

News and Personals from Vass

Bessie Cameron Smith, Representative — Telephone Vass 2171

Mrs. Crabtree Honored
Mrs. Bobby Crabtree, an English bride of a few months, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the Community House in Vass Saturday night when Mrs. Guy Robinson of Lakeview entertained for her. The hostess presented the honoree an aster corsage upon arrival, and after contests had been enjoyed she was given the shower gifts, which she displayed.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and held a floral arrangement. Sandwiches, potato chips, cookies, candy and a drink were served. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Robinson of Concord, mother-in-law of the hostess, and Miss Mary Katherine Page of Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree, who, since their arrival from England, have been living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Crabtree, moved early this week to Sanford, where both have positions with the A. & P. company.

Shower Honoree

Mrs. Bobby Lee Lassiter was given a surprise linen shower Saturday night by Mrs. Jesse Coore and Mrs. Wilford Lassiter, at the home of Mrs. Coore. Mr. and Mrs. Lassiter have just moved into their new home, off Lobelia Road. Mrs. Lassiter received many nice gifts, which she gratefully acknowledged.

The hostesses served sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and Coke. Mrs. Johnny Lassiter of Cameron was the only out-of-town guest.

Stung By Bees

Max Edwards, while working with his bees last Friday afternoon, was stung on one eyelid and about the eye to the extent that he became ill and was taken to Moore County Hospital. His eye was badly swollen, but he was able to return home Saturday afternoon.

Vass Lions Club

Cpl. M. L. Parvin of Carthage spoke to the Vass Lions Club on "Slow Down and Live" at the regular meeting held last week at Hotel Lakeview. He was introduced by Charles Ray Pope, who was in charge of the program. Lion President John Alex Smith presided over the business session.

Celebrates Birthday

Mike Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. (Dutch) Hudson, celebrated his third birthday with a party on Tuesday of last week. The children played and Mike presented gifts. At refreshment time all eyes centered on the choo-choo train birthday cake. Guests were Cathy Coe, Stevie and Linda Frye, Gary Hudson, Jackie Danley, and Deborah Howell.

Injured In Wreck

Mrs. Thurlow Evans received word Saturday that her brother, Dewey Thompson of Orlando, Fla., had been seriously injured in an automobile accident. She joined her mother, Mrs. Ora Thompson of Salem, N. J., on a train Monday morning to go to Florida.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffin and sons, Butch and Mike, went to Albemarle Sunday and brought Mrs. G. W. Griffin home after a visit there.

Mrs. B. F. Griffin was in St. Joseph's Hospital from Friday until Sunday for examination and observation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Callahan and family went to Laurinburg Sunday because of the death of their aunt, Mrs. Dora Jones, who died in a hospital there. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church in Aberdeen.

Mrs. James Yow and children, Teresa and Sherry, of Rockingham spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rosser and children, Ann, John, Jr., and Robert, of Charlotte were Sunday guests of Mrs. R. G. Rosser.

Miss Carlotta Maples of Carthage was the weekend guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ray Griffin, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Musten of Kernersville spent Monday night at their apartment in the home of Miss Bessie Cameron, and on Tuesday moved their household furnishings to Kernersville, where they have purchased a home. Mr. Musten was coach in the Vass-Lakeview High School last year.

Mrs. Bob Perry of Wake Forest spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Keith. Vick Keith of Sanford joined them for the day Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Keith and son, Joe, came for an afternoon visit.

Mrs. C. C. Council of Cameron spent a day last week with her sister, Mrs. T. L. McNair. Mr. and Mrs. Edward McNair and son Ronnie of Charlotte were at home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock McRae and daughter, Carolyn, of Southern Pines were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. B. C. McRae.

Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin, and Mrs. Charles Loup of Southern Pines are spending the week at Myrtle Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Broiler And Pullet Shows Are Success; Quality of Birds Better, Reports Allen

By F. D. ALLEN, Assistant Farm Agent

This year's broiler show was much better than last year. There were 184 broilers entered in the show. The quality of the birds was much better than last year. We would like to express our appreciation to all who had a part in making his show a success.

The first place winners were: Pugh Poultry Co., Ramseur; Charlie Kennedy, Highfalls; Chester McLendon, Ellerbe; Pugh Poultry Co., Ramseur; John Chisholm, Route 2, Carthage; Woodford Sherrill, Robbins.

The second place winners were: W. A. Wilson, Bonlee; Robert Richardson, West End; Brack Manness, Route 1, Robbins; Tom Henderson, Route 1, Robbins; A. A.

Moore, Jackson Springs; George Williams, Star.

The third place winners were: Colon McFayden, Ellerbe; Wayne Powers, Siler City; Robert McFayden, Ellerbe; Harold McFayden, Ellerbe; Edison Powers, Bennett; Henry Overton, Jackson Springs.

