

Veteran of Korea Joins National Guard

Francis Shea, who was discharged February 1 after three and a half years' Army service, joined up again right away—this time in the National Guard. He resumed his military grade of Sergeant in the Moore County anti-aircraft battery.

Sergeant Shea is the battery's only veteran of warfare in Korea, one of the very few in the National Guard anywhere. He returned on rotation furlough early in December after serving in Korea for more than a year.

Warrant Officer Lennox Forsyth, battery administrative officer, also announced the addition of a local boy this month as a recruit. This is Milton Kaylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Kaylor. Milton has a brother, Richard, serving in the Navy.

David Gillis, Jr., Of Mount Olive, Wins Award For New Boy Scout Song

David Gillis, Jr., 13-year-old grandson of Mrs. R. M. Gillis and Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Cameron, of Manly, a Star Scout, was recently declared winner of a Boy Scout song contest conducted by Troop 34 at Mount Olive, where his family lives. He was presented a cash prize.

The winning song, to be sung to the tune of "The Caisson Song," follows:
Troop 34, Troop 34, we are good and then some more,
As our banners go flying ahead,
Counter-march, right about, hear the good Scoutmaster shout,
As our troop goes a-marching along.

(Refrain)
For it's Hi, Hi, Ho, We're the Scouts of 34,
Step out and lead the world today,
And we'll never rest, we will always do our best,
As those banners go flying along (Keep on plugging)
As those banners go flying along.

We are free, let's stay free, let's preserve our liberty,
Keep the banners still flying above.
Keep the Oath, keep the Laws, Let's protect our noble cause,
For the land we all know and we love.

David has been interested in music since early childhood. Formerly a member of the Mount Olive Children's choir, he now sings in the adult choir of the Presbyterian church as does his mother, the former Mary Elizabeth Cameron, who is remembered locally as a member of the SPSHS Glee club and Girls' trio, and a wily little fighting guard on the basketball team.

David is a trombonist in the Mount Olive School band, and has been studying piano for several years. His younger brother, Milton, plays a cornet in the band, and Barbara, youngest of the three, has joined the junior band with her saxophone.

David and his family formerly lived at Manly.

Mid-South Insurance Firm Gets Charter

The Mid-South Insurance and Realty Co., Inc. of Southern Pines was recently chartered as a corporation by Secretary of State Thad Eure.

Total authorized stock is given as $100,000, with John W. Underwood, John W. Underwood, Jr., and Donald L. McKinney listed as subscribers.

A one-story brick office building is being built on East Pennsylvania avenue on land recently acquired by John Underwood from its owners, Miss Miriam Herr, as trustee, and Dr. E. W. Bush.

TRIAL IS SET

Actress Wendy Barrie's $17,500 "missing gem" suit against the Highland Pines Inn has been placed on the March calendar of Middle District federal court, for trial at Rockingham.

Charles Stitzer, Jr., owner-manager of the resort hotel, had himself removed as a party defendant on the ground that he was a resident of New Jersey. Whether separate suit will be instituted in New Jersey is not known here.

The actress accused Mr. Stitzer of "wilful and wanton negligence" in the loss of a diamond- and ruby-encrusted clip given into his keeping last winter.

Stitzer charged in his answer that Miss Barrie "recklessly and wrongfully" deposited the clip "with the purpose of collecting from an insurance company in case of theft or loss."

CARTHAGE

Ladies Night

On the evening of February 14, the Carthage Jaycees entertained their "valentines" at the Village Inn Supper club in Southern Pines.

After dinner, Stowe Cole, president of the Jaycees, introduced the speaker, Carl Goerch, who talked on interesting facts of North Carolina, in the manner of his radio program, "Carolina Chats," which he broadcasts from Raleigh.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Gilbert Bailey, an Admiral clock-radio combination, and Mrs. Spivey, a hand-painted tray, second prize.

