

College Trustees Pick Committees In First Meeting Southern Pines Is One of 16 Towns Seeking Institution

The board of trustees of a new consolidated college to be formed by the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina elected officers and delegated assignments to committees at an organizational meeting in Raleigh Monday.

William H. Neal of Winston-Salem was chosen board chairman. Other officers elected were Halbert M. Jones of Laurinburg, vice chairman; the Rev. Ben Lacy Rose of Wilmington, secretary, and C. E. Beman of Laurinburg, treasurer.

The four officers were named to the board's executive committee along with William P. Mc-Pherson, Raleigh; Edwin Pate, Laurinburg; the Rev. Warner L. Hall, Charlotte; Mrs. Julian Hu-taff, Fayetteville; Mrs. Waylon Blue, Sanford; and the Rev. Harjold J. Dudley, Raleigh, the Synod secretary. The latter is an ex officio member. County Committee

A local committee which is in process of being expanded to county-wide proportions is now working on the effort to bring the Music Assn. Will college to Southern Pines. A site on the Weymouth estate has been offered by Mrs. James Boyd.

The Synod voted last July to merge Flora Macdonald College, 6 Entertainments Peace College and Presbyterian There will be six concerts on Junior College. The consolidated school will be a four-year co-ed- the Sandhills Music Association ucational institution. It will be lo- series scheduled for this season. cated in the eastern part of the That was the big news that de-Blue Knights go into tomorrow's cated in the eastern part of the That was the big news that de-State. Site Decision One of the important decisions brary Tuesday night. With presi-to be decided, Dr. Dudley said, is dent Lawrence Johnson, of Aber-to be decided, Dr. Dudley said, is dent Lawrence Johnson, of Aber-to be decided at the Line the solution of the state of affairs that in-to be decided at the Line the solution of the state of affairs that in-to be decided. Dr. Dudley said, is dent Lawrence Johnson, of Aber-to be decided at the Line the solution of the state of affairs that in-to be decided. Dr. Dudley said, is dent Lawrence Johnson, of Aber-to be decided at the Line the solution of the state of affairs that in-tions along the state of affairs that in-the state of affairs that inthe site of the college. At least deen, in charge, Association board jects gloom also into the outlook 16 towns have expresed an inter- members and others present for next week's classic with Aberest in obtaining the institution. heard the finished plans for the The decision on a site is expected ! year. They include the following Window Displays

Sponsor Series Of

BLUE KNIGHTS SQUAD-The Blue Knights of Southern Pines High Schools will meet their toughest competition of the season Friday night of this week in the homecoming game and next week against Aberdeen, both contests to be played here. Front row, left to right: James Humphrey, Bob Cline, Lynn Van Benschoten, Tony Parker, Bill Marley, John Ray, Johnny Watkins, Bill Cox.

Second row, same order: Coach Irie Leonard, Kenneth

Creech, Roger Verhoeff, Charles Watkins, David McCallum,

James Morrison, Dick Mierta, Billy Hamel, Joe Frankie Diggs. Third row, same order: Bobby Parker, Joe McDonald, Richard Bethea, Don Walter, Frank Talbert, James Bowers, Ikey Woodell, Jesse Williford, Asst. Coach W. A. Leonard.

Southern Pines High School's both in Friday's homecoming

Back row, same order: Manager Tommy Reams, Peter Winkleman, Dennis Morgan, Charles Weatherspoon, Donald Barber,

(Photo by Humphrey)

Homecoming Game To Be Played Here Boston Executive Friday Night; Queen Will Be Chosen To Be Speaker At

Chamber Banquet But you couldn't say the local boys or Coaches Irie Leonard and W. A. Leonard are downhearted.

Elmer J. McVeigh of Boston, Mass., vice-president in charge of sales of the Saco-Lowell Corp., has accepted the invitation of the caid. game and in the Aberdeen contest Southern Pines Chamber of Commerce to be principal speaker at its annual banquet Wednesday, Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Wilson, November 16

ities Commission.

By-Pass Right of Way Is One Third Acquired

Of a total of 103 parcels of real the original survey, bad titles and estate that must be acquired by other difficulties, but, says Mr. the State on the No. 1 highway by-pass, about one-third have been acquired since August, Wil-has in general been very good and liam E. Bacon, assistant right of progress of the work is satisfacway engineer for the Eighth Divi- tory.

sicn of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, said sonnel, the State has employed To aid State right of way per-

ON OCTOBER 20

Hearing Set

On Natural

Gas For Area

brary Building at Raleigh.

