New Year Brings Thrills, Upsets In Moore County Cage Conference

West End Gives Robbins Boys Their First Defeat

If the first-week games are any indication of things to come in the new year, basketball enthusiasts in Moore county may count on rare thrills for the rest of the season. Upsets and indications of game experience and seasoning began to show, and to prove again that no team is safe in its position at this stage of the race.

The boys' race took the spotlight this week. West End, a team that in the early season rolled to three very impressive wins, and then just as quickly lost three in a row, ushered in the new year by administering their first defeat to the Robbins boys, 56-53. Outstanding players for West End were Floyd Jordan and Tommy Vest. The Robbins girls prevented the year's opener from being a complete loss by downing the West End girls 54-50. They were led by Margaret Williams and Edwina Burns.

Highfalls gave a strong warning in their first games of 1953 as they downed both the Robbins girls and boys Tuesday night. The Highfalls girls, led by Willie Dupree, Mary Catharine Seawell, Clara Mae Maness, and Catharine Mashburn, won 38-32, and the Highfalls boys, led by Elmer Seawell, Vernon Wilson, Earlie Brady and Billy Maness defeated the Robbins boys 59-44.

In the only other conference games reported, the Carthage girls, led by Barbara Brown, defeated Westmore 45-29, and the Carthage boys chalked up their first victory of the season at the expense of Westmore 57-41. Outstanding for Carthage were Buddy Baker and Don Jackson.

The Southern Pines teams engaged Red Springs in a non-conference tilt. The girls' game was hard-fought, and filled with excitement and drama, as the two teams played to a 44-44 deadlock. The Southern Pines boys, led by Jimmy Townshend, drove to a 63-50 victory in the second game.

Interesting and important games are scheduled for this week as follows (all games at 7:30 p. m.):

Friday, January 9—Carthage at Aberdeen, Highfalls at Cameron, West End at Pinehurst, Robbins at Southern Pines, Westmore at Vass-Lakeview.

Tuesday, January 13—Aberdeen at Westmore, Cameron at Robbins, West End at Carthage, Southern Pines at Highfalls, Vass at Pinehurst.

Episcopal Meeting Set Tuesday Night

Annual congregational supper and business meeting of the Episcopal church, Sandhill parish, will be held next Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. in the parish house, according to announcement made by the rector, the Rev. Charles V. Covell.

A special feature will be the showing of a motion picture, "The Light in the North," depicting the work of Bishop William Gordon in Alaska. Three vestrymen will be elected for three-year terms, to succeed R. E. Rhodes, John L. Ponzer and Garland Pierce. A yearbook for 1952 will be made available at the meeting.

Arrangements for the supper are under the chairmanship of Mrs. William F. Hollister.

ABERDEEN

By DOROTHY McNEILL

Bride-Elect Honored
 Miss Jane Herring entertained at a luncheon at Tarheelia in Southern Pines Saturday at noon, honoring Miss Betty Davis, bride-elect of Raeford. The hostess presented Miss Davis a corsage of white carnations upon her arrival, and, later, a nut spoon in her silver pattern. The table was covered with a linen cloth and held a center arrangement of candles and white flowers.

Guests were: Miss Davis and her mother, Mrs. J. S. Davis, of Raeford; Mrs. John Davis of Clearwater, Fla.; Miss Nellie Allen, Fayetteville; Mrs. John Maides, Stantonsburg; Miss Catherine Blue and Miss Lydia McKeithen, Raeford; Miss Mary Jo Davis, West End; and Mrs. D. E. Herring, Aberdeen.

Brief Mention

Miss Ellen Monroe of Eagle Springs was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cameron and Misses Mary Lou and Elaine Cameron were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cameron of Carolina Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boroday of Winston-Salem visited Mrs. Boroday's mother, Mrs. Alice Brooks, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Monros of Greensboro are spending several days with Mr. Monroe's father, L. B. Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Cameron and daughters, Misses Mary Lou and Elaine Cameron, attended the funeral of W. L. Biggs in Laurinburg Wednesday.

Miss Vanessa McLean of Hamlet visited relatives in Aberdeen over the weekend.

Mrs. W. H. McNeill, Mrs. Margaret Lewis, Miss Minnie Brewer and Miss Dorothy McNeill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brewer in Eagle Springs, Sunday.

