Cameron Club
Mrs. Clovis McDonald is one club member that never says "I can't do it." She always says, "I'll do my best." She is our club leader in education and family life and does a wonderful job at both. One visit in her happy home shows the results of her efforts for it is truly a happy family.
Lucile, as she is known to club members and friends, has three small children, two in school. With her house work, the baby to keep and the pigs and chickens to look after, she finds time to make the goal of reading the club books. She also does a lot of reading to the children and is active in Sunday School work with the little folks.—by Mrs. W. B. Sell

Mt. Holly Club
The October meeting of the Mt. Holly Club was with Mrs. R. B. Moore as hostess. Eight members answered roll call. Our attendance has been high, considering the busy season for our farm women. Miss Flora McDonald gave an interesting lesson on "Slip Covers." We wonder if it would be as easy and simple for us as it was for Miss McDonald.
We are proud that the member going to National Council Meeting in Chicago came from Mt. Holly Club. We are anxious to hear Mrs. W. A. Gaines tell of her trip. The club was glad to have Mrs.
