Gospel Messages Aired At Tangier

Gospel messages are broadcast from a new radio station at Tangier, North Africa, under the management of International Evangelism, Inc., of which Evangelist Paul Freed of Greensboro is president. The evangelist's wife is the former Betty Jane Seawell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Seawell, Jr., of Carthage.

The station, for which the Freed's have long labored, is making broadcasts directed by the evangelist's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Freed who have over 20 years of experience in the mission field in Palestine and who are now living in Tangier.

The messages are broadcast in English, Spanish and French. Letters acknowledging the broadcasts have been received from the Canary Islands, Denmark, Sweden, Belgium, Scotland, Ireland, Holland, Germany, Spain and Portugal.

Further information can be obtained from the Gospel Chapel at Carthage.

Mrs. Duke's Mother Passes In Newark

Mrs. M. Duke of Maine Avenue received news Wednesday morning that her mother, Mrs. Catherine Patterson of Newark, N. J., had been found dead in bed that morning. Mrs. Patterson had suffered from a heart condition, but apparently passed quietly in her sleep. Mrs. Duke had held a telephone conversation with her only the day before.

The Duke family left Wednesday for Newark to attend funeral services.
