

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Miss Ruth McEnery Of Pinehurst Is Bride Of Earl Of Carrick

Miss Ruth McEnery of Pinehurst, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. McEnery of Chicago, and the Earl of Carrick of Thomastown, County Kilkenny, Ireland, were married at her home Thursday afternoon in a quiet ceremony performed by the Rev. Adam Weir Craig, rector of the Pinehurst Village Chapel. Dr. and Mrs. R. M. McMillan of Southern Pines served as witnesses.

The Earl and Countess of Carrick left immediately for the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, where they will stay prior to their departure Wednesday aboard the Queen Elizabeth for a month's wedding trip to England and France.

Upon their return, the couple will live at Kenspur, the home of the Countess of Carrick which formerly belonged to her aunt and uncle, the late Colonel and Mrs. G. P. Hawes.

New Mothers Honored By Officers' Wives Club At Highland Pines

The USAFAGOS Officers' Wives Club met at the Highland Pines Inn at 1 p. m. Wednesday for dessert, bridge and canasta, with Mrs. B. P. Gilliland and Mrs. J. H. Gifford as hostesses.

The table was covered with a blue cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white carnations. Miniature pink and blue parasols completed the table decorations.

Three mothers of new babies, Mrs. M. V. Motolo, Mrs. A. L. Lambert and Mrs. W. J. Ryan, were surprised with gifts of silver for their babies, presented for the club by Mrs. A. K. Clark.

Mrs. George C. Elvey introduced the visitors: Mrs. J. C. Haines of Trenton, N. J., and Mrs. C. I. Wagner of Fort Knox, Ky., and presented a plaque to Mrs. Jack Steinberg, who will be leaving soon for Miami, Fla., due to the fact that her husband, Major Steinberg, is slated for duty in Japan.

Mrs. Elvey and Mrs. O. R. Fox won first and second places in bridge, and Mrs. Steinberg was winner in canasta.

Furniture Arrangement Is Program Topic of H. Demonstration Club

The Manly-Southern Pines Home Demonstration Club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Howard Allred, with nine members present and one visitor, Mrs. J. H. Caulfield.

Miss Flora McDonald, home agent, gave a lesson on the arrangement of living room furniture and showed slides to illustrate her points.

The hostess served cookies, crackers, pickles and coffee.

MISS JUDITH TOMPKINS' ENGAGEMENT TO MR. COMPTON ANNOUNCED AT PARTY

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Judith Lee Tompkins and Henry Tayloe Compton, Jr., was made here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boylston Adams Tompkins, of New York and Southern Pines, at a small party last Saturday afternoon at their winter home, Paddock, Jr. A winter wedding in Southern Pines is planned.

Mr. Compton is the son of Dr. Henry T. Compton of White Stone, Va., and Mrs. Sarah Wal-thour Stillwell of Savannah, Ga., who is a sister of Mrs. W. O. Moss of Southern Pines.

Miss Tompkins attended the Chapin School, was graduated in 1952 from Miss Porter's School, and from the Katharine Gibbs Secretarial School in New York City a year later. She made her debut at the Junior Assemblies in New York in December 1952.

Mr. Compton served as an ensign in the U. S. Navy during World War 2 and was graduated in 1948 from the University of North Carolina, where he was elected to Beta Gamma Sigma, commerce honor society. Since graduation he has lived in Savannah, where he is associated with the Lamara Company, realtors.

MISS JACQUELINE ROSE RAZOOK WEDS EMIL FRANK CHAMANDY AT LAKE PLACID

The marriage of Miss Jacqueline Rose Razook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fozi R. Razook of The Plaza Hotel, New York City, Pinehurst, N. C., and Signal Hill, Lake Placid, N. Y., to Emil Frank Chamandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamandy of Montreal, Canada, took place at noon Saturday, October 16 in St. Eustace Episcopal Church, Lake Placid. The Rev. Sidney T. Ruck officiated.

