Mrs. Blount Honored

On last Thursday evening, members of the Carthage Music Club were hostesses at a dinner party at the Carthage Hotel, honoring Mrs. George Blount, who will leave Carthage, for a new home after the Methodist Conference.

Dinner was served from a table attractive with autumn decorations. Between courses, Mrs. W. G. Brown, president of the club, toasted the honoree, praising her for her diligence and loyalty during the four years she has been a member and expressing deep regret from the club that she is leaving. Her remarks were followed by individual toasts by each member stressing her sentiments.

A booklet symbolizing a year book was passed for each member to write a note of good wishes.

At the conclusion of the dinner, Mrs. C. G. Spencer, chairman of the Social committee, presented Mrs. Blount an antique vase of satin glass, a gift from the club.

In her gracious way, Mrs. Blount replied to the toasts and expressed appreciation for the gift.
