Dr. Charles Stevick And Family Visit Here On Way To New Station

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wade Stevick for the past week were Dr. and Mrs. Charles P. Stevick of Memphis, Tenn., and their daughters, Linda and Susan.

Dr. Stevick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stevick and has recently been called to active duty in the United States Public Health Service. He has been a commissioned officer in the Public Health Service Reserve since 1942.

Dr. Stevick and family left Southern Pines on May 30 for Staten Island, N. Y., where he has been assigned temporarily to the Foreign Quarantine Station. He expects to receive further orders to proceed to Europe in the near future for a two-year term of duty. His family will accompany him.

Other visitors during the week at the Stevick home were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ray and son Andy of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lowish and son Mike, of Greensboro, Mrs. Mary Lowish from Indianapolis and Mrs. H. P. Bilyeu of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Are Feted At Shower In Their New Home

Mr. and Mrs. William John Graham, Jr., who moved into their new home on Valley Road about a month and a half ago, were given a miscellaneous shower Saturday night at their home, with Mrs. Albert Crissman and Mrs. A. V. Autry of Vass and Mrs. G. L. Culler of Manly as hostesses. Mrs. Graham had been let in on the secret, but the affair, given by lifelong friends of Mr. Graham, was a complete surprise to him.

The shower consisted of many nice gifts for the new home, including several pieces of silver in their pattern.

The hostesses served homemade cake and coca-colas.

Attending the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Redga Thomas, Mrs. Dana Thomas, Mrs. Alton Shaw, Miss Joanne Johnson, A. B. Atkins, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Cortis Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham, Misses Lavonne and Janice Graham, Mrs. T. F. Cameron and Miss Jennie Cameron, all of Cameron Route 1, Mr. Graham's old home community; Miss Bessie Cameron, Mrs. A. G. Crissman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crissman, Mrs. W. A. Muse, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Autry and Mrs. S. R. Smith, all of Vass; Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Autry, Jr., Ashboro; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Culler, Manly; Misses Kate and Eva Graham and Evelyn Thomas, Southern Pines; and Miss Jessie Thomas, Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Graham is the former Miss Martha Moore of Welch, W. Va. She was employed as a physical therapist at McQuire Hospital in Richmond, Va., to which Mr. Graham was transferred from a California hospital for treatment following injuries sustained in an automobile accident while he was stationed on the west coast during service in the Army. They were married several weeks before coming to occupy their new home here.

Bird Club Has Largest List Yet

The Southern Pines Bird Club has a record list of birds seen in North Carolina since January of this year, Miss Louise Haynes, club secretary, discloses. At present the number of varieties stands at exactly 100, and more are added each month.

B&PW Board Meets To Plan Activities For New Club Year

The executive committee of the Sandhill Business and Professional Woman's Club held a meeting Tuesday night at the home of the president, Mrs. Nancy McClellan, to formulate plans for the new club year which will begin June 22.

Two major projects were decided upon: the sponsoring of the educational campaign of the American Cancer Society in this community, and the collecting from club members of clothing and household linens for distribution through the County Welfare Department.

Up for consideration, also, was Business Women's Week, observed annually in October. The club hopes to have occasional spots on the radio devoted to Business Women.

Preliminary planning for the district conference to be held here in October was done.

At the conclusion of their "work," the women relaxed over raspberry ice cream and cookies. Present were: Mrs. McClellan, Miss Genevieve Moore, Mrs. Sam Benson, Mrs. Iolia King, Mrs. Florence Edwards, Miss Alice Baxter, Miss Edna Maurer, Miss Eliza Collins, and Mrs. Mary Baxter.
