

All Officers Of Pinehurst Chamber Are Re-Elected

Billy McKenzie has been re-elected president of the Pinehurst Chamber of Commerce, along with other officers of the organization.

At the meeting held last week, members reelected Albert S. Tufts vice-president, Mrs. Vivien R. McKenzie, secretary, and B. U. Richardson, treasurer.

New members elected to the board of directors were Herbert Ehrhardt, Jr., and Nelson C. Hyde. Reelected were L. B. Creath, Jr. and B. U. Richardson. Other board members whose terms have not expired yet are Billy McKenzie, Albert Tufts, Mrs. McKenzie, James D. Hobbs, John F. Taylor, W. R. Viall, Jr., Miss Agnes Lenehan and Dr. J. C. Grier, Jr.

BLACK SATURDAYS

More fatal traffic accidents occurred on Saturday than on any other day of the week during 1955, the State Department of Motor Vehicles reports. Official records reveal that 248 death-dealing accidents occurred on Saturday with Sunday in second place with 208. One hundred and three death crashes occurred on Monday, 93 on Tuesday, 101 on Wednesday, 110 on Thursday, and 167 on Friday. The 1031 fatal accidents during the year led to funerals for 1165 persons, 238 of whom were pedestrians.

FATALITY COUNT

What was the safest month for driving and walking last year? In a study by the State Department of Motor Vehicles, traffic fatalities in North Carolina occurred like this in 1955: January 85, February 69, March 76, April 86, May 92, June 88, July 106, August 82, September 98, October 137, November 112, and December 134.

Examinations Stated For State Positions

The North Carolina Merit System Council has announced June 23, 1956, as the date on which examinations will be given for professional positions with the State Commission for the Blind.

Applications will be accepted through June 13.

Written examinations will be given for the following positions: social case workers I and II (open only to blind persons with social work training), rehabilitation counselors I and II, physical re-education nurse, and social work supervisor I. Rehabilitation counselor I is open to college graduates.

Persons interested in any of these positions may write to the Merit System Office, Mansion Park Building, Raleigh. Applications may also be secured from any local health, welfare, or employment service office. The examinations will be held in Raleigh only.

Of all the retail goods sold each year, 70 per cent are made up of items coming from the soil.

SUMMER GOLF

The famed No. 2 golf course at Pinehurst will remain open this summer, according to officials at the course.

The other three courses in Pinehurst will be closed.

In Southern Pines the Pine Needles Country Club and the Southern Pines Country Club will remain open, but Mid-Pines is closed until October.

According to reports on farmers intentions as of March 1, flue-cured tobacco growers in North Carolina expect to plant a 1956 crop of 582,000 acres.
