THE REV. DR. AND MRS. THADDEUS AINSLEE CHEATHAM, in the electric golf car presented them by their many friends in Pinehurst, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. The beloved rector emeritus of The Village Chapel and his bride of 1904 were the honor guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Chapman at a reception at their home on Sunday, April 4, at which time they were the recipients of evidence of the esteem in which they are held. In addition to the car, each was presented with a gold wrist watch and a 50-year-old $20 gold-piece, and together were handed a check, all the gifts of Sandhills friends and associates.

Although the anniversary of their marriage in Helena, Ark., was on Wednesday of last week, April 7, the event was observed the previous Sunday, with Dr. Cheatham preaching at a service in his honor at The Village Chapel in the morning, and by the gathering of a few old friends at the Chapman home in the late afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Cheatham are seen above in their new car, flanked by Mr. and Mrs. Chapman.

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Presbyterian Circle 7 met Thursday night of last week at the home of Mrs. L. Harris Coley, Jr., with Mrs. Joe Marley as co-hostess. Eleven members attended and there was one visitor, Mrs. Dan R. McNeill, who conducted the Bible study. Mrs. Avery Evans reviewed an article from Presbyterian Women.

Circle 11 met Tuesday morning with Mrs. Howard Butler. Mrs. Hal Adams gave the Presbyterian Women article and Mrs. Ina Bullock led the Bible study. Miss Maude Critchlow was a guest and there were 10 members present.

MRS. McCAIN FETES SENIOR CLASS OF FLORA MACDONALD COLLEGE AT TEA HERE

Mrs. P. P. McCain, Dean of Students at Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, entertained at a tea at her Ridge Street home in Southern Pines Friday afternoon, honoring the 52 members of the senior class at the college. Colorful spring flowers were used throughout the reception rooms.

Personnel of the receiving line included: Miss Carol Robertson, senior class faculty sponsor; Miss Delanie Boney of Wallace, class president; and the other class officers, who are Miss Marjorie Davis of Fayetteville, Miss Nancy Andrews of Spencer, Miss Marjorie Stevenson of Stoney Point, Miss Betty Ruth Spivey of Fair-

Dogwood Grove Officers Attend District Meeting

Four officers of Dogwood Grove No. 253 of Southern Pines, Mrs. Theodosia Bailey, Mrs. Evelyn Yonts, Mrs. Phoebe Russ and Miss Mary Scott Newton, attended the spring convention of the Southeastern District of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle held in Laurinburg Wednesday, April 7.

Miss Newton, selected at last fall's meeting in Fayetteville to serve as district chaplain for this year's meetings, filled this position. For Dogwood Grove—less than a year old and the "baby" of the district—to have a member chosen to serve in this capacity is considered quite an honor.

At the conclusion of the meeting the ladies were guests at a barbecue supper given by the Woodmen of the Scottish Log Rolling Association, who were holding a district convention, also, in Laurinburg.

POPPY POSTERS POSE PROBLEM FOR JUDGES, BUT PATSY PLACES PRIMUS

Patsy DuPree, a member of the senior class of Southern Pines High School, won first place in the Poppy Poster Contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary in connection with the sale of poppies to take place this Saturday. Her prize was $5.

Second prize, $3, was won by Diana Gorman of the fifth grade, and third prize, $2, went to Alice Ann Gamble, seventh grade pupil.

The winning posters are now on display, as in previous years, in local store windows, preceding the Poppy Sale Saturday.

Other decisions of the judges were: 1st honorable mention, Henry Turner, sixth grade; 2nd, Marlene Weimer, sixth grade; 3rd, Gladys Huntley, 12th grade. Others receiving honorable mention were: Bob Renegar, Paul Warren, Winfred Cox, Judy Chandler, John Ormsby, Shirley Garner, Elsie Dutton, Gilbert Harbert, and Mary Ann Strickland.

Mrs. Wofford Timmons, Mrs. Kyle B. Countiss and Mrs. W. Ed Cox, Jr., judged the 31 entries Monday night, encountering the usual difficulty in arriving at their decisions because of the close competition.

The judges commented on the many fine works of art displayed in the posters and expressed regret that some students used the wrong media for their class or group, or did not adhere to the rules set forth by the national committee—rules which had been posted at the school when the contest was launched.

The Auxiliary appreciates the interest shown by the pupils and the encouragement given them by teachers and parents, both of which contributed to the success of the project.

Local Women Are Elected To District Auxiliary Offices

The VFW and Ladies Auxiliary Ninth District Encampment was held at Wadesboro Sunday, with a business meeting, election, and installation of officers followed by a barbecue supper.

Jean Hubbard of Troy was elected district auxiliary president. Southern Pines members elected to office were: Mrs. Dorcas Mills, senior vice-president; Mrs. Edith Hale, conductress; Mrs. Trudy Stephenson, chaplain; and Mrs. Jennie Garty, trustee. Installing officer was Mrs. Mary Stubbs of Kinston, senior vice president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the VFW Department of North Carolina.

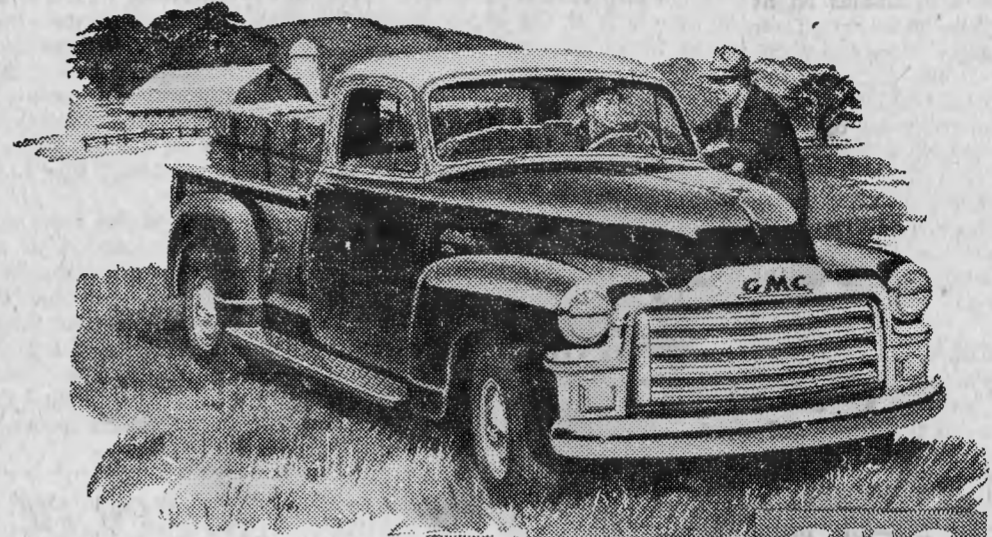

Other Auxiliary members attending from Southern Pines were Mrs. Margaret Des Pland, Mrs. Amelia Crain and Miss Pauline Crain.

Sandhills Women's Exchange Elects Officers For Year

The Sandhills Woman's Exchange held its annual meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. S. A. Strickland in Pinehurst, and elected the following officers, all of the Pinehurst community: Mrs. DeWitt B. Nettleton, president, succeeding Mrs. J. E. Dixon; Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, continuing as vice-president; Mrs. S. Donald Shererd, treasurer, succeeding Mrs. Arthur Lacey; Mrs. W. C. Plunkett, continuing as recording secretary; Mrs. J. C. Bertrand, in the new post of corresponding secretary; and Mrs. J. E. Dixon and Mrs. C. L. Meyer, directors.
