Local Girl To Appear In Dance Recital

"Ports of Call" will be the theme of a dance-interpreted musical trip around the world to be staged tonight (Friday) by the Creative Rhythms group at Meredith college, and Miss Patricia Kirk of Southern Pines will be one of the dancers. Set for 8:00 p.m. in the new college auditorium, the second annual recital of creative dances is open to the public with no admission charged, according to Margaret Carey, director, of the physical education faculty.

Beginning with a "Winter Scene" in a New England setting, all the interpretive dances will evolve from the journey theme, each having a travel setting. Costumes and choreography for all the dances are completely original with the students who perform them.

A panel of judges will pick the best four compositions from the group, judged on the basis of choreography, costuming, background and performance. In addition to its function as a public performance, the recital serves also as the final examination for the fifty-one performing members of the two Creative Rhythms classes under Miss Carey.

Miss Kirk will appear in the opening poetry group, as well as in the following special dances: Winter Scene, Mardi Gras, Little Black Train Is A-Comin', The Old Music Box, The Sea, and the Grand Finale. She has also coached several of the performing groups. Miss Kirk is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Kirk.

Music Lovers Meet Mildred Hendrix At Collins Home

Following the organ recital given by Mildred Hendrix, Duke Chapel organist, at Emmanuel Episcopal church Thursday night, an informal get-together was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Collins on Young's road, where she was an overnight guest.

Around two dozen music lovers dropped in to meet Mrs. Hendrix, and she very graciously played for group singing and for solos by Tom Cordon, Mrs. Gertrude Page, Mrs. Collins and others. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hendrix, wife of Dr. James T. Hendrix of Duke hospital and mother of three children, was a talented pianist before her marriage. It was at the insistence of her husband, a great lover of music, that she took up the study of organ, and she gives him, with his encouragement and cooperation, the credit for her achievement in this field. She has been organist at Duke chapel for several years. The Hendrix and Collins families have been friends for a number of years.

Mrs. Tompkins And Sister Arrive At Holiday House

Mrs. Millard F. Tompkins and her sister, Mrs. Joseph F. Becker, of Bellport, N. Y., arrived Monday at Mrs. Tompkins' home, Holiday House, in Knollwood. Next Monday Mr. and Mrs. Millard F. Tompkins, Jr., will join them for an extended visit.

Last Saturday afternoon Miss Nancy Tompkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard F. Tompkins, Jr., was married to Ensign Charles B. Butler, of the United States Coast Guard Reserve, at the home of her parents in Westport, Conn.

The family, including the bride's sister Caryl (now Mrs. John S. Hathaway), has spent every spring vacation in Knollwood as guests of their grandmother.

Learn-More Bible Class Meetings

The Learn-More Bible class (interdenominational) will meet at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Morris Arnold on Page street for a study of the 10th chapter of Hebrews. Mrs. M. G. McRae will be co-hostess.

Around 30 attended last Monday night's meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Wesley Stoltz with Mrs. Stoltz, Mrs. B. W. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Charlie Austin, and Mrs. Ida Lorenson as hostesses.

Miss Irene Hungerpillar, a missionary, spoke on Costa Rica, telling of the country, its exports, the people, their customs and religion. Wesley Stoltz sang several numbers, with Mrs. L. D. McDonald as accompanist.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Wallace Gives Shower For Miss Yow

Mrs. Luther C. Wallace of Carthage was hostess at a kitchen shower at her home Friday evening honoring Miss Sarah Yow prior to her wedding on Sunday to Bob Cameron.

Rummy was played at three tables. The honoree's place was marked with a corsage of chinchinchees imported from Africa, the corsage being showered with tiny plastic knives, forks and plates on narrow plastic ribbon. Mrs. Herbert Hardy won the high score prize, dusting powder, which she in turn presented to Miss Yow.

The bridal motif decorated the covers of a loose-leaf cookbook in which each guest wrote her favorite recipe for the bride-elect. The shower gifts included many attractive and useful articles for the home-to-be.

Mrs. Wallace served a congealed salad, sandwiches and coffee.