Negotiations for property on the gles and Sam Richardson, and a right of way-which is 5.19 miles builder, M. A. Lyons of Midland long and 260 feet wide—continue Road, to help appraise property on daily. The task is complicated by missing owners, transfers since als are considered along with the als are considered along with the State's own appraisals and from the consultation, the State tries to set a fair price for each piece of property to be acquired.

Eighth Division right-of-way men, regularly assigned to these acquisitions, have gained through training and experience the ability to appraise the damages, Mr.

A public hearing will be held at Raleigh October 20 on application helpful in determining local land of the Texas-Ohio Gas Co. for au-thority to build and operate a fer. Attorneys were employed to natural gas pipeline that would render certificates of title to the serve Southern Pines and other lands of improved property.

North Carolina towns and cities. Acquisition of rights-of-way The hearing is set for 10 a.m. started during August, with efin the hearing room of the State forts being concentrated on the Utilities Commission in the Li-36 houses within the right of way limits, as it is the policy of the Mayor Voit Gilmore said the Highway Commission to clear town government has been noti-fied of the hearing and a public these obstructions first, thus enabling the owners to have as legal notice about it was placed in today's Pilot by the State Utilmuch notice as possible. Arrangements have been completed for

The application is for a "certif-icate of public convenience and necessity," the notice to the town (Continued on page 8) the moving of nine houses, nine raid. The legal notice lists the towns that the company would like to serve as Monroe, Albemarle, Aberdeen, Pinehurst, Southern Canford Dunn, Clinton, Reports On Scout Drive 'Gratifying' The fund drive of th was conducted Tuesday as over 800 Moore County citizens set out to be made within the next two programs with their dates: (Continued on Page 8)

Dicky McInnis, Tommy Watley, Jack Carter.

NO SCHOOL FRIDAY

Students at East Southern Women Glee Clubs of University of Commerce invites the atten-week. Pines schools will have a holiday of North Carolina in a Christmas tion of the public to the down-Friday when local teachers and Program.

school personnel will attend a meeting of the North Central District of the North Carolina Educa-Symphony. tion Association in Raleigh. The meeting, one of six NCEA district Each date is a Friday night, gatherings being held over the with Weaver Auditorium the state, will feature exhibits of ed- place.

ucational materials, addresses of Ticket sales will be handled by for first place, $5 for second will prominent educators and laymen the Barnum Realty Office with be presented at half time Fri-and general business. (Continued on page 8)

Oct. 28, Ballet Carnival. Will Be Judged Nov. 11, University of Alabama String Quartet. Dec. 9, Combined Men and town windows which merchants Jan. 6, David Bar-Illan, pianist. have arranged in attractive and

Feb. 10, North Carolina Little original ways, honoring the big players. Homecoming Game to take place Feb. 23, Roger Wagner Chorale. Friday night.

Judges will tour the downtown area tonight or tomorrow, to view the displays, and awards of $10

Festivities At Half

Hamper Local Squad

Planned; Injuries

day night. The contest is in fensive player with the defending November 16. rated his collar bone and shoul- ter speaker, was secured for the der bone in a freak accident dur- event through Harry K. Smyth, ing practice Monday afternoon local Chamber president who is and will be out for the rest of the also a Saco-Lowell vice-president. season.

in charge of operations at the company's Sanford plant. Kenneth Creech, another top defnsive player, has a knee in-

So the Blue Knights are headwithout their two best defensive

Some topnotch six-man football is in store for fans of this area-

Regardless of this outlook, preparations are being made for gala homecoming festivities, un-direction of the sponsoring Rotary Club.

There will be a pre-game pep rally and parade through town charge of J. T. Overton, special tonight (Thursday) starting at events chairman, instead of Mark 7:30 behind the gym.

Tomorrow (Friday) King as previously announced, through a transfer from one

McVeigh, a widely sought-af-

The announcement was made to

(Continued on Page 8)

Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Green-New Scouts in Occoneechee Council Wilmington "and other Bern. points. Further details were not avail-to collect the county's share of the Council's operating expenses able here this week. for next year. OPEN WEDNESDAYS

Said Dr. C. C. McLean, county drive chairman, on Wednesday,

The Southern Pines Library "Reports which have come in so The Southern Pines Chamber the field this week and next night, at which time Mark J. afternoon, starting Wednesday of represent 100 per cent cooperation King, banquet chairman, confirm- next week, it was announced to- by our workers. From certain ed the banquet date and said day. Regular afternoon hours at areas it will be several days yet ing into their two toughest games preparations for the affair are the library, Monday through Sat- before totals are available, and a well under way. Assisting are urday, are 2 to 5 o'clock. The li- listing of them will be made next George H. Leonard, Jr., and J. T. brary has been closing Wednesday week."

