Attend Celebration Of Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Culbreth and Mr. and Mrs. L. Harris Coley Jr., attended the annual Open House at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Avery, Corning in Hamlet Friday night, in celebration of their wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Smiley Is Hostess At Party

Mrs. Luella C. Smiley gave a canasta party at her home Wednesday afternoon to benefit the Church of Wide Fellowship building fund. Three tables were at play. Mrs. William E. Cox won first prize and Mrs. Harry Menzel, traveling prize.

Holiday Guests In Maples Home

The holiday season was one of especial pleasure in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Maples. In addition to their son Gene, a seaman first class in the US Navy who was at home from Hawaii, the following members of the family were here for holiday visits: Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bowers and daughter, Mrs. Shirley Buck, of Beaufort, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bowers, Jr., of Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Robertson of Florence, S. C., and their sons, Bobby of Florence and Pfc. Jimmy Robertson, now stationed in Massachusetts; Jimmy Maples and daughters Mary Ann and Jane Allen Maples, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Maples and children, Ashley, Kathy and Debbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Maples and daughter, Frances, all of Lumberton; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Fitzgerald of Liberty; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Maples and children, Barbara and Bobby, of Erie, Pa.

Episcopal Women Hold Epiphany Observance

On Tuesday, the Feast of the Epiphany, following Holy Communion at Emmanuel church, a luncheon was held, attended by 30 women of the Episcopal church. Acting as hostesses were Mrs. Thomas Hodgson and Mrs. R. E. Rhodes.

Mrs. Hodgson read a poem of her own composition, and Mrs. Rhodes provided the Twelfth Night cake. After the luncheon, pictures of Canterbury Cathedral were projected on a screen by the rector, the Rev. Charles V. Covell. Mrs. Fred Brindley gave Scripture references for a biblical cake, and prizes will be given at next year's party for the best solution to the riddle.

Next year's hostesses, as determined by the bean and the pea found in the cake, will be Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins and Mrs. Elise Lewis.

MR. AND MRS. ELOIS H. LAWRENCE

MISS VIVIAN DUNCAN BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. LAWRENCE AT WEST PALM BEACH

In a ceremony at Wagg Memorial Methodist church, West Palm Beach, Fla., at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, December 20, Miss Vivian Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Duncan of West Palm Beach, became the bride of E. H. (Buddy) Lawrence, son of Mrs. Lela Lawrence of Southern Pines and the late Elisha H. Lawrence. The Rev. W. T. Blair officiated.

Prior to the ceremony a musical program was presented. Mrs. A. D. Carroll, organist, played "Ave Maria," "At Dawning," and "O Promise Me," and accompanied Miss Lois Walker of Orlando, Fla., who sang "I Love Thee," "Because," and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue wool suit, winter white hat and navy accessories. She carried a white orchid on a prayerbook with white baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Edna Duncan, wearing a beige gabardine suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations, was her sister's maid of honor.

The bridegroom was attended by Robert E. Franklin as best man. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Lawrence attended Palm Beach Junior college and Florida State university. For the past two years she has been on the faculty of the Clermont schools, where she plans to remain through the current school term.

Mr. Lawrence attended school in Southern Pines and has been in the Navy since 1942. He was on overseas duty during the greater part of World War 2 and more recently was stationed in Cuba. A first class petty officer, he is at the Naval Air Base in Jacksonville for a course of special schooling which will terminate at about the same time that his wife's school closes, after which they plan to go to Cuba.

MUCH ENTERTAINING ENLIVEN THE HOLIDAY SEASON IN SOUTHERN PINES

The holiday season in Southern Pines was marked by a round of parties, most of which were small gatherings of friends in the homes.

The Elks club's New Year's party at the Southern Pines Country Club drew the largest attendance—an estimated 350—and was one of the most successful in the club's history. Dancing to music by Buster Doyle and his Aristocrats, delicious refreshments, favors and gifts made the evening a delightful one for Elks, Does and their guests. Louis Scheipers was general chairman of the event, with Joe Garzik, Jerry Ashton and Harry Fullenwider assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Bridges held open house New Year's eve, with magnolia leaves and orchids used as decorations. Guests included friends from Southern Pines, Pinehurst, Greensboro, Sanford, Wadesboro and Aberdeen.

Capt. and Mrs. L. A. Des Pland entertained small parties at their home on both Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 30 and 31.

Postmaster and Mrs. Garland Pierce gave a reception at their home on Saturday night after Christmas as their annual courtesy to the postoffice employees, their husbands and wives.

Management of the Hollywood hotel gave a tea on the afternoon of New Year's day for their guests and a few additional friends.

Mrs. Woodell Honors Mrs. Stanley Austin

Honoring Mrs. Stanley Austin, Mrs. Ike Woodell entertained at a stork shower at her home Friday night.

The group played canasta for a while, and prizes of rattles, pins and kindred items, were awarded. Mrs. Austin was presented many dainty gifts, a number of which were sent by friends who were not able to attend the party. The evening ended with a refreshment period.

