Chairmen, Quotas In Easter Seal Sale Announced

A revised list of chairmen and the local quotas for the Easter Seal sale in Moore County was announced this week by the Moore County Society for Crippled Children. The sale is now in progress throughout the county.

Envelopes of seals are being sent out by the chairmen. Persons who do not receive seals and who wish to contribute are asked to send their donations to the chairmen in their local communities. Over 90 per cent of the money collected remains in Moore County to be used for helping crippled and physically handicapped children in a variety of ways.

Here are the chairmen and quotas for Moore County communities: Aberdeen, Mrs. T. J. Tarlton, president of the Junior Woman's Club, $300; Addor, Mrs. Clyde Addor, $10; Cameron, Miss Vera McLean, $25; Carthage, Mrs. James H. Hume, Jr., president of the Woman's Club, $450; Eagle Springs, Mrs. Roy Williams, $15; Glendon, Mrs. J. A. Dowd, $10; Hallison, Mrs. O. T. Parks, $15; Lakeview, Mrs. H. A. Jackson Springs Area Men Facing Liquor Charges

Four men of the Jackson Springs area face trial in Federal court at Rockingham for operating a 60-gallon illegal whiskey still that was raided by Moore County officers last week.

Free under $500 bond, after a hearing before Commissioner J. A. Lang at Carthage, are Frederick Sanford Goms, Wade Hampton Goms, Thomas Edison Jones and John Calvin Blue. The still was hidden in the woods up the creek from the old Currie mill on the Currie estate property.

Chief ABC Officer C. A. McCullum, ABC Officers John K. Sharpe and Keith Marks and Deputy Sheriff A. W. Lambert took part in the raid. Officers confiscated a farm tractor and an attached trailer on which three of the men rode up to the still site while the raid was in progress. One had been apprehended previously at the still. Jars and sugar were found hidden under pine straw in the trailer, officers said.

THEATRES CAROLINA

Continuing through this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 1-2-3, at 8:15 p. m., with a Saturday matinee at 3, at the Carolina Theatre, is the historical production "The Charge At Feather River" in WarnerColor, starring Frank Lovejoy, Guy Madison, Helen Wescott and Vera Miles.

Something new, something entirely different, and something thoroughly delightful comes to the Carolina Screen in "Mr. Potts Goes To Moscow," Sunday through Wednesday, April 4-7, at 8:15 p. m. with matinees Sunday and Tuesday at 3.

Starring the British comedian, George Cole, assisted by Nadia Gray and Oscar Homolka (remember him in "I Remember Mama"?), and a long list of supporting actors, Mr. Potts Goes To Moscow, is a hilarious story of a British plumber who is mistaken by the Reds for a top atomic scientist and whisked to Moscow, it packs so many hilarious situations that much of the dialogue is almost drowned out. The writers have spared the feelings of neither British, American nor Russian. First British officialdom gets its share; then everything dear to the Communists is ribbed.

There are many hilarious incidents in the script cooked up by the authors such as the dinner at the Kremlin and the Red-sponsored Peace Conference breaking into a free-for-all at the slightest provocation, and through it all marches Cole, undeterred, thoroughly British and always slightly confused by the train of events which alternately makes fools out of the Russians and his own countrymen.

Children's Day At Carolina Ring Scheduled Sunday

It will be "Children's Day" Sunday, April 4, in the riding ring of the Carolina Hotel at Pinehurst. That afternoon there will be a special all children's gymkhana and horse show, with the oldest contestant 16 years of age. The show is free to all, both spectators and competitors, and begins at 2 p. m.

The program will comprise eight classes: lead line class for the very young; a walk, trot, pairs of hacks; and three horsemanship classes, one each for children of 10 years of age and under, 12 years and under, and 16 and under. The other two events will be of the gymkhana variety, a mounted egg and spoon race and musical stunts.

All children who can get a horse and then get on it and ride are welcome to appear in the ring in the various classes, it is announced.