A reception followed for members of the immediate family at the home of the bride's parents, Signal Hill, Lake Placid.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of Italian silk peau de soie and a braided coronet of the same material with shoulder length illusion veiling. She carried white orchids and stephanotis. Miss Renee Razook, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of pale blue brocade, and a small hat of the same shade with a short veil, and carried orchids and stephanotis. Karl Chamandy of Toronto, Ontario, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Chamandy is a graduate of National Cathedral School, Washington, D. C., and Sweet Briar College, Sweet Briar, Va., where she was president of the senior class. She received her master's degree in retailing from New York University School of Retailing.

Mr. Chamandy graduated from Loyola College, Montreal, and attended McGill University. After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside in Montreal.

MISS RUTH BROWN AND MARK YOUNG, JR., ARE WED SATURDAY IN FAYETTEVILLE

Miss Ruth Gloria Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard Brown of Bloomfield, N. J., became the bride of Mark S. Young, Jr., of Fayetteville, son of Dr. and Mrs. Young of Biloxi, Miss., in a four o'clock ceremony at Eutaw Community Church in Fayetteville Saturday afternoon, October 16. The Rev. Carl Wallace officiated.

Stanley Waterfield, organist of Fayetteville, presented a program of nuptial music.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and standards of white tapers against a background of palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of ice blue satin with matching jacket and an elbow-length veil of illusion attached to a circlet of flowers formed of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations intermingled with pale blue flocked gypsophila.

Mrs. William Terry of Lewisburg, Pa., was her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Roberta Kraushaar of Union, N. J., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore identical dresses of coral crystalite with matching headbands adorned with seed pearls and carried bouquets of Fuji chrysanthemums and yellow carnations. Mary Torrence Sneed, three-year-old miss of Fayetteville, served as flower girl, wearing a dress that was an exact copy of that worn by the bride and a pearl-trimmed headress. Her flowers were feathered carnations with blue flocked gypsophila.

Dr. Young was his son's best man, and Torrence Sneed and Joseph Boardman, both of Fayetteville, were ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy satin with navy accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a black and white printed silk dress with black accessories. Each had a glamelia corsage.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Civic Club in Southern Pines, with Mrs. W. B. Holliday and Mrs. C. A. McLaughlin in charge. The buffet table was decorated with a centerpiece of daisies, ivy garlands, and candles.

For travel the bride wore a dark green dress with tangerine accessories.

Mrs. Young attended North Arlington High School and Newark Preparatory School in New Jersey. She held positions in New Jersey and New York before coming to Southern Pines in May, 1953, since which time she has made her home with her aunt and uncle, Mrs. J. F. Morris and Hiram Westbrook, and worked here, being employed by Lee Powers Casual Shop in recent months.

Mr. Young attended school in Allentown and Bethlehem, Pa. In 1949 he became associated with the Coast Materials Company in Biloxi, Miss., and in May of last year was transferred by the company to Fayetteville, where he and his bride are now at home at 312 Pinecrest Drive.

Attending the wedding from Southern Pines were Mrs. J. F. Morris, Mrs. Everett V. Walker, Miss Alice Baxter, Miss Lucille Minshew, and Miss Louise Haynes.

Box Supper Provides Both Fun and Funds

"I didn't know a 'box supper' would be so much fun," was the comment heard after the Tuesday night party sponsored by the Southern Pines PTA at the school cafeteria. In addition to providing fun, it brought in around $135 for the organization's visual aid fund.

Entertainment was provided by Buster Doyle with his electric guitar, Jimmy Lawson, organist, and several of Martha Aden's dance pupils.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PILOT MOORE COUNTY'S LEADING NEWS WEEKLY.

