Commencement Schedule

A recital by piano pupils of Mrs. Herbert McInnis Friday evening, May 18, will launch the commencement season at Vass-Lakeview School.

Sunday evening in the school auditorium the Rev. Angus McK. Cameron of Englehard, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron of Vass and an alumnus of the school, will preach the baccalaureate sermon.

Wednesday, the seniors will present their Class Night program, and Thursday evening the graduation exercises will be held. All of the high school commencement programs will begin at 8 p. m.

Eighth grade commencement will be held at 9 a. m. Thursday.

Recent Bride Feted
Honoring Mrs. D. R. Hinesley who before her recent marriage was Miss Helen Curtis of Lakeview, Mrs. Julian C. Smith entertained at a miscellaneous shower Monday evening at the Lakeview Community house.

After several games directed by Miss Elise McWilliams, the shower gifts were presented and opened. Refreshments were served, with Mrs. C. G. Crockett, Jr., presiding at the punch bowl. Goodbyes were said by the hostess and the bride's mother, Mrs. W. M. Curtis.

WSSC Meets
Mrs. Cortis Thomas was hostess to the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service an evening last week in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. G. E. Griffin gave the opening meditation and Mrs. C. L. Tyson was leader of a program entitled "Why We Give." This was presented in dialog form by Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., and Mrs. W. A. Muse. Mrs. H. A. Borst conducted the Bible study.

The hostess served French apple pipe a la mode.

A Son
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Blue have a fourth son, born May 10 at Moore County Hospital. They have one daughter, also.

Birthday Party
Honoring her son Jimmy on his 9th birthday, Mrs. Julian C. Smith gave a party in Mrs. W. A. Muse's third grade room at Vass-Lakeview School on May 9.

Johnny opened the gifts which members of the family and friends had sent and his mother served birthday cake and drinks. The cake was pink, green and white, and decorated with Johnny's favorite animals. The children sang "Happy Birthday" to him. Each child was presented an Indian headdress as a favor.

Out Of Hospital
Mrs. Charles Parker returned home Tuesday from Lee County Hospital where she was a patient for a week.

Entertain Seniors
The Sophomore Class entertained the seniors at a party at the Vass community house last Friday evening. Games and refreshments were served. Three mothers of members of the Sophomore Class were chaperones, Mrs. Cortis Thomas, Mrs. W. J. Graham and Mrs. Coynell Cam-

Woman's Club

Mrs. C. L. Tyson and Mrs. Leon Keith were hostesses to the Vass Woman's Club last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Tyson. Mrs. Leon Keith, president, conducted the business session during which final plans for a benefit supper were made and an interesting report on interior work on the community house given by Mrs. D. F. Cameron.

Mrs. J. A. Hudson, chairman of the Welfare Department, was in charge of the program. She introduced Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr., of the county welfare staff, who gave an informative talk on the various services rendered by her department, discussing and explaining the workings of the Old Age Assistance, Aid for Dependent Children, and to the permanently disabled. She stressed the need of a larger staff, especially a children's worker. A question and answer period followed her talk.

The hostesses served cherry pie a la mode.

Mrs. Bernice Turner of Ansonville was a guest.

Entertain Dinner Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Causey and children Joanie and Eddie, of Lakeview entertained Mr. and Mrs. John McCrummen, Miss Neelia McCrummen and Miss Louise Leslie of the Vass-Lakeview faculty, also Mack McCrummen and Susan Irby, at dinner at the Forest lake a recent evening. Fishing was enjoyed before dinner, which was served in the attractive cabin.

Work On Grounds
The Presbyterian young people met Thursday evening and cleaned up their church grounds, then enjoyed a picnic supper together.

Dinner Guests
Mrs. W. B. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Muse had as dinner guests at their home Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Percy Futrell of Norfolk, Misses Kate and Eva Graham of Southern Pines, and Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Graham and daughters, Lavonne and Janice, of Cameron Route 1.

Birthday Party
Marjorie Leslie Bullock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bullock, was honored on her seventh birthday, Wednesday of last week, at a party at which guests were her first grade classmates, her teacher, Mrs. Estelle Boroughs, a special guest, Janice Lee Burroughs, of Southern Pines, and her grandmother, Mrs. W. C. Leslie, a total of 31.

The children and their teacher walked to the home of the honoree's "Mama Essie" where the Bullocks reside, and had a good time playing with Marjorie Leslie's toys and watching as she opened her gifts.

Tables were set up on the back lawn for refreshments. There was a big white birthday cake decorated in pink and white with pink candles, and ice cream. Favors were party hats, balloons, bubble gum and lollipops.
