

Tew And Bullock, Reams And Britt, Singles Champs In School Tourney

Kenneth Tew and Lillian Bullock added new laurels to their already well-weighted tennis crowns by winning the boys' and girls championships in the Moore County Schools tournament last week.

Tew successfully defended his 1953 title by defeating Julian Pleasants, while Lillian defeated defending-champion Gail Hobson, of Pinehurst.

The two champs then, with partners, copped the doubles titles too. Kenneth and his brother Lemuel defeated Julian Pleasants and Bobby Parker, and Lillian teamed with Patti Britt to beat Patti Woodell and Gail Hobson.

A notable feature of the tournament was the emergence of young Lemuel Tew as a likely follower in the footsteps of brother Kenneth, who was state boys' champion in 1952. Besides teaming with Kenneth to win the high school division doubles, Lemuel was runner-up in singles, and a member of the winning doubles team, in the grammar grade group.

George Reams was grammar-grade boys' singles champion, defeating Lemuel. George and Lemuel played together to win the doubles, over Ikey Woodell and John Van Benschoten.

Also in the grammar grade division, Patti Britt defeated Nancy Jo Traylor to win the girls' singles, while Mary Louise McDonald and Nancy Jo won the doubles over Patti Britt and Craig White.

Lillian Bullock, singles and doubles winner last year in the grammar grade division, entered high school last September, and so was not defending her titles. Last year she was also doubles and mixed doubles winner in the high school group. Later in the summer she won singles and doubles championships at the Eastern Carolina junior tournament, also in the Junior Sandhills Invitational.

The sixth annual renewal of the Moore County Schools tournament started Monday, May 17, on the municipal courts, with some 50 boys and girls participating. Some rainy weather, also the participation of three of the boys in the state tournament at Raleigh, postponed the finals over the week end. They were played off Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights under the lights.

Trophies given by the Sandhills Tennis Association went to both winners and runners-up.

The tournament was sponsored by the Junior Sandhills Tennis Association, of which Patti Woodell is president. It was run by committees of the junior group with Don Moore acting as adviser from the senior association.

Station Wagon, Car In Collision

A Ford station wagon belonging to W. D. Campbell and driven by his butler, Brice Hemphill, was damaged to the extent of a little more than $200 Tuesday evening of last week when it was struck at the Connecticut Avenue-Ashe Street intersection by a Ford sedan driven by Henry Clayton, Jr., of 760 North Ashe Street. Neither occupant was injured.

Clayton, according to the official report, assumed all responsibility. His car was only slightly damaged.

THE KEYNOTE

The Supreme Court of the United States has spoken. As good citizens we have no other course except to obey the law as laid down by the court. To do otherwise would cost us our respect for law and order, and if we lose that in these critical times we will have lost that quality which is the source of our strength as a State and as a Nation.

(From the address of Irving Carlyle, of Winston-Salem, keynote speaker of the State Democratic Convention.)

J. Earl Parker Will Serve On Chamber Board

J. Earl Parker has accepted appointment to the board of directors of the Southern Pines Chamber of Commerce, to fill out the unexpired term of Robert F. Arey, according to announcement made this week by Mrs. Valerie Nicholson, president of the Chamber.

Mr. Arey resigned three weeks ago because he was moving out of town.

Mr. Parker was asked to serve as the next member down on the list in the election of directors held last December. This system of filling vacancies has been approved by the board, and he is the second to be so chosen. The first was H. L. Brown, succeeding June Blue.

The Chamber of Commerce meeting was postponed this week on account of the school commencement exercises, which fell on the meeting night. It will be held next Tuesday night instead, at the Southland Hotel. This will be the only regular meeting in June, as the Chamber has gone on its summer schedule.

New memberships announced this week are those of Melvins,
