Alumni Banquet

The annual banquet meeting of the Vass-Lakeview High School Alumni Association will be held at the school Saturday evening, May 5, with the Rev. Angus McK. Cameron of Lake Landing as speaker.

The banquet, which will be served by Mrs. Bob Maurer's home economics department, will get underway at 7:30, but officers of the Association ask that members come early for an hour of visitation.

Classes of '21, '26, '31, '36, '41 and '51 will observe special anniversaries.

Officers are: Herbert Caddell, president; Hugh McLean, vice-president; and Marilyn Wood Gschwind, secretary-treasurer.

Family Week Observance

National Family Week, May 6-13, will be observed in the Vass Methodist Church this year. The service next Sunday will center on the family, and on May 13, a special service will be held.

The May 13 observance will begin with supper in the fellowship hall at 6 p.m., for which each family will bring some food, followed by a worship service at the regular time, 7:30, and the showing of various slides and pictures of church activities. These will include, among others, slides of the young people in their Christmas pageants, and pictures made at last fall's homecoming. There will be special music, also.

Woman's Club

The Vass Woman's Club will meet at 7:30 Friday, May 11, at the home of Mrs. C. L. Tyson with Mrs. Leon Keith as co-hostess. Mrs. J. A. Hudson, chairman of the Welfare Department, will be in charge of the program.

Entertain Seniors

The ninth grade of Vass-Lakeview High School, assisted by their teachers, Mrs. Bob Maurer and W. E. Gladstone, entertained the seniors at a party at the Vass Community House Friday night. Games and refreshments were enjoyed. Mrs. Gladstone is the senior sponsor.

Family Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klingenschmidt and children, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Baker, and Mr. Baker, attended a family get-together at old Longstreet Church in the Ft. Bragg military reservation Sunday. A picnic dinner was served.

Mrs. Baker's family lived in that community when she was a girl, and children of the family were christened at Old Longstreet. Two of her sisters, Mrs. Floyd Monroe of Raeford and Mrs. Frank Smith of Pinehurst, were in the party Sunday, with the following members of their families: Floyd Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Monroe and two sons, of Raeford; Frank Smith of Pinehurst and daughter, Mrs. Bill Bowman, with her son, of Philadelphia.

Tobacco Planting

Local farmers have started setting out tobacco plants during the past few days and they will be busy from now until this job is completed.

Newcomers
