Dr. R. L. Peck Succumbs At 39 In New Jersey

Dr. Robert L. Peck, 39, a native of Southern Pines, died March 18 after suffering a heart attack at his home in Plainfield, N. J. He was the grandson of Mrs. George C. Abraham and a nephew of Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins and Mrs. Harry Pethick, all of Southern Pines. Funeral services and burial were at Plainfield March 21.

Dr. Peck, who received his B. S. and Ph. D. degrees at Duke University, Durham, had lived at Plainfield for 13 years and was employed as a research chemist by Merck & Co., Rahway, N. J. He had previously won a fellowship for research at Yale University, New Haven, Conn. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a number of scientific societies. In Plainfield, he was on the board of the First Methodist Church and was chairman of a Boy Scout troop committee.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Helen McLean Peck; a son, Robert L. Jr.; two daughters, Mary Helen and Sally Jane; his mother, Mrs. Clarence M. Peck of Binghamton, N. Y., a brother, David E. Peck of Williamstown, Mass., and his grandmother and aunts in Southern Pines.

Jackson Heads Tin Whistles

At the annual meeting of the Tin Whistles Club held at Pinehurst Monday, H. Arnold Jackson was elected president, C. L. von Tacky vice-president, and Eric Nelson was renamed club captain, secretary and treasurer. New members of the board of governors named were F. A. Landis, for a two-year term, and for three years, F. W. Bellows, Octave Blake, J. E. Dixon, B. F. Kraffert, Jr., and C. A. Thompson. The Rev. Dr. T. A. Cheatham, rector emeritus of the Village Chapel, was made an honorary member of the club.

Exercise Flash Burn, to be held at Fort Bragg, will include training in biological and radiological warfare.

Griffin Begins New Raleigh Job; To Move May 1

Olis D. Griffin of Southern Pines on Thursday became supervisor with the Driver Improvement Section of the Highway Safety Division, to work throughout the State from an office at Raleigh.

Mr. Griffin and his wife, the former Myrtle Jackson of Raleigh, have lived in Southern Pines almost six years. As field representative of the Highway Safety Division, Mr. Griffin has worked in Moore, Montgomery, Richmond and Scotland counties, supervising safety training of school bus drivers and cooperating with other organizations in highway safety efforts.

The new Raleigh position is a promotion for the local man. He and Mrs. Griffin, expressing their regret at leaving this community, will move to Raleigh May 1. They will retain ownership of their home at 190 Youngs Road. During the month of April, Mr. Griffin will work at Raleigh, returning to Southern Pines on weekends when possible.

Mrs. Ethel M. Clark of Siler City will temporarily take over the field representative's work in Moore County until another representative is named for the four counties formerly served by Mr. Griffin.

In his new job, Mr. Griffin will work with school bus drivers and with adult driver safety programs throughout the state. The Highway Safety Division is now under the State Highway Patrol which is in the State Motor Vehicle Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin are members of the Church of Wide Fellowship where Mr. Griffin has been assistant superintendent of the Sunday School. Mr. Griffin has been Red Cross First Aid chairman and a member of the Health and Safety Committee of the Moore District Boy Scout organization. He is a member of the N. C. Society of Safety Engineers.

The 3 per cent reduction in number of sheep on United States farms during 1953 probably means lower output of shorn wool this year.

Cub Scouts See Puppet, Variety Shows At Meeting

Cub Scout Pack 73 held its monthly meeting Friday night at Brownson Church. Paul Ward, Cubmaster, started the meeting off by reading a list of rules for safe bicycle riding.

John Chappell, assisted by Dick Franklin, presented a puppet show "The Wizard of Oz," which was the theme followed by Cub Scouts for the month of March. Many awards were presented to the boys who had passed Cub Scout achievements in the past month.

Den 8 entertained fellow Cubs by putting on a variety show. Den Chief John McMillan announced the show, which was in the form of a television presentation. Those boys participating were: Lamont Brown, Dan Butler, Roger Dutton, Andy Horton, Billy Kemp, and Ricky Langner.

A film about wildlife was shown to the boys as the final part of the program.

On Tuesday, March 30, despite the rain, a baseball game was played between Den 3 and Den 8, Den 8 being the victorious team. Den Chief John McMillan pitched for Den 8. Den Chief Chuck Ward and several Cubs took turns pitching for Den 3.
