

News and Personals from Vass

Bessie Cameron Smith, Representative — Telephone Vass 2171

Commencement Programs

Vass-Lakeview Commencement gets underway tonight (Friday) at 8 p. m.—the hour for all events of the high school finals—when Mrs. Herbert McInnis will present her piano pupils in a recital in the school auditorium, to which the public is invited.

The Rev. L. B. McKeithen, Jr. of Fayetteville will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night at the school, and special music will be a feature.

Monday night, Class Day exercises will be held.

Graduation, with awarding of diplomas, medals and other awards, will take place Tuesday night. There will be no guest speaker, but five of the seniors will give talks.

At 9 a. m. Tuesday, Jere McKeithen of Aberdeen, a member of the County Board of Education, will speak at the 8th grade commencement exercises and certificates will be presented.

Seniors Entertained

Mrs. Earl Ferguson, Mrs. D. M. Rollins and Mrs. W. C. Trogden, mothers of seniors, entertained the senior class at a wieners roast at Pinebluff Lake Saturday night.

The freshmen planned a hay ride for the seniors for Thursday night, but on account of rain held their party at the Community House, where they roasted wieners, toasted marshmallows and played.

Final Service

The Rev. Edwin C. Boulton will hold his final preaching service at the Vass Methodist Church at 11 a. m. Sunday morning, before going to the Iowa conference. There will be special music.

Spiveys Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spivey of Sanford, Route 1, and the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond B. Spivey of Palmyra, Mo., called on Mrs. P. A. Wilson Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Spivey, who was supply pastor of the Vass Presbyterian Church while a seminary student, is a commissioner for the Missouri Synod to the General Assembly meeting in Montreat this week.

Mr. Spivey has written the words of an Easter hymn which was given the entire cover page space of the Presbyterian Outlook for April 12 and was used in many churches during the Easter season.

Young Adult Conference

At the Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning Mr. Woodson of the First Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville spoke in the interest of a Young Adult Conference to be held at Flora Macdonald College, Red Springs, June 12-13, under sponsorship of the Religious Education Commission of the Presbyterian Church. He was accompanied by Mrs. Woodson and Mrs. James of Fayetteville.

Classes Entertained

Mrs. Curt Flannigan, whose husband, Sergeant Flannigan, is located at Ranger Station No. 3, entertained Mrs. John McCrummen's fifth grade and Mrs. W. A. Muse's third grade of Vass-Lakeview School in celebration of her daughter Joanne's birthday.

Joanne is in the fifth grade and the other Flannigan children, Curt and Jean, are in the third.

Assembling in Mrs. Muse's room, the children were shown slides of places the Flannigans visited during their residence in Alaska, then the fifth graders went to their home room and both rooms were served decorated cakes and drinks.

Farewell Party

R. E. Beasley's seventh-eighth grade combination of Vass-Lakeview School held a farewell party at Dunrovin Cafe from 8 to 10 p. m. Monday, with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Poole serving as host and hostess.

Tcasts, contests, fortune telling and dancing were enjoyed, with John Davis of the high school calling figures. Polly Key told Mr. Beasley's fortune and Jerry Smith presented him a chocolate cake.

Tommy Oldham and Eunice Holder were crowned King and Queen of the party. There were favors for all and Mrs. Beasley and Miss Mary Beasley, who were guests, presented balloons to the pupils. Refreshments were served.

Voice Recital

Vass friends received invitations to a voice recital given by Miss Faye Corbett, soprano, at the Woman's Club in Clayton May 27. Her teacher, Inez Woolen Gulley was her accompanist.

Miss Corbett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Corbett of Clayton and lived in Vass for several years in her childhood, just prior to the family's moving to Clayton.

Personals
