Maternal Welfare 'Tag Day' Sales Surpass Total For Previous Years

Results of the tag sale held Saturday for the work sponsored by the Moore County Maternal Welfare Committee surpassed previous records, according to early returns to date.

Over the top in a big way was Carthage, with $114 ahead of last year's return. Carthage total for this year's drive was $165, with Miss Mary Currie heading the effort, carried on by Mrs. W. D. Sabiston, Mrs. John Beasley and Mrs. Worth McLeod.

Street sales in Southern Pines were $243.81, higher by just under $30 than last year. With the addition of a few early responses from the "special gifts" friends of the cause, the local total to date is $368.

Mrs. James Boyd, chairman of the county group, Mrs. L. T. Avery and Mrs. Claude Reams were in charge of selling tags here.

West Southern Pines church members have turned in $16.01, with only two churches heard from to date; the Missionary Baptist, Mrs. T. R. Goins, $15, and Presbyterian, George Murphy, $1.50.

In Aberdeen, with figures again not complete, the street sales, handled by Mrs. Talbot Johnson, amounted to $85.00. The figure is fully expected to reach or surpass Aberdeen's total last year, ($113.78) when all returns are in.

Pinehurst street sales amounted to $77.00 as reported by Mrs. A. P. Thompson and Mrs. Hugh Carter, in charge there. Again, to judge by last year's total of $174.00, largely from special gifts not yet received, Pinehurst should top the previous record.

Pinebluff carried along about as last year with a total to date of $30.56, Mrs. Walter MacNeille reported.

Community Chests in both Robbins and West End are including the work in their budget for this year; checks, not yet received, will be reported next week.

From Parkwood, came a check for $5.00, with returns from Highfalls, and Glendon not yet announced.

The town of Vass did not complete the drive Saturday. Under the auspices of the Lions Club, the sale will continue for several days, according to Mr. Jack Morgan who has it in charge.
