

SLATED FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Lively Events Listed For Farmers Day Festival Program At Aberdeen

Some 40 exhibits by merchants, State agencies, the armed forces and youth organizations are included in the two-day Farmers Day Festival that opens in Aberdeen Friday, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce there.

Headquarters of the Festival and location of the exhibits is the Hardee Warehouse on No. 1 highway, south of Aberdeen. A ferris wheel, merry-go-round and various other rides will be in operation adjoining the warehouse and a rodeo will be held there at 8 p. m. Friday—the first scheduled event on the two-day program.

Saturday's program will open with a parade at 11 a. m., to be followed by a free meal at noon, served in the warehouse.

Worth McLeod, 43, Dies Wednesday; Services Today

Walton Worth McLeod, 43, of Carthage, died unexpectedly Wednesday afternoon at Moore County Hospital after a few hours' illness.

Mr. McLeod was born in Lillington, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walton McLeod of Harnett County. He operated the courthouse square service station here for several years. For the past two years he was in the tire recapping business.

Other events of Saturday: band concert, 1:30 p. m.; rides and display of exhibits, 2:30-7:30 p. m.; drawing for free prizes, 9 p. m.; square dance, 9:30 p. m.; buck dance contest, 10:30 p. m.; and drawing for grand prize, 11 p. m.

Some 20 of the business establishments having exhibits are also giving prizes. In addition to about 30 business exhibits, there will be booths sponsored by the Army, Navy and Air Force; the Aberdeen Future Farmers, Future Homemakers and Boy Scouts; the Moore County Wildlife Club (see a separate story in today's Pilot); forest rangers, and a Highway Patrol safety exhibit.

Survivors include his wife, the former Edith Bain who is a public health nurse with the Moore County Health Department; his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Wade Boggs, Jr., Richmond, Va. and Miss Jackie McLeod, also of Richmond, and one brother, Blake McLeod, Atlanta, Ga.

Funeral services were to be held from the home at 5 p. m. today (Thursday), with burial in Cross Hill Cemetery.

A FIGHTING MAN

FOR CONGRESS

Paul Kitchin has been fighting false ideals, fakes and phonies all his life.

He did that for 12 years as a top FBI agent when he took a leading part in this nation's fight against false and radical ideologies. He carried on his fight against corruption when he was called on to help clean up gambling in baseball. He is still fighting for justice in the courts; and for truth in his church.

No wonder Paul Kitchin was called on to lead the fight for truly representative government in Washington when the Eighth District needed a Congressman who would represent our people.
