Alfred Moore Chapter, DAR, Holds Memorial Service for Mrs. Seawell

The Alfred Moore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held a memorial service for Mrs. H. F. Seawell in Cross Hill Cemetery, Carthage, Saturday afternoon and placed a marker on her grave.

Mrs. Joel Layton, of Lillington, chaplain, was in charge of the service and paid a loving tribute to the memory of Mrs. Seawell who had served as regent and district director, and at the time of her death was chaplain of the Alfred Moore Chapter.

The Rev. W. S. Golden, pastor of the Carthage Presbyterian church of which Mrs. Seawell was a member, reviewed the many beautiful traits of her life, telling of her devotion to her country, her community, her church, her family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blackman and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Roberts, of Carthage sang two of Mrs. Seawell's favorite hymns, "How Firm a Foundation" and "Rock of Ages."

A large gathering of friends with the family attended the service.

Mr. Golden closed the service with prayer, with the assembly joining in the Lord's prayer.

At the conclusion "taps" was sounded.

Miss Gussie Cameron of Raleigh spent last weekend here with her sisters, Misses Mary and Rebecca Cameron.

MISS REBECCA LUFFMAN IS BRIDE OF JOHN CALLOWAY IN CEREMONY SATURDAY

A candlelight ceremony uniting Miss Rebecca Ann Luffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Luffman of State Road, and John McCrimmon Calloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Chester Calloway of Southern Pines, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, June 5, at 5 o'clock in Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church. The Rev. J. K. Parker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Boone, officiated.

Yellow candles and baskets of yellow gladioli against a background of fern decorated the church.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Mildred Laney of Maiden, pianist, and Don Bynum of Morganton, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin featuring a round yoke of lace and a full skirt which extended into a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a white satin cap. She carried a prayer book topped with a white purple-throated orchid.

Miss Nancy Luffman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of yellow taffeta was fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt and she wore a matching lace jacket. She carried a fan-shaped bouquet of yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ernestine Calloway of Southern Pines, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Betty Faye Ledford of Kings Mountain. Their dresses were of lime green taffeta, similar in design to that of the honor attendant.

Ann Hutchison was flower girl, and Dickie Luffman, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Claire Caskey of Chapel Hill, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Paul Thomas of Winston-Salem and Burr Hutchison of Elkin.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua silk with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in blue nylon with white accessories, and she, too, had a corsage of white carnations.

For a wedding trip through western North Carolina the bride wore a suit of lime green linen with white accessories and the orchid from her prayer book.

Mrs. Calloway is a graduate of Gardner-Webb College at Boiling Springs and for the past year has been employed as a supervisor at the North Carolina School for the Deaf in Morganton.

Mr. Calloway received his B. S. degree from Appalachian State Teachers College in May, 1953, and is now working toward his Master's degree. During the past year he was a member of the faculty of the junior high school in Lenoir.

The couple will be at home for the summer months in Boone, where both will attend the summer session at Appalachian State Teachers College.

A cake-cutting at the home of the bride's parents followed the rehearsal Friday afternoon. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and held an arrangement of maidenhair fern and candles in crystal candelabra. Mrs. Burr Hutchison presided at the punch bowl.

Covells Attend Son's Graduation In Alexandria

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Covell and daughter, Alice, returned to their home here Monday accompanied by Charles Covell, Jr., whose graduation from Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Va., the family attended.

Graduation exercises were held Saturday at 11 a. m., and on Friday Charles, Jr., took part in a concert presented by the Glee Club.

Among the commencement festivities were a formal and an informal dance which Miss Alice Covell and Charles, Jr., attended. Her escort at one was Leigh Hunt of Japan and at the other, "Brick" Blankenship, whose father is Episcopal Bishop of Cuba.

Another highlight of the trip was a flight over Washington, made with a friend by Mrs. Covell and daughter.

The family visited Mrs. Covell's mother, Mrs. G. H. Shaw, of Silver Spring, Md.

Charles, Jr., will go to the Youth Conference Center at Vade Mecum Sunday for a week, then to a camp near Linville where he will be a counselor during the summer. He plans to enter the University of North Carolina next fall.

Emery Smith Family Back From Southern Sightseeing Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Smith, Jr., and son, Emery, III, returned Monday from a week's vacation spent on a southern sight-seeing trip. They visited many places of interest, including the Brookgreen Gardens and Myrtle Beach in South Carolina, Okefenokee Swamp Park in Georgia, and the Bok Tower, Daytona Beach, St. Augustine, Fort Pierce, the Marine Studio, Lake Okechobee, Silver Springs and the Fountain of Youth in Florida.

Fellowship Forum Plans Special Events

Two special events at the Church of Wide Fellowship were announced this week—a rummage sale Saturday, June 12, and a baked ham supper in the Fellowship Hall, sponsored by the Fellowship Forum, at 6:30 p. m., Wednesday, June 16. A half-price children's ticket will be available for the supper.

Items for the rummage sale are much needed, especially clothing. Persons wishing to donate items for the sale are asked to bring them to the church or to the Rhodes lot, where the sale is to be held, early Saturday.