Dancing was enjoyed by the Jaycees and their guests.

Music Club Meets

The Carthage Music club met with Mrs. F. H. Underwood Friday evening at her home on Pinehurst drive.

The composer for the evening's study was Johannes Brahms, Piano selections by Brahms were played by Mrs. H. G. Poole and Mrs. Thaddeus Frye. Mrs. Colin G. Spencer, Jr., sang "My Dear One's Mouth is Like the Rose," by the same composer. Mrs. H. J. Hall played two piano numbers, "Candlelight" by Rolfe and "Second Mazurka" by Goddard.

The hostess served chicken salad, heartshaped sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Guests other than club members were Mrs. Curtis Muse, Mrs. Holt McNeill, and Mrs. U. L. Barrett, and an honorary member, Mrs. W. S. Golden.

Local Boys On TV

Bill Sabiston, Jr., Bill Flinchum, Bill Frye and Bill Holder, as the "Four Bills," appeared on a TV program televised at Greensboro Wednesday night. The quartet sang a Negro spiritual.

Monday morning the high school boys will broadcast over WEEB in Southern Pines a program of folk songs and spirituals.

The "Four Bills" are becoming popular entertainers and have been invited to sing at several local club meetings and parties.

PTA Meets

The February meeting of the Carthage PTA was held in the high school auditorium Monday evening. Mrs. W. B. Hill led the devotions, and B. F. Whitlock, Jr., president, reported additional contributions to the free lunch fund.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAM

A civil service examination for engineering draftsman for employment at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard, Portsmouth, Va., has been announced, according to Lansing T. Hall, civil service secretary at the local post office.

Fields covered by the examination are: electrical, electronics, general, marine, mechanical, naval architect, ordnance, ship construction, and structural.

No written test is required. Competitors will be rated on the basis of their experience. Samples of drafting work must be submitted with applications.

Complete details and application forms may be obtained from Mr. Hall.

Use of radio instead of poles and wires for some parts of rural telephone systems is soon to be tested on an experimental basis by the Rural Electrification Administration.

Dr. Wonderly Tells Young People Of Mission Task Among Zoque Indians

Dr. William Wonderly, home for a short time with his wife and children from their mission project in mountainous southern Mexico, spoke Sunday evening before a united meeting of young people of the Baptist, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Congregational churches.

The meeting, held at the First Baptist church, was one of a monthly series being held by the young people's groups. About 50 members and their advisors were present.

Dr. Wonderly spoke of "portions for whom nothing was prepared," a Bible reference applied to Indian tribes for whom no "Bible portions" had been provided.

Going several years ago to live among the Zoque Indians, Dr. Wonderly had to begin from scratch the task of providing them with the Scriptures, for no written language existed for the tribe of 20,000. As representative of the American Wycliffe society, he transcribed their lingual forms into a written language, completed a Bible for them and taught them to read it. He also tape-recorded Bible readings, hymns and lessons in their language.

As part of his Sunday night program, Dr. Wonderly played some of the Zoque music on their primitive instruments.

Mary Louise Hackney, president of the Baptist young people's group, presented the speaker.

His talk followed a supper for which the members brought sandwiches and other good things to eat, supplemented by Russian tea, cakes and cookies provided by the host church.

NORTH CAROLINA UNLIMITED

MORE POWER FOR NORTH CAROLINA FARMERS!

A miracle has taken place in North Carolina's rural electrification. In 1935 there were only 11,558 farm families with electric service. As of July 1, 1951, there were more than 470,000 farm customers! Other power plants, now under construction, mean that still more isolated rural areas soon will be served. North Carolina moves forward as a better place in which to work, play and live.

Another fine example of North Carolina progress is the United States Brewers Foundation policy of cooperating closely with retailers of beer and ale in "legal control" counties to help maintain orderly law-abiding conditions for the sale of beer and ale, thus providing an important contribution to the pleasant living that is North Carolina.