The guest list included, besides the honoree, Mrs. Herb Hardy, Mrs. Martha Cameron, Mrs. Jimmie Lawson, Mrs. Ed Small, and Mrs. Alex Cameron, of Southern Pines; Mrs. J. R. Lynch and son Jimmie, of Sanford; Mrs. Harvey Miller, Mrs. Bill Muse, Mrs. Laverne Womack, Mrs. B. C. Wallace, Miss Nell Sheffield and Miss Judith Wainer.

Mazes Are Feted On Silver Anniversary

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maze gathered at their home on Massachusetts avenue last Friday night to surprise them on their Silver Wedding anniversary. The honorees were the recipients of many useful gifts as well as a nice sum of money. Mrs. Maze's church circle gave her a lovely silver bon-bon dish.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Maze, Mrs. Leon Wylie, Sr., Mrs. Clifton Cameron, Mrs. Mattie Rice, her grandsons Benny and Buddy Thomas, Mrs. N. E. Gilliland, Mrs. Ed Newton, Mrs. F. M. Dwight, Mrs. Jack Frost, Mrs. David McCallum, Mrs. R. E. Workman, Mrs. M. B. Kellis, Mrs. Howard McNeill and Mrs. Dan McNeill.

Bingo Party Planned By VFW Auxiliary

The Ladies' Auxiliary, VFW, is planning a bingo party for February 16 at which many lovely prizes will be given. Proceeds will benefit the Korean casualties at the station hospital at Fort Bragg. Further details will be announced later.

Among other worthwhile projects, the Auxiliary of John Boyd Post 7318 has been sending monthly donations of cash, records, children's toys, puzzles, books, etc., to the Caswell Training school at Kinston. This is a State Department project of the Ladies' Auxiliary VFW.

Circle Attendance Mounts To New High

With a total Circle attendance of 91, Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church began the New Year with an all-time record high, this being one ahead of the previous high of 90, achieved last month.

Last of the Circles to meet was No. 6, which was entertained by Mrs. Robert Thomas in her home on Thursday night of last week with Mrs. Lloyd Prime as co-hostess. Included in the 10 members present was one new one, Miss Edna Lou Bailey, and Mrs. Joe C. Thomas was a visitor.

Mrs. Prime conducted the Bible study and Mrs. Joe Garzik gave the Survey article.

Week of Prayer To Be Observed

The Week of Prayer and Self-Denial will be observed at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church January 28 through February 4, with services every day from 3 to 3:30 in the auditorium. The officers urge all members to make plans now to attend each of these services. The public is invited to join with the members in attendance.

VFW Auxiliary District Meeting

Announcement is made of the VFW Ladies' Auxiliary district meeting which is to be held in Hamlet at 2 p. m. Sunday. Also, on Saturday, January 20, at the Post home in Hamlet there will be a barbecue. This is open for all Auxiliary members who have paid their 1951 membership dues.

Baptist Women Hold Monthly Circle Meetings

The three Circles of the First Baptist church held their monthly meetings Tuesday.

The Willing Workers met at the home of Mrs. T. T. Ward, with Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Elliott Dorris as co-hostesses and with 17 members present.

"His Command and My Task" was the topic of an inspiring program led by Mrs. C. B. Gale, with Mrs. Ben Steen taking part. Mrs. William Dale conducted the devotions. A brief business session was presided over by Mrs. Preston Stancil, chairman, and the meeting ended with a social period during which sandwiches, cookies and cocoa were served by the hostesses.

Dorothy Wonderley

Miss Mary Richardson was hostess to the Dorothy Wonderley circle, which had as its program a talk by Miss Irene Hungerpillar on her mission work in Costa Rica, a talk that was heard with interest by the 20 members present. Mrs. James Clayton conducted the business session. Refreshments were enjoyed.

Business Women

Installation of officers was a feature of the 8 o'clock meeting of the Business Women's circle, held at the Baker home with Mrs. W. L. Baker and Mrs. W. E. Bushby as co-hostesses. Around 25 were present.

Prior to a business period presided over by Mrs. Nellie Mann, Mrs. W. C. Holland, in an impressive service, installed the following officers: Mrs. Nellie Mann, chairman; Mrs. Fred Chappell, co-chairman; Mrs. Robert Howard, recording secretary; Mrs. W. S. Thomasson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ray Trudell, treasurer.

Mrs. Otto Edwards led the devotions and introduced Miss Irene Hungerpillar, who talked on Costa Rica.