Shown above are the 1954 officers of the Southeastern District, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, who attended the fall convention at the Southern Pines Country Club on Wednesday of last week. Reading from left to right they are, front row: Inez Wright of Laurinburg, president; Estelle Pearson of Laurinburg, secretary; Daisy Britt of Lumberton, assistant attendant; middle row: Mayme Weeks of Dunn, 2nd vice-president; Janie Campbell of Raeford, past president; Helen Rose of Raeford, musician; Ruth Bullard of Lumberton, 1st vice president; back row: Mary Ellen Carter of Fayetteville, treasurer; State Manager Ethel M. Donaldson, Charlotte; Mary Scott Newton of Southern Pines, chaplain; Sadie Williams of Lumberton, auditor; and Fannie Lamb of Lumberton, captain. Arriving too late to be in the photograph were Joyce and Ruby Conoly of Raeford, attendant and captain, respectively.

MISS NEWTON IS ELECTED DISTRICT PRESIDENT WHEN GROVES CONVEENE HERE

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of Southern Pines, organized last year, was hostess to the Southeastern District of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle at its fall convention held Wednesday evening of last week at the Southern Pines Country Club. A banquet and the election and installation of 1955 officers highlighted the convention. Miss Mary Scott Newton of Southern Pines was elected district president.

Registration, which began at 5:30 with dinner following at 6:30, showed an attendance of 96, which included representatives of the Raeford, Laurinburg, Lumberton, Dunn, Fairmont, Fayetteville, Pinehurst and Southern Pines groves and several special guests.

All of the district officers and state officials present were presented orchids by the hostess grove. Fall flowers, greenery and candles were used to decorate the tables, with booklet programs bound in green and adorned with one large dogwood blossom, each adding color and interest.

Mrs. Ethel Donaldson of Charlotte, national committeewoman and state manager, presided as toastmistress. The meeting opened with the singing of America, followed by an invocation by the Rev. Cheves K. Ligon. Phoebe Russ welcomed the groves and visitors, and Virginia Lamb of Lumberton responded.

Mrs. Donaldson presented the following guests: Miriam Early of Charlotte, past national representative; Florence Macko of Raeford, State first vice-president; Sarah Stainback of Charlotte, State secretary; Lottye

SANDHILLS B&PW CLUB IS HOSTESS TO DISTRICT 5 AT FALL CONVENTION HERE

"The woman of today must know what goes on in Main Street as well as in the world at large, and be able to relate the two, for the better understanding of both. Thus she can make to both her best contribution," Mrs. Ruby C. Blythe of Rocky Mount, new president of the State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, told members of District 5 at their fall meeting here Sunday.

Speaking to about 80 members of central and eastern North Carolina clubs, Mrs. Blythe emphasized the "Three A's"—Able, Alert and Active—which form the current theme of B & PW as traits to be striven for. Mrs. Blythe's address was a feature of the afternoon program of the convention, which was held at the Southern Pines Country Club with the Sandhills Business and Professional Women's Club, of which Mrs. Nancy McClellan of Southern Pines is president, as hostess.

Preceding a turkey dinner served at 1 p. m. in the club dining room was a reception, held on the terrace. Mrs. McClellan graciously welcomed the visitors, Miss Eunice Cook, president of the Clinton club, responded, and Sandhills clubwomen presented a musical program. Miss Edna Maurer sang "The Golden Key" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, with Mrs. Mary Baxter as accompanist, and the Sandhills B&PW trio, Mrs. Hilda Ruggles, flutist, Mrs. Mary Baxter pianist, and Miss Alice Baxter, bass violinist, played throughout the remainder of the reception hour.

Magnolia and pine, characteristic of the Sandhills, were used as table decorations, with candles in the club colors, green and gold, colors which were repeated in the programs. Each of the nine State officers had her place marked with an orchid corsage, and at places of the district officers were corsages of white carnations. Mrs. H. Pat Nixon of Sanford gave the invocation.

