Ellen Romero Has Birthday Party

Ellen Romero celebrated her sixth birthday last Saturday by entertaining a group of friends at a party at her home. Games directed by Miss Linda Wellman were enjoyed during the afternoon. Ellen received many nice gifts and after these had been duly admired the children were served ice cream, cake and lemonade.

Helping Ellen celebrate were her brother Billy and cousin, Gary Stewart, also Kay Flack, Linda Blue, Sandra Blue, Susie Hancock, Stephanie Currie, Johnnie, Becky and Patsy Talbert, Lorraine Jensen, Willie Reardon, Donna Wellman and Linda Wellman.

Bridge Club Lists Master Point Winners

The Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club held its monthly master point game at the Southern Pines Country Club Tuesday night, with good attendance and much interest.

North-South winners were: 1st, Larry Allen and Fred Bender, of Fayetteville; 2nd, Col. and Mrs. E. S. Simmons of Fort Bragg; 3rd, Mrs. V. N. Shepherd and Mrs. Frank Roberts. East-West: 1st, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hall of Fayetteville; 2nd, Mrs. Jean Edson and Mrs. Roy Grinnell; 3rd, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Anderson of Fayetteville.

Bird Club Ends Season With Picnic

The Southern Pines Bird Club ended its season last Saturday with a picnic at the Olive farm, making a list of 58 species of birds seen during the morning. This included a prothonotary warbler seen near a stream, and an indigo bunting singing from a treetop. A yellow-breasted chat was heard singing in a thicket all the morning, but refused to show itself, probably guarding its nest.

The club has a list of 109 species seen in this region so far during the year. Club members, with regret, parted until next February, expressing appreciation for all the happy and inspiring meetings.

Church of Wide Fellowship Notes

The executive board of the Women's Society of the Church of Wide Fellowship will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the church parlor. The annual meeting of the Women's Society will be held in the Robert Lee House chapel at 3 p.m. Thursday, May 24.

The Women's Society will hold an all-day rummage sale in the basement of the church tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday. Any goods donated for the sale may be left at the church this (Thursday) afternoon, as well as on the two sale days.

The Ruth Burr Sanborn Circle, which met Monday evening with Mrs. Robert Leland, elected the following officers for next year: chairman, Mrs. Robert Leland; secretary, Mrs. Veta Gorman; treasurer, Mrs. Bryan Poe. The Circle will not meet again until September.

Family Dinner Honors Mrs. A. E. Cheatham On Mother's Day

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Strickland entertained at a family dinner Sunday honoring her mother, Mrs. A. E. Cheatham. A picnic dinner was spread on a table in the yard. Together with the dinner with those mentioned were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cheatham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lucas, and the nine grandchildren in the family.

Mrs. Alfred Clark Called Home Because Of Father's Passing

News was received Wednesday morning by Mrs. Alfred K. Clark of the death that morning of her father, Dr. John R. Bennett, 65, of Pawnee City, Neb., who succumbed to a cerebral hemorrhage. She left by plane from Charlotte on Wednesday to attend the funeral, which will be held tomorrow (Friday) at Wherry Funeral Home in Pawnee City.

Dr. Bennett was a retired Colonel in the Army Dental Corps. Surviving in addition to Mrs. Clark are his wife and another daughter, Mrs. J. B. Carnahan, who lives in Burbank, Calif.

Dr. and Mrs. Bennett spent two weeks in Southern Pines about a year ago visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Colonel Clark, who is Deputy Commandant and senior Army member at the Air-Ground School.

PARTNERSHIP IN GOLF TOURNEY HERE LEADS TO ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

A young couple who met last fall when they were partnered in the Southern Pines Carousal golf tournament have decided to make the partnership permanent, it is disclosed in an announcement just received, and a nice part of it is that they plan to make their home in Southern Pines.

Mrs. D. F. Stevenson of St. Clair, Mich., announces the engagement of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Kirk Stevenson Winslow, of 1649 North River Road, St. Clair, to James Albert Mann, son of Mrs. E. J. Mann of Greensboro and J. V. Mann of Versailles, Ky. The marriage will take place June 2 at the Second Episcopal Church of St. Clair.

After a honeymoon at the Sun-nehenna Golf Club, Johnstown, Pa., the couple will go to the National Open Golf Championship, being held June 16-18 in Rochester, N. Y., before returning to the Sandhills and their new home at 648 Indiana Avenue, Southern Pines.

The prospective bride is a cousin of Peggy Kirk Bell of Knollwood. She graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1950, and has a daughter, Mary Elizabeth Winslow, aged four.

Mr. Mann, the associate editor of Golf World, published in Pinehurst, attended Duke University, Durham, graduated from Guilford College, and served for several years in the United States Army.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET OF DOES IS COLORFUL EVENT WITH MAY DAY THEME

One of the most colorful parties of the season was the annual BPO Does Mother-Daughter Banquet, held Wednesday evening of last week at the Southern Pines Country Club. The daughters ranged from three-year-old Judy Steed and Karen Daniels, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Steed and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Daniels, to Georganne Thompson Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, who is a mother as well as daughter. The tots and teens in their frilly party bests presented a charming picture.

