

Costume Parade To Open Riding Event, Pinehurst

A costume parade will open the special children's Easter gymkhana to take place in the riding ring of the Carolina Hotel Saturday, April 17, starting at 2 p. m.

The costume parade is not limited to children, but is open to all who care to take part. Mummies may be mounted or on foot and prizes will be given for the most beautiful turnout, the most amusing and the most original.

Following the parade there will be seven equestrian classes for children: walk and trot, musical stunts, horsemanship, nine years of age and under; horsemanship, 14 years and under; spoon and egg race; pairs of hacks, and children's equitation over fences.

There will be no entrance charges for the competition or the costume parade and none for spectators.

'Power For Peace' Is Theme of 1954 Armed Forces Day, Fort Bragg, May 15

Picnic Facilities To Be Provided For Visiting Civilians

Preparations are now under way for Fort Bragg's Fifth Annual Observance of Armed Forces Day. Open House is to be held this year May 15 in conjunction with U. S. military bases and posts all over the world.

President Eisenhower has announced "Power for Peace" as the theme for the 1954 Armed Forces Day.

Bragg will exhibit equipment, some of which may be the Army's newest weapons that are here to receive extensive testing in Exercise Flash Burn. Actual training activities and displays of Army methods of operation are also planned.

Picnic areas will be set up for the visiting civilians. Every effort will be made to make the visitors comfortable while touring the post.

Pope Air Force Base is expected to show the newest in jet air power and other vital equipment of the Air Force.

Tentative committees have already been formed and lists are being drawn of Army equipment and weapons available that will provide the visitors with the modern concept of the Army's "power".
