a recreational and physical educational program not otherwise included in the orphanages' budgets. Tickets may be obtained from any Shriner or ticket chairman of Methodist Churches in Eastern North Carolina.

Sponsored by Sudan Temple Shriners, the game, with its attendant color provided by high school bands and the uniformed temple units, has had a tremendous morale-building effect upon residents of the institutions as well as given them an adequate physical educational program, ac-ording to Sudan Temple Potentate J. LeRoy Allen. Orphanage Bowl games in the past seven years have provided $88,765 which was divided between the two institutions. The goal this year is $10,000 for each of the orphanages.
