Castro-Quinn Vows Spoken In Home Wedding At Manly

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Monroe of Manly announce the marriage of their daughter, Doris M. Quinn, to David G. Castro, son of Louis M. Castro of New York City and the late Mrs. Castro, on Saturday, May 22, at their home.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Grover C. Currie, Presbyterian minister, at 8 p. m. before an improvised altar in the living room, with members of the family and only a few friends present.

The bride wore a baby blue dress of sheer material, with white accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Helen Morgan of Pinehurst was matron of honor, wearing a navy suit with white accessories. Her flowers were pink roses.

Arnold Knox of Pinehurst was the bridegroom's best man.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy and wore pink carnations.

A small reception at the home followed. After the couple had cut the first slice, Mrs. Charlie Gillis of Rockingham, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Another aunt, Mrs. Russ Kelly of Rockingham, poured punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Castro are remaining in the Sandhills until the close of the season at Pinehurst, where he is employed, after which they plan a trip to North Dakota before going to New Jersey for the summer.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH EDWIN BRADLEY

PINEHURST CHURCH CEREMONY MAY 22 UNITES MISS BRISTOW AND MR. BRADLEY

Miss Joy Ann Bristow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dewey Bristow of Southern Pines, became the bride of Joseph Edwin Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Edwin Bradley of Providence, R. I., in a ceremony Saturday, May 22, at 5 p. m. in the Pinehurst Community Church. The pastor, the Rev. Roscoe Prince, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Arrangements of calla lilies, tall baskets of white gladioli and baby's breath and candelabra holding lighted tapers were used as altar decorations. Family pews were marked with white flowers caught with white satin bows, and magnolia buds were in the windows.

Presenting a program of wedding music were Mrs. Roy Kelly of Pinehurst, organist, and Mrs. Robert Ryan of Providence, R. I., vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, David John Bradley of Providence was his brother's best man. Ushers were Kenneth Bristow, brother of the bride, and Ekner Pearse of Raleigh. John Bristow, brother of the bride, was a junior usher.

The bride wore a ballerina-length dress of white embroidered taffeta fashioned with a long-sleeved jacket with Peter Pan collar trimmed with seed pearls. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was worn with a cap of imported lace and pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white purple-throated orchid with satin streamers.

Serving the bride as attendants were Miss Carol June Bristow, her sister, as maid of honor, and Miss Betty Ellen Ritter of Raleigh as bridesmaid. Their identical dresses were of aqua taffeta, fashioned with sweetheart necklines and bouffant skirts, and they carried cascade bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Mrs. Bristow, mother of the bride, wore lavender shantung with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in light blue lace with white accessories. Each had a purple orchid corsage.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church parlor following the ceremony. For a wedding trip to the seashore the bride wore a grey dotted Swiss dress with white accessories and the orchid from her Bible. The couple will reside in Raleigh.

SANDHILLS B&PW CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS AT MEETING IN CARTHAGE

Meeting at the Carthage Hotel Tuesday evening, members of the Sandhills Business and Professional Women's Club witnessed an impressive installation of officers, conducted by Mrs. Pat Nixon of Sanford.

Mrs. Nixon used the theme "Friends," her own adaptation of Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," with the opening words "I Think that God will never send, a gift so precious as a friend..." to introduce each officer of the 1954 slate.

They are: Mrs. Nancy McClellan, president; Mrs. Evelyn Pleasants, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Ruth Cannon, 2nd vice-president; Miss Lillian Morris, 3rd vice-president; Miss Bess Gunter, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Talton, recording secretary; Mrs. Florence Edwards, corresponding secretary; and Miss Genevieve Moore, parliamentarian.

In addressing her message not only to the Sandhills members, but also to the visiting Carthage women, she reminded the group that the Federation, with its membership 165,000 strong, is and has been for 35 years the "voice of the working women."

Mrs. Nixon is vice-chairman of the Southeastern Region of the National Federation of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs and past president of the State Federation. Her Sanford club was the sponsor of the Sandhills organization.