The hostess served refreshments.

Girl Scout Troop 51 Has Birthday Party

Girl Scout Troop 51 held its quarterly birthday party Saturday afternoon, honoring members of the troop who had birthdays during the past three months.

They saw the show at the Carolina theatre, then repaired to the Elks club, where in the grove they built their bonfire and held a wiener roast.

A beautiful birthday cake, given by the troop committee chairman, Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy, was the climax of the party. Mrs. W. P. Davis is leader of Troop 51.

WILLIAM WINFRED FAGUNDUS, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fagundus of 506 West Avenue, Pittman, N. J., are the proud parents of a seven-pound, eight-ounce son, William Winfred, Jr., born January 13, at Cooper hospital, Camden, N. J. The arrival has a sister, Lois Faith.

Mrs. Fagundus was formerly Miss Lois McLeod of the Eureka community.

KAY PAGE (Mrs. C. N.), right, was installed as president of Southern Pines Drove No. 42, Benevolent Patriotic Order of Does, in a public ceremony at the Southern Pines Country Club Tuesday evening, January 9. Shown with her is THELMA HOFFMAN (Mrs. H. L.), Deputy Supreme President, who was the installing officer.

The Southern Pines Drove is one of only three in North Carolina, the others being at Charlotte and Wilmington. Four members of the Wilmington Drove, two of whom are Grand Lodge officers, were present at the installation ceremony, which was followed by a social at the Elks Lodge for Does and Elks.

Past presidents of Drove 42 are Mrs. Louis Scheipers, Mrs. H. L. Hoffman and Mrs. J. D. Sitterson.

MISS SARAH YOW AND ROBERT CAMERON EXCHANGE WEDDING VOWS IN CARTHAGE

A wedding of simplicity and beauty occurred Sunday afternoon, January 14, at 5:00 o'clock in the Methodist church at Carthage when Miss Sarah H. Yow became the bride of Robert F. Cameron of Southern Pines.

Dr. John Cline, assisted by the Rev. George Blount, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar banked with pines and ferns interspersed with tall seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral candles. The altar was further decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Greenery banked the choir loft, and its railing was outlined with candles. A white satin prayer bench, on which the couple knelt for the final prayer, centered the altar scene.

Miss Becky Wallace of Carthage and Miss Barbara Morgan of Sanford, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles.

Mrs. M. J. McPhail, organist, and Miss Rose Miller, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music. Two of the numbers used, "O Promise Me" and "Because," were chosen by the bride because they had been sung in the same church 40 years ago at the last church wedding that had occurred in the family: that of her maternal aunt, Mrs. T. L. Riddle, of Sanford.

Ushers were Alex Cameron of Southern Pines, brother of the groom, and Eddie Cox of Jonesboro Heights, Sanford.

The bride and groom entered together, unattended, the bride wearing a violet suit with orchid blouse and hat, the hat trimmed with violet veiling. Her other accessories were brown and she wore an orchid corsage.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wallace entertained at a lovely reception at their home on Pinehurst drive for around 60, including the bridal party and close relatives. Mrs. Wallace greeted the guests.

The living room, dining room and sun parlor were elaborately decorated with white gladioli, carnations, and tall burning tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Harvey Miller of Carthage and Mrs. Alec Cameron of Southern Pines, sisters of the bride, invited the guests into the dining room. The table was covered with an imported lace cloth and centered with a floral arrangement of bridal green and white flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers. At one end was a three-tiered wedding cake and at the other, a crystal bowl of punch. After the bride and groom had cut the first slice, Mrs. T. L. Riddle served the cake and Mrs. J. R. Lynch, sister of the bride, poured punch. Misses Barbara Morgan, Rose Miller and Becky Wallace assisted in serving. Music was furnished by Mrs. M. J. McPhail, and goodbyes were said to Mrs. E. L. Morgan.

After the reception the couple left for a motor trip to Key West, Fla.

The bride is the daughter of R. L. Yow and the late Mrs. Mamie Reid Yow of Carthage. She is a graduate of Carthage High school and has been associated in business with her father.

Mr. Cameron is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cameron of Southern Pines. He is a graduate of the Southern Pines High school, and at present is in the oil business with his father.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Cameron will be at home in the Gertrude apartments, Southern Pines.
