Little River Farm Horses Winning At Roosevelt Raceway Trotting horses owned by Eugene dePasquale of Little River Farm near Southern Pines have been among the consistent winners at Roosevelt Raceway in New York this season. According to Mrs. George Jewett, whose husband is superintendent of the huge farm on the Carthage Highway, Little River horses have been among the outstanding entries in harness racing at the New York track. So far, three of the horses have been winners and several have been consistently "in the money." Easter Dawn, a three-year-old gelding, has been the biggest winner for Little River to date, although two others, Lady Titan and Casanova, have won top money. Mrs. Jewett said this week that 16 horses from the farm were sent to New York this year, including several colts who are qualifying this week in preparation for regular starts next week. Little River Girl, a three-year-old and the first horse ever born at Little River, will probably start next week, she said. Mrs. Jewett also said that Morris McDonald, head trainer, and Don White, assistant are quite pleased so far with the results at Roosevelt. When the track closes in June the horses will be transferred to Yonkers where they will remain until the season closes in November. Three out of four traffic accidents happen in clear weather on dry roads.