The U-shaped banquet table had as a main centerpiece a May-pole Dance scene with pastel colored ribbons being twined by small dolls, the whole scene encircled with pink and red roses. Bowls of roses and phlox were placed at intervals, flanked by white candles. At each place was a gumdrop corsage favor, these adding color to the table. Mrs. Louis Scheipers ("Ma Scheipers" to the Does), who served as first president of the local Does, was presented a corsage, as the day was her birthday.

Mrs. George Thompson was master of ceremonies and Mrs. Scheipers gave the invocation. A fried chicken dinner was served.

A delightful after-dinner program was presented by some of the young guests. Paulette Dietenhofer, daughter of the Dietenhofers, played piano selections; Kay McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDonald, sang; and Linda Thompson, daughter of the George Thompsons, and Suzanne Steed, whose parents are the Joe Steeds, presented a skit.

The little children played games and they were given balloons and crackerjack.

Mothers and daughters attending were: Mrs. Joe Boes and Charlotte, Mrs. William Bushby and Jean, Mrs. Hubert Cameron and Lillian Earl, Mrs. Walter Coffin and Carol, Mrs. L. B. Craig and Sandy, with Gwen McKenzie as a guest, Mrs. Leland Daniels and Karen, Mrs. Herbert Dietenhofer and Paulette, Mrs. Harry Fullenwider and Janet, Mrs. Joe S. Garzik and Phyllis, Mrs. Malcolm Grover and Joan, Mrs. W. B. Holliday and Janice, Mrs. Don Hurst and Barbara Jean, Mrs. George Little and Joyce, Mrs. Ray McDonald and Kay, Mrs. Eugene McKenzie and Karen, Mrs. M. G. McRae and Carolyn, Mrs. Dante Montesanti and Adrienne, Mrs. Earl Parker and Judy, Mrs. James Prim and Carole Anne, Mrs. Joe Steed and Suzanne, Mrs. George Thompson and Georganne T. Austin, and Mrs. Will Wiggs and Nancy.

Does and "borrowed daughters" were: Mrs. Joe Matthews and Becky Austin, the two Matthews daughters being at home with measles; Mrs. J. T. Overton and granddaughter, Sandy Overton; Mrs. C. N. Page and Jan McDonald, the Page daughter being in college; Mrs. Bryan Poe and Kathy Parker; Mrs. Larry Ryder with Nancy Tate and Babs Arey; Mrs. Louis Scheipers and granddaughter, Betsy Scheipers; Mrs. Joe Scott and Joan Parker; M. B. Arnold and Judy Steed; Misses Ruby and Geneva Hall with nieces Mary Reid Hall and Jo Hall; Mrs. John Cline and Marie Hurst; Mrs. Curtis Everette and Eileen Cook; Mrs. R. C. Johnson and Susan Huntley; Mrs. Don Jones and Linda Thompson; Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr., whose daughter is a Doe and was there with her own daughter, Karen Daniels; Mrs. W. H. Israel and her mother, Mrs. Thomas; and Mrs. David Whitehead.

Mrs. George Thompson served as chairman of the banquet committee, with Mrs. Joe Matthews, Mrs. Don Jones, and Mrs. Joe Scott working with her.

AMERICANISM IS TOPIC AT TUESDAY'S MEETING AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary, meeting in monthly session Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Dwight, heard a program on Americanism presented by Mrs. Haynes Britt, in which she reported on the essay contest on this subject and quoted excerpts from some of the entries, which were written by pupils of the ninth and 11th grades in the local school. The essays, she said, were of a very high order.

Miss Ethel Blue Britt reviewed Thomas Jefferson's recently republished book, "Notes on the State of Virginia," written during the colonial wars with the British as a report to the French on the state of the colonies at that time.

Miss Britt drew interesting parallels in the policies advocated by Jefferson and the policies in force in our country today, and brought out the point that many would be valuable in our present day economy.

During the business session which followed the program, Mrs. L. L. Woolley reported on the poppy sale and announced the poppy contest winners. Winners in this contest, also in the Americanism essay contest, will receive awards on Awards Day during commencement at the school, and it was voted to increase these awards. Mrs. Woolley also told that Mrs. Fred Chappell's Girl Scout Troop collected $118.61 on Poppy Day and the group voted to give the troop an award.

Two copies of General McArthur's book "Revitalizing a Nation," will be presented to the school library, the president, Mrs. J. D. Hensley, stated.

Miss Grace Donaldson was elected as a delegate to the convention in Charlotte June 7-10 and Mrs. Hensley, by virtue of her office, is a delegate. Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin reported for the nominating committee.