Overton. Tickets for the banquet, afternoons since early in the sum- Goal for the 12-county Council area is almost $150,000. mer.

New Catholic School Dedicated In Impressive Rites

Impressive dedication rites of had just been finished and equip- sermon, delivered by Rt. Rev. Ed-the Catholic church were con- ped, ready for the Sisters to move ward T. Gilbert, of Goldsboro, suducted Sunday afternoon by His in Tuesday of this week. perintendent of Catholic schools, Excellency Bishop Vincent S. The dedication was combined the crowd was told, "Religion and - when Waters, of the Diocese of Raleigh, with a joint confirmation of the education, morale and morals, go there will be no school because of waters, of the Diocese of Raleigh, with a joint commutation of the canded and in hand. To teach a child to for the new St. Anthony's paroch-Southern Pines and Pinehurst hand in hand. To teach a child to through a transfer from one there will be no school because of a teachers' meeting in Raleigh-majorettes and cheer leaders will sell homecoming game tickets in front of the pest office and the Citizens Bank and Trust Co.

The school opened in Septem- 'Strongest Bulwark' Majorettes, cheer leaders and (Continued on Page 8) ber with enrollment of 107 ele-| St. Anthony's was filled to be found the strongest bulwark mentary students. The convent overflowing for the rites. In the against the tide of communism and in our Catholic schools is to sweeping the world today, the strongest sanctuary of our American way of life."

Catholic parents, he said, "willingly bear the double taxation" by which they not only support the secular schools like all other citizens, but the parochial schools in which pupils receive religious instruction with every subject. Address By Bishop

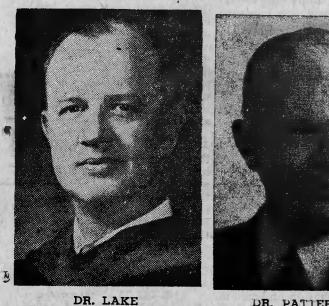

Bishop Waters, in his address which followed that of Father Gilbert, spoke directly to the children who faced him from the front news, the boys scrubbed and shining-faced, clad in suits and white shirts, the girls in white dresses with flowing veils. Explaining to them the meaning of the sacrament and the symbolism of each step in the rite, he also asked them questions to determine their own understanding.

was then robed by the assisting priests in his red and gold corer anial vestments, with miter and tall golden scepter, for the (Continued on page 8)

CONGRESSMAN HERE

Congressman C. B. Deane of Rockingham, 8th District represoftative, was in Southern Pines Tuesday calling on Democratic leaders and friends. He is visiting and cut the district during the (Photo by V. Nicholson). Congressional recess.

In Presbyterian Events Here

DR. PATTERSON Special Services Men's Group To To Be Held By Rally Sunday Visiting Pastor At Local Church

A The Rev. Julian Lake, D. D., Dr. S. J. (Jap) Patterson, Jr., will conduct special services at secretary of Men's Work in the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Southern Presbyterian Church, is Church at 8 p. m. each evening, scheduled to address a joint Monday through Friday of next meeting of the Men of the Church

week. The public is invited. from Districts Six and Seven at City Manager Tom E. Cunning-Dr. Lake, pastor of the First the Brownson Memorial Presby-ham this week is attending the Presbyterian Church, Winston-| terian Church in Southern Pines | nvention of the International Salem, has announced his topics Sunday evening. Dr. Patterson, as: Monday-"You Can Have A who is now on a mission work pretter Woods. N. H. He made Successful Marriage"; Tuesday-"You Can Stop Werrying"; Wed-(Continued on Page 8)

Managers Association at

(Continued on P ston Saler

the lodge here.

AT CONVENTION

NEWLY CONFIRMED boys and girls, also several adults, of the Southern Pines and Pinehurst parishes pose for their picture following confirmation rites at St. Anthony's church, Sunday afternoon. With them is Bishop Vincent S.

Waters, glimpsed in center, with miter and scepter. Next event on the program was the dedication of the new St. Anthony's school of which a corner of the auditorium entrance can be seen in the background.

James Bernard Gifford of 280 W. Connecticut Ave. was presented a gold lapel button recognizing his 50 years as a Master Mason, at a dinner meting of Southern Pines Masonic lodge 484 in the lodge hall Monday. Presentation was made by Past Master Lloyd H. Woolley, in the name of the Grand Master of North Carolina, Charles H. Pugh. Born in July, 1881, Mr. Gifford became a Master Mason in Mexico, N. Y., his home town in July,

1905. From 1922 to 1929 he was a member of the Oneida, N. Y., lodge and since has belonged to

Gets Masonic Pin