

Lions To Elect Officers May 11

Officers of the Southern Pines Lions Club will be elected at the next regular meeting of the club, Friday, May 11.

Nominations were received at the semi-monthly meeting held last Friday night at the Country Club, when the nominating committee made its report, but nominations are being held open until the May 11 meeting.

In lieu of a program at the meeting last week, members of the club bagged light bulbs for the annual bulb sale being held this week. The sale concludes tonight (Thursday).

Stevenson Fund Gifts Should Be Sent To Raleigh

North Carolina contributors to the "Let's Talk Sense Fund" for the Democratic Presidential nomination campaign of Adlai E. Stevenson can send their gifts to W. G. Enloe, Box 230, Raleigh, it was announced this week.

Mr. Enloe, president of the Wake County Stevenson for President Club, has been named chairman of the fund in this state. He was in the Sandhills when Stevenson spoke at an open house reception at Aberdeen while the candidate was visiting here recently.

H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen, president of the Moore County Stevenson for President Club, said this week that, so far as he knew, there are no local arrangements for taking contributions and that presumably all such gifts should be sent to the Raleigh address.

Each contributor will be given a gift certificate, Mr. Enloe said. The certificates are printed in $1 and $5 denominations, prepared in books of 10.

The fund will be used for radio, television and other appearances by Stevenson. It will operate in North Carolina under the State Stevenson for President Committee of which Irving Carlyle of Winston-Salem is co-chairman.