MR. AND MRS. FRED HARRISON

MISS MARIE ADAMS AND MR. HARRISON, WED IN FLORIDA, TO LIVE AT NORFOLK

In a ceremony at 4:30 p.m., Sunday, May 6, at the First Presbyterian Church in Haines City, Fla., Miss Marie Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Adams, became the bride of Fred Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, all of Haines City.

The Rev. Guye Crawford, pastor of the church, officiated. Mrs. Emily Siviter, organist, and Tom Hebel, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The church was decorated with pedestal baskets of white carnations and gladioli interspersed with gypsophila, against a background of palms and greenery. Reserved pews were marked with baskets of gypsophila and white satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin, fashioned with long tapered sleeves and portrait neckline on a fitted bodice, and very short skirt. Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion fell from a headpiece with seed pearl and iridescent trim, and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Richard Talbot, matron of honor, wore a ballerina-length gown of pink lace and a headpiece of yellow carnations attached to velvet leaves. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Gwendolyn Garrett and Miss Joann Knight, bridesmaids, were gowned in ballerina-length dresses of blue net over taffeta. Pink carnations on velvet leaves formed their headresses, and they carried cascades of pink carnations.

Miss Janice Cook, dressed in a floor-length frock of white nylon net over taffeta and carrying a basket of white carnations, served as flower girl.

Richard Talbot was best man and Keith Adams, brother of the bride, and Jerry Vaughn were ushers.

A reception was held in the church annex following the wedding. The bride's table was covered with a handmade lace cloth, a gift from the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary M. Patterson, and decorated with epergnes holding white tulips, gypsophila, and lighted tapers.

The bride attended grade school in Southern Pines, while living with her grandmother, Mrs. Patterson, at Manly. She graduated from Haines City High School in 1955. The bridegroom is serving in the United States Navy, with the rank of petty officer 1c. They will make their home in Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Patterson spent several days in the home of her son-in-law and daughter and attended her granddaughter's wedding.

MUSIC BY NORTH CAROLINA COMPOSERS IS FEATURE OF DAR CHAPTER MEETING

A program on North Carolina composers and special reports highlighted last Saturday's meeting of the Alfred Moore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Overton in Sanford with Sanford members of the Chapter as hostesses.

The meeting opened with the ritual led by the regent, Mrs. Lucien P. Tyson, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, the American Creed, and singing of the National Anthem.

Miss Nettie Williams reported that 10 boxes of clothing had been sent to Crossnore, also a $50 scholarship in memory of a late member, Mrs. Roy P. Rosser, and $10 on the building fund.

Mrs. H. W. Doub, chairman of the program committee, presented an interesting program. Mrs. Ralph B. Jordan read the President General's message, and Mrs. L. A. Des Pland, who was the Chapter's delegate to the Continental Congress in Washington, gave a report on that and read the resolutions adopted by the body.

Mrs. J. A. Overton, chairman of American Music, presented a North Carolina program which opened with the singing of "The Old North State" by the Chapter. Mrs. Ben F. Rankin and Miss Nancy Riley sang two duets by the North Carolina composer Hubert McNeill Poteat, "He That Dwelleth in the Secret Place," and "The Twenty-Third Psalm," accompanied by Mrs. Bob Pomeroy, who also played a piano solo, "Conversation D'Amour" by Ralph H. Fisher of Salemburg.

Mrs. Irma Cheek Smith of West End was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Kingsbury of Fort Bragg was introduced as a prospective member.

During the social hour which followed, the hostesses served a

State Orchid Society To Hold Meeting At Carolina Orchids, Inc. The North Carolina Orchid Society will meet Sunday at Carolina Orchids, Inc. The meeting will start with a luncheon at the greenhouse at 12:15 o'clock, followed by a business meeting at 1:30 p.m. A report on the Orchid Show held at Wilmington will be given.

Anyone interested in growing orchids will be welcome to attend the meeting, according to Mrs. Karl Bridges of Carolina Orchids, Inc.

SOUTHERN PINES JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB IS JUNIOR DAY HOSTESS FOR DISTRICT

Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Southern Pines were hostesses for Junior Day for District 9 of the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs Tuesday.

Upon arrival at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church, where the business session was held, club presidents from Aberdeen, Fayetteville, Hamlet, Lillington and Sanford were presented orchid corsages.

The Rev. Cheves K. Ligon gave the opening invocation and Mrs. Ligon, president of the local club, extended a warm welcome to the visitors, to which Mrs. Chester Brown of Lillington responded.

Mrs. Charles Phillips, accompanied by Mrs. James Newkirk, sang "Eye Hath Not Seen." Speaker of the day was Miss Harriett L. Tynes of the Children's Home Society in Greensboro, who spoke of the work of this organization in which Junior Women's Clubs of the State take a deep interest and to which they give active support. Miss Tynes told of the care of the children during their stay in the home, and of their placement in homes for adoption, along with the follow-up work.

The group of 36 went to the Southern Pines Country Club for luncheon.