Miss Elizabeth Gooding of Clinton, district director, presided during the afternoon session, during which Mrs. Nixon, past State president now serving as vice-chairman of the Southeastern Region, spoke on public affairs and legislation of interest to the group. Mrs. Lucy Rhodes Duncan of Smithfield, also a past State president, talked on membership, its meaning and goals; Miss Lois Frazier of Raleigh, first vice-president of the State Federation, discussed program coordination in B&PW clubs, and Mrs. Blythe gave a summary of program and policy. The new president also noted the progress of the Equal Rights constitutional amendment, which the organization is supporting. Reports and roll call of clubs were heard.

Clubs included in District 5 are Chadburn, Clinton, Fayetteville, Laurinburg, Lillington, Lumberton, Sanford, Shallotte, Sandhills, Whiteville, and Wilmington.

Fairmont, State auditor; and Gladys Outen of Charlotte, secretary to the State office.

Between courses eight pupils of the Martha Aden Dance Studios entertained with three costume dance numbers, with Mrs. L. D. McDonald at the piano. In the group were Patti Hobbs, Jean Bushby, Frances Harper, Arden Fobes, Joanne Howarth, Jimmy McDonald, Emmaday Collins, and Ginger Aden.

Inez Wright of Laurinburg, district president, called the meeting to order for the business session at 8 p. m. and presided at the ritualistic opening for which Mary Scott Newton was chaplain. Presentation of the Flag was by the Lumberton drill team, captained by Fannie Lamb.

The following officers were elected, after which they were installed by Mrs. Donaldson with Installing Attendant Lottye Frank McCorkle and Chaplain Miriam Early assisting: Inez Wright, past president; Mary Scott Newton, president; Dot Heath of Dunn, 1st vice-president; Florence Perham of Southern Pines, 2nd vice-president; Theodosia Bailey of Southern Pines, financial secretary; Georgia Terry of Laurinburg, treasurer; Bernice Watts of Fayetteville, auditor; Peggy Calloway of Raeford, chaplain; Daisy Britt of Lumberton, attendant; Valencia Thompson of Lumberton, assistant attendant; Helen Rose of Raeford and Catherine Smith of Lumberton, musicians; Sadie Williams of Lumberton and Ruby Conoly of Raeford, captains. The drill team from Raeford, captained by Ruby Conoly, participated in the initiation ceremony.

Reports of the various groves were given and other routine business transacted.

Phoebe Russ was winner of the door prize.

What an inside-outside story!

BANTAMAC® LESLEY

Name the features you want most in a jacket — here they are! The lining is 100% nylon fleece, warm but light. The Bantamac styling is the smartest, in nylon blend Cyron sheen gabardine, with extra touches like slash pockets with tabs. Sizes 36 to 48 in wonderful new colors.

Patch's Tog Shop

Sports Center of the Sandhills
SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.
Tel. 2-8111

DIAPER SERVICE VALUE!

CURITY, DEXTER, or BIRDSEYE DIAPERS
AND DIAPER CONTAINER FURNISHED

SIX DOZEN DIAPERS WEEKLY Only $2.06*

Each additional dozen diapers 15c
(*Slightly higher charge for service less than 13 weeks), and you may have Baby's first pair of shoes bronzed FREE after six months' service.

Fayetteville's Baby Laundry

Telephone Fayetteville 2-3898. Collect o11f

Christmas Cards

CREATED BY HALLMARK GALLERY ARTISTS

Paintings by Grandma Moses, Norman Rockwell, Winston Churchill, Alex Ross, and other famous artists of today, brought to you exclusively on Hallmark Cards. See the complete selection while it's still complete.

If you care to send the best . . . send HALLMARK!

If you want the best for yourself, see us!

OPEN SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24
9:00 TIL 6:00 P.M.
Week Days 8:30 - 7:00

Broad Street Pharmacy

REGISTERED PHARMACISTS

Albert Bretsch DAY PHONE 2-5411
Joe Montesanti, Jr. NIGHT PHONE 2-2501