IN HOTEL POST—James (Jim) Spring, Jr., right, is congratulated by Robert F. Quain, general manager of the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, on Mr. Spring's promotion to resident manager of the Shamrock Hilton Hotel at Houston, Texas. Mr. Spring is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Spring of Southern Pines and is a graduate of the high school here. He attended the University of North Carolina and was a lieutenant in the Navy in World War II. His wife is the former Marjorie Jellison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Jellison of Southern Pines. Mr. Spring, before his promotion in the Hilton organization, had been with the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago since 1946, rising through various positions to become operations engineer. His service there was praised highly and his "leadership, determination of purpose and friendly understanding" were cited in an announcement of his promotion in the hotel's staff publication.

Pinebluff Lions Set Benefit Supper Friday

The Pinebluff Lions Club will sponsor a barbecue supper from 6 to 9 p. m. tomorrow (Friday) at the Pinebluff lake, serving sliced barbecue and all the accompaniments. They will have real North Carolina peanut brittle for sale also. They invite the public to attend and patronize this benefit project.

SNUG AS A BUG... ON SOFT, WARM CARPET

Did anyone ever say "snug as a bug on a cold, hard floor"? Of course not! Snugginess goes with rugness. Where there's carpet, you'll find warmth, safety and cozy comfort.

Carpet adds so much to family living . . . relaxing peace and quiet, a soft, friendly atmosphere. And with all its wonderful advantages, carpet is so easy to keep clean with just a whisk of your vacuum.