MRS. ROBERT OWEN SOUTHWELL

FORMAL CHURCH CEREMONY HERE UNITES MISS SAUNDERS AND MR. SOUTHWELL

In a formal ceremony in Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church at 8 p. m. Saturday, June 5, Miss Dorothy Lee Saunders, daughter of William Preston Saunders and the late Elizabeth Plonk Saunders of Southern Pines, became the bride of Robert Owen Southwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Southwell of Rome, Ga. The Rev. Cheves K. Ligon officiated.

Woodwardia fern and magnolia formed a background for wrought-iron candelabra holding lighted tapers and standards of white gladioli, lilies and chrysanthemums, placed at graduated heights. Oak garlands were used to drape the choir rails. The center aisle of the sanctuary was accented with candelabra of lighted tapers, decorated with ribbons and lilies. Palmetto leaves arranged in fan effect were in the windows, and a white satin aisle cloth was used.

Mrs. George Frye of Robbins presented a program of wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her original gown of imported white chantilly lace over satin was fashioned with a fitted bodice, short sleeves and a portrait neckline accented by pleated folds of nylon tulle. Appliques of the lace design edged the neckline and sleeves. A pleated nylon tulle dust ruffle outlined the bottom of the scalloped lace bouffant skirt which extended into an aisle-wide train. She carried a white satin-covered prayer book topped with white orchids and showered with satin ribbon and stephanotis.

Mrs. Ralph Barnhart of Raeford, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Billie Jean McIntyre of Robbins, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Bill Stanley, Boone; Miss Phyllis Scott, Kingsport, Tenn.; Miss Barbara Edwards, Decatur, Ill.; Miss Emilia Hutchinson, Elizabethtown; Miss Marianne Gills, Bluefield, W. Va.; Miss Marthann Coleman, Asheville; Miss Mary Hirst Carson, Buchanan, Va.; and Miss Mildred Plonk, cousin of the bride, Charlotte.

The matron, maid of honor, and bridesmaids wore waltz-length dresses of heavenly blue nylon chiffon over taffeta, designed with shirred bodice and bouffant skirt. Around their shoulders were wide stoles of matching chiffon. Bouquets of the honor attendants were cascades, centered with gardenias with tapered strands of pale pink and white frenched carnations. Bridesmaids carried similar bouquets centered with Better Times roses. All wore circlets accented with small clusters of roses.

Miss Elizabeth Barnhart of Raeford niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of heavenly blue nylon tulle and carried a nosegay of snapdragons and pink violets centered with a Better Times rose and showered with pale pink ribbon.

Tommy Hager, cousin of the bride, of Hickory, was ring bearer.

Clarence Baker of Rome, Ga., was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were: Jim Thacker and Claude Booker, both of Rome, Ga.; Harry Peterson, Columbia, S. C.; Carl Jackson, Gastonia; Hooper Alexander, Waynesville; Gene Gray, Charlotte; LeRoy Ferguson, Newnan, Ga.; Ralph Barnhart, Raeford; and Bill Stanley, Boone.

The bridegroom's mother was in rose lace with a corsage of white orchids. Following the ceremony the bride's father received at the Civic Club. Windows and doors of the reception room were outlined with oak garlands, and kentia palms, magnolia and western huckleberry were used as background decorations.

The bride's table, covered with a full-skirted white satin cloth, was centered with a large silver compote arranged with calla lilies, white roses and snapdragons. The sides were draped with strands of smilax and clusters of gardenias. The punch table was covered with a white satin cloth and banked with greens and gardenias.

For travel the bride changed to a black shantung dress with a white cotton faille jacket. She used black and white accessories and wore a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Southwell received an A. B. degree in mathematics from Queens College in Charlotte in the class of 1954. Mr. Southwell is a 1954 graduate of Davidson College, receiving a degree in business administration.

Pinehurst Bride-Elect Feted At Luncheon By Friends In Troy

Mrs. Dewitt Holt, Mrs. James B. Allen, and Miss Madeline Allen entertained at a buffet luncheon at the Allen home on the Mount Gilead highway Thursday in honor of Miss Leslie Katherine Taylor of Pinehurst. The wedding of Miss Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Taylor, and David Whitesell, also of Pinehurst, will take place at the Community Church in Pinehurst on June 23.

Arriving guests were served fruit punch on the porch from a crystal bowl banked with greenery. The luncheon table was laid with an Italian cut work cloth and centered with twin epergnetted candelabra of crystal holding white candles and white sweet-peas. White wedding bells tied with white satin ribbon completed the arrangement. The guests were seated at small tables laid with white cloths and centered with white candles arranged with flowers and wedding bells in white. The place of the honored guest was marked with a wedding bell and a corsage of white flowers.

Miss Taylor was presented a gift of silver by the hostesses. Miss Helen King, bride-elect of August, and Miss Dot Stone, who will be married in Sanford June 26, were also given gifts.

During the luncheon Miss Jean Stone of Sanford and Salem College, who will be soloist for the wedding, sang for the guests, accompanied by Miss Madeline Allen.

The guest list included the honor guest's mother, Mrs. Fred L. Taylor of Pinehurst, her sister, Miss Anthea Taylor, who will be maid of honor, close relatives, school friends, and family friends from Pinehurst, Louisville, Hillsboro, Sanford, Vass, and Raleigh.
