the bride's attendants, including the flower girl, were dressed identically with the matron of honor.

Joe Reagan of Eufaula, Ala., served his brother as best man. Ushers included Will Kennedy of Spartanburg, S. C., Gene Holman of Hartford, Ala., R. Wallace Pack of Beaumont, Texas, Randy Taylor of Milledgeville, Ga., Daniel M. McFarland of Raleigh, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Hill McCollum, Jr., of Leaksville, also a brother-in-law of the bride.

With their costumes mothers of the bride and groom wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given in the Fellowship Hall of the church by Mr. and Mrs. Hill McCollum, Jr., the bride's sister and brother-in-law. Fall flowers decorated the hall.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. H. A. Cameron of Raeford, Mrs.

Co-Hostesses Honor Miss McLeod, Bride-Elect, At Shower

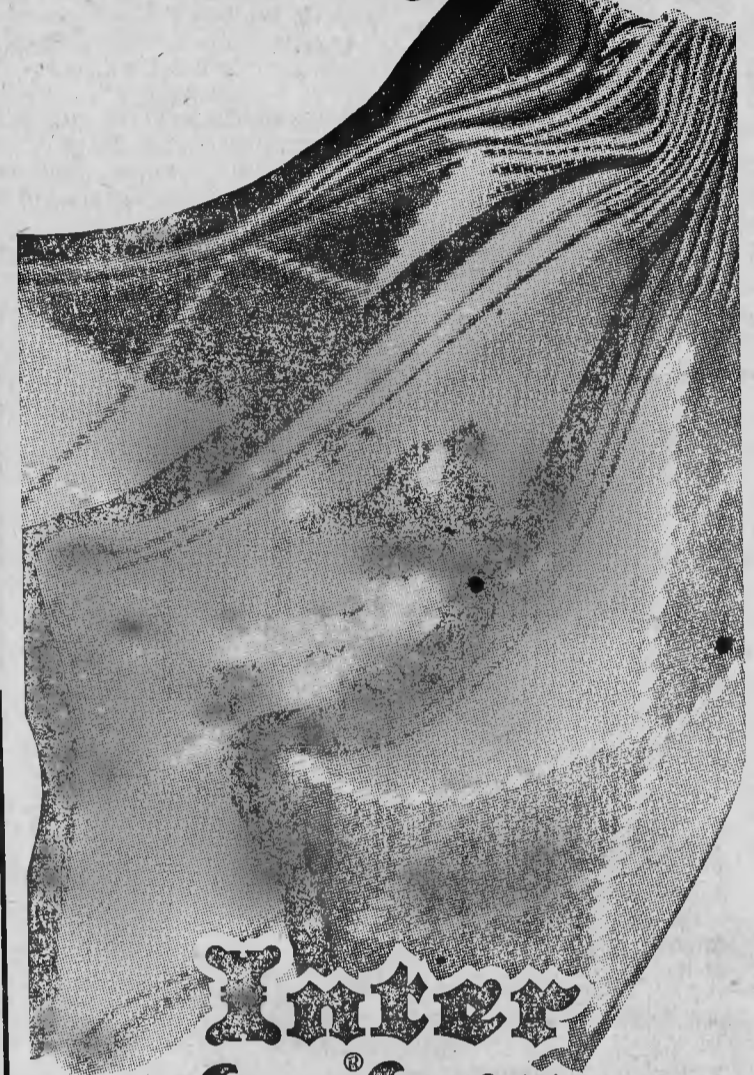

Honoring Miss Sarah McLeod of Aberdeen, bride-elect of this month, Mrs. David McCallum of Southern Pines and Mrs. Floyd Medlin of Pinehurst were co-hostesses at a garden party and miscellaneous shower at the McCallum home Wednesday evening. Contests were engaged in, and prizes were awarded Mrs. Ted Klingenschmidt and Mrs. J. L. Roberts. The shower gifts were attached by streamers to a parasol for presentation to the honoree. These were opened and displayed.

The bridal motif of green and white was emphasized in the refreshments of cake and punch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Matthews and children of Wilmington have been visiting Mrs. W. Duncan Matthews for several days.
