

FACING THE PRESS—Adlai E. Stevenson, seated in the center of the photo, is surrounded by photographers and reporters last Thursday afternoon when members of the North Carolina press journeyed to Paint Hill Farm between Southern Pines and Aberdeen for an informal session that skirted serious political questions but produced many lively and interesting comments by the former Presidential candidate. In the background is the log cabin home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Ives where Mr. Stevenson is a vacation guest of his sister, Mrs. Ives. (Photo by V. Nicholson)

Dorothy Newton Named President CountyFHA Group

Dorothy Newton of Southern Pines High School was installed president at the Spring Rally of the Moore County Association of Future Homemakers of America, held last Friday in the West End School auditorium. Vivian Ruth Matthews of Vass-Lakeview School, retiring president, presided.

Other officers installed were: vice-president, Jenny Ann Garner, Robbins; secretary, Gail Kirby, Carthage; treasurer, Bobby Jean McNair, West End; reporter, Shelby Jean Cole, Cameron; parliamentarian, Catherine Vest, Pinehurst; historian, Lena Rose Jackson, Vass-Lakeview; song leader, Betty Robertson, Pinehurst; advisor, Mrs. Doris Warner, Southern Pines; pianist, Carol Arey, Aberdeen. Each officer repeated the Creed and her duties as an officer, and Miss Newton made a short speech of acceptance of the office of president.

Jean Phillips of Cameron conducted the opening devotions, and J. F. Sinclair, principal of the West End School, brought greetings. Gail Kirby, State FHA historian, of Candor gave a report on her trip to the National FHA Convention held last summer in Columbus, Ohio, and Vivian Tucker of West End told about the FHA camp held each year at White Lake.

Following the business meeting a reception for new officers was held in the library, which was decorated with flowers. Old and new officers were in the receiving line. Punch, cookies and nuts were served.

Mrs. Betty Morgan of Vass-Lakeview was advisor during the past year.

Training in medical evacuation of the injured and sick, by helicopter ambulance, will be accomplished in Exercise Flash Burn at Fort Bragg.
