TEA, FASHION SHOW HIGHLIGHT MARCH MEETING OF OFFICERS' WIVES CLUB

The USAFAGOS Officers' Wives Club entertained 65 members and guests at a Fashion Show and tea at the Highland Pines Inn Wednesday afternoon of last week. Spring apparel from Lee Powers' Casual Shop featured morning cottons, suits emphasizing the new Italian fabrics, afternoon cottons, tea-time prints, and cocktail ensembles.

Mrs. John Foster served as commentator and chairman of the show. Special assistants were Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. Glenn Vinquist and Mrs. Arthur Hunter. Mrs. Robert Rader was in charge of decorations.

Mrs. S. H. Slaughter, Mrs. C. Dixon, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. David Buie, and Mrs. Edward Michaelson, wives of instructors at the Air-Ground School, modeled the clothing.

At the conclusion of the Fashion Show guests and members were ushered into the officers' clubroom for the tea, at which Mrs. George Elvey, Mrs. William Ryan and Mrs. David Callaway were hostesses.

The tea table held a centerpiece of yellow roses, yellow snapdragons and heather, flanked by silver candelabra with ivory tapers. Mrs. William M. Gross and Mrs. Lamar Welch poured.

THUMBNAIL TALKS ON DIFFERENT JOBS HEARD AT B&PW CLUB'S MARCH PROGRAM

Members of the Sandhill Business and Professional Women's Club were entertained Tuesday evening with clever thumbnail speeches given by fellow members at their monthly meeting, held in Aberdeen.

The program, entitled "Panel-ettes," consisted of six three-minute talks, each representing a different business. Speakers and their subjects were: Mrs. Ola Thompson, "Importance of the Post Office Today"; Miss Lucille Minshew, "People Are Funny. . . Even in the Beauty Business"; Mrs. Olie King, "Why I Went Into Welfare Work"; Mrs. Cornelia Vann, "A Day in the Life of a Desk Clerk"; Mrs. Lillian Miles

Raymond, "From Salesclerk to Buyer"; and Miss Alice Baxter, "Chamber of Commerce Life Is Wonderful."

President Mrs. Nancy McLellan presided over a short business session at which time reports of the Wilmington District Conference were given by members who attended.

Mrs. Mamie Swaringen was appointed chairman of the nominating committee, which will present a slate of officers for election at the April meeting. The new officers will be installed at the May meeting and will begin their service in June for the 1954-55 term.

The meeting was closed by group reading of the Club Collect.

Magnolia Chapter Honors Memory of Mrs. Sophia Mumford

In memory of Mrs. Sophie S. Mumford, Magnolia Chapter 26 has adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, we, the members of Magnolia Chapter No. 26, Order of the Eastern Star, do sincerely mourn the loss of our sister and friend, Sister Sophie S. Mumford, who passed from this earthly life on February 25, 1954.

"Sister Mumford was a charter member of Pride of the Orient Chapter of Peckville, Pa., which was instituted in 1895. She transferred to Hope Chapter, Hawley, Pa., and became a Past Matron of that Chapter. In May, 1930, she became a member of Magnolia Chapter No. 26, by affiliation. She was a Past Matron of this chapter, and served as secretary for several years. She was to us a faithful helper, therefore "Be it resolved, 1st, that we bow in humble submission to His will who has called our sister to the Grand Chapter on High.

"Second, we extend to her family our heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow, and commend them to Him who doeth all things well.

"Third, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Chapter, a copy sent to the bereaved family, and a copy be sent to The Pilot for publication.

"There is only a curtain between us
Between the beyond and here,
They whom we call dead have not left us
Nay, they were never so near.
"Not dead, but only promoted,
They have entered the heaven
above
And there 'neath the smiles of the Master,
They will finish their labor of love."

Respectfully submitted: Kathleen G. Woolley, Delma S. Finch, and Peggy S. Prime, committee.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church February 28 by the Rev. David Hoke Coon, and Mrs. Mumford was accorded Eastern Star honors in a graveside ceremony by the following Past Matrons and Past Patrons: Alice Thomas, Herbert Dietenhofer, Kathleen Woolley, Peggy Prime, Brownie Chappell, Rosalin Causey, Ruth McRae, Vera Sitterson, Irene Dale and Maude Rosser.

Herbert Dietenhofer, Past Patron, W. H. McNeill, Jr., Grand Chaplain, also William Bushby, Harold Fowler, Jr., L. D. Williams, Sr., of Havelock, and Ernest Bennett of Durham were pall bearers.

MAGNOLIA CHAPTER INSTALLS OFFICERS IN PUBLIC CEREMONY MONDAY EVENING

Magnolia Chapter 26, Order of the Eastern Star, installed new officers in an impressive ceremony Monday night that was attended by more than 125 persons. Eleanor Caldwell is the new Worthy Matron, and Herbert Dietenhofer, Worthy Patron.

Other officers installed were: Delma Finch, associate matron; Edwin Finch, associate patron; Vera Sitterson, treasurer; Georgia Stubbs, conductress; Bess Ward, associate conductress; Ruth McRae, chaplain; Madeline Prim, marshal; Flora Lewis, Adah; Sue Trudell, Ruth; Jessie Mae Dwight, Esther; Ola Tyner, Martha; Ethel Cole, Electa; Dorcas Mills, warder; and Fred Chappell, sentinel. Leta, McAdams, secretary, and Lou Culbreth, organist, will be installed at a later date.

Participating in the ceremony were: Jewel Reid, D. D. G. M., installing officer; W. H. McNeill, Jr., Grand Chaplain, installing marshal; Harold Payson, D. D. G. P., installing chaplain; Brownie Chappell, P. M., installing conductress; Kathleen Woolley, P. M., installing secretary; Alice Thomas, P. M., installing organist.

Preceding the introduction of the installing suite by Jewell Reid, Mary Chatfield sang "I Believe" by Drake, and, later, "Thanks Be To God" by O'Reilly. Dr. Bruce Warlick sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallotte. During this number houselights were turned out and the Bible, cross and star were spotlighted.

Mrs. Caldwell based her address on the subject "Keeping the Faith." Mr. Dietenhofer spoke briefly, also. The dedicatory prayer was given by the Rev. D. Hoke Coon. Following the opening ceremony Emory Smith, Worthy Patron, conducted the flag ceremony and Alice Smith, Worthy Matron, gave the welcome.

In the closing ceremony, Past Matrons and Patrons formed an archway of lighted tapers beneath which the new officers proceeded, each carrying a lighted candle.

Gifts were presented to the installing officers and the new Worthy Matron and presented as a gift from the Past Matrons and Patrons Club an arm bouquet of red carnations, with Peggy Prime making the presentation.

Following the recessional an informal reception was held. A color scheme of pink and white was used on the refreshment table. Mrs. D. Wade Stevick and Mrs. J. D. Sitterson served punch.