Attending were Mrs. Stanley Austin, Mrs. David Whitehead, Mrs. Bruce Nesbit, Mrs. Bruce Warlick, Mrs. E. J. Austin, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Boyd Starnes, Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. L. T. Hall and Miss Blanche Sherman.

New Heir-rivals

KRISTON PHILIP WOOLLEY
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Woolley received news Monday night of the birth of a grandson, Kriston Philip Woolley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Woolley of Bloomington, Ind. The baby was born Monday in Bloomington hospital weighing eight pounds, three ounces. He has a brother, Kevin, who will be two years old in March.

BABY BOY SPRINGER
Mr. and Mrs. James A. Springer are the proud parents of a son born January 7 at Moore County hospital weighing seven pounds, one ounce. Choice of a name for him has not been made. The Springers have a daughter, Sally, four years old.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Johnston of Fayetteville, celebrated her fourth birthday with a party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore, on December 29, while on a holiday visit here with her family.

Jane Anne was presented attractive gift packages which she had fun opening, and after a period of play, a decorated birthday cake and ice cream were served, and balloons and other favors were presented to the guests.

Enjoying the occasion with the young hostess were Patty and Carolyn Perham, Alice Shamburger, Cherry and Ricky Faw, Susan Huntley, and Janine Johnston, and even Bill Johnston, Jr., six months old, Jane Anne's brother, joined in the celebration. Beth Shamburger was prevented from attending by illness.

Bride-Elect Is Feted At Luncheon and Shower

Miss Catherine Sitterson, bride-elect of January 24, was honored by Miss Peggy Cameron at a tea and kitchen shower given last Friday at Tarheelia.

Upon arrival the honoree was presented a gardenia corsage, and, later, a piece of silver in her pattern.

The table was covered with an Italian cutwork cloth and held a green and white centerpiece. The four-course luncheon ended with wedding bell moulds of ice cream and bridal cake. The honoree was presented a shower of attractive articles for the kitchen of her future home.

Present for the party, which was enlivened by much "college chatter," were Miss Sitterson who is a student at Woman's college, and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Sitterson; Mrs. Charles Bartlett; Mrs. Peter Tufts, Miss Louise Milliken, Miss Janet Menzel and Miss Betty Baucom.

Jane Anne Johnston Celebrates Birthday At Grandparents' Home

Jane Anne Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Johnston of Fayetteville, celebrated her fourth birthday with a party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore, on December 29, while on a holiday visit here with her family.

Jane Anne was presented attractive gift packages which she had fun opening, and after a period of play, a decorated birthday cake and ice cream were served, and balloons and other favors were presented to the guests.

Enjoying the occasion with the young hostess were Patty and Carolyn Perham, Alice Shamburger, Cherry and Ricky Faw, Susan Huntley, and Janine Johnston, and even Bill Johnston, Jr., six months old, Jane Anne's brother, joined in the celebration. Beth Shamburger was prevented from attending by illness.

Off For California

Richard Patch of the US Navy, left Sunday on the return trip to Camp Pendleton, Cal., after spending about two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Patch. With him on the return trip were Gene Maples, returning to Hawaii after spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Maples and Niel Bailey, son of the D. E. Baileys, who will visit his brother Douglas in Santa Barbara, his sister, Mrs. Gordon MacDonnell at Solano Beach, Cal., and probably his brother, Dr. Robert Bailey, who is on the faculty of the University of Washington in Seattle.

Miss Gamble Is Honored At Supper

Honoring Miss Emmalyn Gamble of Monroe, who was a holiday houseguest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, a buffet supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkins, with the following completing the party: Mr. and Mrs. David Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. L. Harris Coley, Jr., Mrs. Graham Culbreth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pethick, and N. L. Hodgkins, Jr.

Mrs. Bartlett Is Feted At Luncheon

Honoring her niece and houseguest, Mrs. Charles Bartlett, Miss Katherine Wiley entertained at a luncheon at the Hollywood hotel on Tuesday, the 30th. Guests, in addition to the honoree, were Miss Peggy Cameron, Mrs. Peter Tufts, Mrs. John Howarth, Miss Janet Menzel, Miss Shirley Dana, Mrs. Bert Perham, and Mrs. William Johnston of Fayetteville.

Marshal At Ball

Tommy Avery of Southern Pines, a student at State college, attended the Inaugural Ball in Raleigh last night (Thursday) as the marshal of Miss Atkins of Lillington.

Mrs. Ellsworth Tompkins has returned to Hyattsville, Md., after spending three weeks at the Southland hotel while her husband is in Turkey in connection with work relating to the high schools.

Mr. and Mrs. William Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shawney of Littleton, N. H., are at the Southland hotel for two weeks.

Miss Jan Cameron of Buffalo, N. Y., spent part of the holidays as a guest of Bobby Harrington and his mother, Mrs. Bernice Harrington, at the Southland. Both Bobby and his friend are students at the University of New Hampshire. They drove back and ran into snow, so deep that they had to be pushed up three hills.

Mrs. Charles Bartlett (Jean Schaefer) was here from California for a week's visit to her grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Wiley, and Miss Katherine Wiley. She left Sunday to visit her parents in Asheboro.