Among the college students who resumed their studies this week are: Billie Gene Addor, Ella Ruth McNeill, and Frances Bobbitt, at Flora Macdonald collage; Jo Sue Wallace, Iris Matthews, and Nereene Lawrence, East Carolina College; Sarah Caudle, Mrs. Rene Bidaux and Louise Edge, Meredith; George Gwyn, Oak Ridge; Arthur Rowe, Jackie Taylor, Marion Sessoms and Harold Austin, Carolina; Bill Carter, Lewis Harrington, Eugene Kirk and Billy Caddell, State, and Barbara Blue and Jane Leach, WCUNC.

BIRTHS

Births at Moore County Hospital: December 27—Mr. and Mrs. William E. Morrison, Carthage a boy.

December 29—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garner, Pinehurst, a boy; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beck, Carthage, a girl; Col. and Mrs. G. R. Garrett, Southern Pines, a boy.

December 31—Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Owens, Aberdeen, a boy; January 1—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin, Sanford, a boy, first baby of the New Year in Moore county.

January 4—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Garrison, Pinehurst, a girl; Mr. and Mrs. David Whitaker, Cameron, a boy.

Former Nurse Dies By Own Hand

A 40-year-old woman described as "a very good nurse" at Moore County hospital, where she was employed during the fall and winter, shot herself fatally last Friday night at her home near Hamlet.

Funeral services for Miss Elizabeth Goode Jordan were held Sunday afternoon at the Pate Funeral home in Hamlet, with burial in Mary Love cemetery.

Miss Jordan was employed as a practical nurse at Moore County hospital from September 10 through December 22, it was learned from Thomas Howerton, hospital administrator. She worked in the nursery and, though she was not a registered nurse, was experienced and "extremely capable," Mr. Howerton said.

She resigned in December, informing him that she planned to accept a position at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore after spending Christmas at home. She was making the change, she said, because at Johns Hopkins she would be able to receive special therapy for an old injury, the result of an automobile accident of some time in the past.

Miss Moore had had some training at Johns Hopkins and at a children's hospital in Maryland. While working for the Moore County hospital, she lived at the Nurses home.

Surviving are her father, J. H. Jordan, and two sisters, Mrs. B. M. Sutton and Mrs. Harry Poole, all of Hamlet; and two brothers, M. M. Jordan of Hamlet and J. H. Jordan, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio.

GOOD START

"A start has been made—there's a long way to go but we're on our way!" was the word this week from Mrs. Louis Bellet, first March of Dimes chairman in the county to turn in a report.

Mrs. Bellet, community chairman for Lakeview, said she put up her posters New Year's day, and since then has put what spare time she has on a house-to-house canvass for the polio drive.

She's a full-time nurse aide at the Moore County hospital so her spare time is sort of scarce. Yet by Monday she had almost $10 toward her community's $50 quota.

THEATRES CAROLINA

Week January 11, 1952—Girls and glamour, romance and spectacle, laughter and love, also the most beautiful and spectacular water ballets ever staged! These are the highlights of MGM's newest Technicolor extravaganza "Million Dollar Mermaid," starring Esther Williams, Victor Mature, Walter Pidgeon and David Brian. This noteworthy picture, inspired by the life story of the famed Australian swimmer, Annette Kellerman, continues at the Carolina theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 8-9-10, at 8:15 p.m. with a Saturday matinee at 3 o'clock.

Seldom in the history of Hollywood has a story so perfectly fitted a star, with Miss Williams, the modern-day mermaid, portraying Miss Kellerman, equally celebrated mermaid of another era.

the last "Road" picture, with Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour, was released and audiences throughout the land were rolling in the aisles over the hilarious antics portrayed.

Now, "Road To Bali," coming to the Carolina theatre, Sunday through Thursday (five days) January 11-15, at 8:15 p.m., with matinees Sunday and Tuesday, turns out to be one of their very best.

Enhanced by Technicolor, using that wonderful off-the-cuff delivery that distinguished the others in the series, exploding surprise shots that turn into side-splitting gags, "Road To Bali" is mass entertainment.

Its nonsense blasts with such rapidity that even the most austere will finally give up and let the trio play on their funnybones at will. One dares not take his eyes off the screen lest a gag be lost. There are "corn," subtlety, gorgeous girls, beautiful color and laughs galore, all mixed in a dish that is sure to tickle the entertainment palate.

Jane Russell, Martin and Lewis, Bob Crosby, among others, turn up without warning throughout the show.
