MISS JUANITA CAUSEY is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Monroe Causey of Vass, who announce her engagement to Bobby G. Culler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Lee Culler of Manly. The wedding is planned for October 2.

MISS PATRICIA ANN STEWART BECOMES BRIDE OF THE REV. MAX W. WICKER

Miss Patricia Ann Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ralph Stewart of Hendersonville, and the Rev. Edwin Spann of Durham, son of Mrs. William Cleveland Wicker of Aberdeen and the late Mr. Wicker, were united in marriage in the Duke University Chapel in Durham at 2 p.m. Saturday, August 6. The Rev. Warren Carr officiated.

Music was presented by Walter Ball of Burlington, organist, and Jim Stone of Durham and Macon, Ga., vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a wedding gown which she and her mother made. It was fashioned of white lace over satin and French illusion. Her illusion veil was attached to a satin cap and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Miss Jo Ann Williams of Mt. Holly, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a pink cotton lace over net and taffeta gown with matching pink bandeau. Her bouquet was of rubrum lilies.

The bridegroom's brother, Raymond B. Wicker of Aberdeen, was best man. Ushers were James Ralph Stewart, Jr., of Hendersonville, brother of the bride, the Rev. Edwin Spann of Durham, and the Rev. Dwight Pyatt of Mt. Mourne.

The mother of the bride wore a navy sheer voile dress with navy accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother was attired in an imported nylon sheer dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A reception in the Duke Chapel social rooms followed the ceremony.

For travel the bride wore a turquoise silk suit with white accessories and a white orchid. After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the couple will live at 3726 Bolling Road, Glenwood Farms, Richmond, Va.

The bride is a graduate of Duke University where she was a member of Delta Phi Alpha and Kappa Delta Pi, honorary educational fraternity. She taught first grade in Danville, Va., last year.

The Rev. Mr. Wicker is a graduate of Duke University and Duke Divinity School. He is assistant minister of Highland Park Methodist Church, Richmond, Va.
