

Mary Trimble Cameron Wins One of 14 National Merit Scholarships In State

Mary Trimble Cameron, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Cameron of Chapel Hill and granddaughter of Mrs. Estelle Cameron of Southern Pines, is one of 14 North Carolina winners in the nation-wide National Merit scholarship program.

According to an announcement made at the Evanston, Ill., headquarters of the program Monday, Miss Cameron and the other winners will receive funds to complete four years of college at the institutions of their choice.

Dr. Cameron, who is on the mathematics faculty of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, is a 1924 graduate of Southern Pines High School. His mother, now a resident of Southern Pines, formerly lived at Manly.

Miss Cameron, who is known as "Molly," is one of 525 winners over the nation, selected from 60,000 high school seniors who were nominated by their principals. Several Moore County seniors were among those applying.

The National Merit Scholarship program was set up by grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation. Ten American corporations added more than one million dollars to the program.

Total amount involved in the scholarships announced this week is $3,160,000. The scholarships have an average worth of more than $6,000 each, it was stated.