Fourth place winners were: Roland McFayden, Ellerbe; Wilbert

Britt, Ellerbe; Guy Webb, Highfalls; Charlie Cheek, Route 1, Robbins; Jim Teague, Route 2, Seagrove; and Fred Colonger, Ellerbe.

The Blue Ribbon, first place group, received $8 each; the second place group, $5; third place group $2.50; and fourth place group $1 each.

Five hundred people were given a free fried chicken dinner at the show.

4-H Poultry Show
The 4-H Poultry Show was also held Saturday at the Highfalls School. Winners in the show were as follows:

Blue Ribbon — Larry Barber, Route 3, Carthage; Geraldine Brewer, Route 2, Seagrove; Dalton Davis, Jr., Route 1, Robbins; Johnny R. Davis, Box 64, Route 2, Seagrove; Burgwyn Fields, Star Route, Carthage; Norma Ann Fields, Star Route, Carthage; Dixie Kelly, Route 2, Carthage; Don Matthews, Route 3, Carthage; William Oakley, Route 2, Cameron; Carol Pilsley, Route 1, Cameron; Carolyn Rogers, Route 2, Carthage; Johnny Wicker, Route 2, Carthage.

White Ribbon — Paul Cummings, Route 2, Box 52, Vass; Stella Mae Robson, Pinehurst.

The above list shows that there were 12 blue ribbon winners who received $10 each and two red ribbon winners who received $8 each; and two white ribbon winners who received 100 pounds of feed each.

The birds were sold at auction following the show for an average of $2.35 per bird.

This was the best 4-H pullet show we have had and we would like to thank all who helped make it a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Farrell and family, Mrs. Cameron Warren and children, James Edwards and Graham Farrell are spending this week at Ocean Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Townsend and family of Wilmington were weekend guests of Mrs. C. C. Bethune.

Hugh Edge of State College spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Edge.

Mrs. Jack Smith, Miss Edna Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Pleasants, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Maurer and children, Mrs. Bob Maurer and children, Francis Pleasants, Jr., and Billy and Glenn Russell are vacationing this week at Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. Donald McCoy and children of Laurinburg are spending some time visiting her mother, Mrs. G. A. Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Meschke and daughter of Topeka, Kan., spent several days last week as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clifton Blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Jordan, Sr., of Wilmington spent Tuesday with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill.

Miss Shirley Moon of Atlanta, Ga., is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wicks.

J. B. Edwards spent Wednesday and Thursday in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tarlton and children are vacationing this week in Florida.

Mrs. D. J. Hobbs, Mrs. Dan Farrell, Mrs. Ralph Leach, Jr., Mrs. Norfleet Pleasants, Mrs. Kenneth Keith, and their children are spending this week at Tilghman Beach.

Major and Mrs. Scott Russell of Fort McPherson, Ga., are spending several days with Mrs. Grace Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jere McKeithen and children are visiting in New York City this week.

Miss Ann Sugg spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Evans in Arlington, Va.

Miss Patty Pleasants of Chicago, Ill., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Caviness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Griffin and sons, Butch and Mike, went to Albemarle Sunday and brought Mrs. G. W. Griffin home after a visit there.

Mrs. B. F. Griffin was in St. Joseph's Hospital from Friday until Sunday for examination and observation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Callahan and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Callahan and family went to Laurinburg Sunday because of the death of their aunt, Mrs. Dora Jones, who died in a hospital there. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church in Aberdeen.

Mrs. James Yow and children, Teresa and Sherry, of Rockingham spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rosser and children, Ann, John, Jr., and Robert, of Charlotte were Sunday guests of Mrs. R. G. Rosser.

Miss Carlotta Maples of Carthage was the weekend guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ray Griffin, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Musten of Kernersville spent Monday night at their apartment in the home of Miss Bessie Cameron, and on Tuesday moved their household furnishings to Kernersville, where they have purchased a home. Mr. Musten was coach in the Vass-Lakeview High School last year.

Mrs. Bob Perry of Wake Forest spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Keith. Vick Keith of Sanford joined them for the day Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Keith and son, Joe, came for an afternoon visit.

Mrs. C. C. Council of Cameron spent a day last week with her sister, Mrs. T. L. McNair. Mr. and Mrs. Edward McNair and son Ronnie of Charlotte were at home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock McRae and daughter, Carolyn, of Southern Pines were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. B. C. McRae.

Mrs. A. D. McLaughlin, and Mrs. Charles Loup of Southern Pines are spending the week at Myrtle Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan expect to move into their new home this week. Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, of Ansonville, Mrs. Morgan's mother and aunt, have been visiting them for a few days.

Cameron McLean of Greensboro spent two days last week with Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, who has been a member of the Vass-Lakeview school faculty for several years, first as fifth grade teacher and recently as second-third combination, has accepted third grade work in the St. Clair School in Sanford for the coming year.