

Cuban Good Will Tour Planned By Moore Boy Scouts

Various scouts and their parents from Moore District met Monday night at Pinehurst Community Church to lay plans for a Cuban good will tour which is scheduled to be held late this month and part of August, according to Frank Yandell, Scout executive.

Bill Roth, Council representative, discussed plans for the trip with the group. William McKenzie, Scoutmaster of Troop 7, Pinehurst, will be one of 13 scout leaders going.

Others now scheduled for the trip are a dozen members of troops in Pinehurst and Southern Pines.

Complete itinerary will be announced later this month. Three chartered busses will take some 88 Oconeechee Council scouts to Miami, where they will leave by boat for Havana, as guests of the Boy Scouts of Cuba.

Convention Will Be Held Here By State Association

The North Carolina Association of Assistants and Deputy Clerks of Court will hold its annual workshop convention in Southern Pines August 2-4, it was announced today by officers of the association.

Between 60 and 75 delegates from counties throughout the state are expected to attend the meeting.

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce, which included president Mark King, J. T. Overton and Mrs. Bernice Harrington, has been in charge of preliminary arrangements, working closely with Mrs. Fred Bekk, Deputy Clerk of Court of Moore County, and Miss Blanche Collins, assistant Clerk of Court, who will be representatives from this county.

Highlight of the meeting will be a banquet at the Southern Pines Country Club. Complete details have not been worked out yet.

Judge Rowe Saw Ill-Fated Plane Before Takeoff

Judge J. Vance Rowe, just back from a vacation trip to California, where he attended the annual Kiwanis International convention, had an interesting story to tell—and it wasn't about the convention.

He saw a United Airlines plane standing alongside the American Airlines plane he was taking to Washington. Less than an hour later the United Airlines plane crashed with a TWA plane over the Grand Canyon, killing everyone aboard.

Judge Rowe said he had never thought of taking either of the planes, since both were going to New York and he was going to Washington. All three planes were non-stop.

While in California Judge Rowe visited his daughter and son-in-law and, for the first time, saw his grandson, now three years old.

After riding in big and "terribly" fast planes to California and back, Judge Rowe had a bit of a let-down when he reached Raleigh. J. Vance, Jr., met him in a Piper Cub, hardly big enough for two... but enough to get him back to Southern Pines.

Davis Family Holds Reunion At Home On Carthage Rte. 3

Descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davis, in response to an invitation from Miss Ethel Davis, met at the Davis home on Carthage Route 3 between Vass and Carthage, now occupied by Miss Davis and her brother, H. P. Davis, last Sunday for a family reunion.

It was a special pleasure to the relatives who attended to have their aunt, Mrs. John W. Kiker, 92, of Polkton present. Mrs. Kiker is a sister of the late Mr. Davis and the only one who remains of a large family of sisters and brothers. Her mind is alert and she greatly enjoyed talking to her nieces and nephews, their children and grandchildren.

A picnic table had been set up under a large tree in the yard, and at noon this was filled with choice foods in wide variety. The Rev. Fred Davis of Fair Bluff gave the invocation. The afternoon was spent in conversation as relatives who get together very infrequently caught up on family happenings.

Attending the reunion were: Mrs. John W. Kiker and daughter, Miss Viola Kiker, of Polkton; Mrs. Lee Newman and children, Stagg and Ann, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. L. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Davis and daughter, Patricia, and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Hodgins, all of Guilford; Billie Davis, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Jernigan, Beth Ann and Miriam Jernigan, Dudley; Miss Germaine Davis, Greensboro; the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Davis and children, David and Terry Jane, Fair Bluff. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seward, Ann and Larry Seward, Laurens, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Overman, Jimmy and Randy Davis and Timmy Overman, Greensboro; Miss Davis and H. P. Davis of the home; and additional guests, the Rev. and Mrs. Jim Eskridge of the Vass Methodist Church and Mrs. S. R. Smith of Vass.

Quite a number of relatives were unable to attend.

Hayes Designed House Featured In National Mag

The July issue of the magazine "House and Home" carries an article describing a residence in Greensboro which was recently completed by the firm of Thomas J. Hayes, Jr.

The local architectural firm specializes in buildings of contemporary design and the Greensboro home, one of the firm's most recent achievements, besides being featured in the nationally-circulated magazine, is attracting wide-spread attention, according to news from Greensboro.

Hayes is the architect who has been commissioned by the town to draw plans for the proposed new town hall.

A proposed floor plan for the new structure, which will be located on the present site of town hall, has been completed and will be submitted to Council at its next meeting.

Robert Olmsted, Former Resident, Died Wednesday

Funeral services for Robert Arch Olmsted, 79, retired attorney who died Wednesday afternoon at Pinebluff Sanitarium, will be held Saturday at Coudersport, Pa.

A former resident of Southern Pines, Mr. Olmsted was born at Coudersport June 21, 1877, son of Arthur George and Ellen Ross Olmsted. He studied law in the office of his father, an attorney who was a judge and served also as speaker of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

Mr. Olmsted first came to the Sandhills with his family as a Pinehurst winter visitor in 1910. In 1924, after four years of residence at Philadelphia, he made his permanent home at the Southern Pines, building the house now owned by W. P. Saunders on Massachusetts Avenue extension. He and his family lived in Southern Pines from 1924 until they moved to Sanford in 1936.

He lived at Sanford until about two years ago when he became a patient at the Pinehurst Convalescent Home and later at Pinebluff Sanitarium. His death Wednesday followed a stroke suffered at the sanitarium on Monday.

While Mr. Olmsted retired from the active practice of law many years ago, he maintained until about 1948 lumbering and mining interests in Tennessee. He had served as an official of both the Altamont Land Co. and the Seawane Fuel and Iron Co., both located in that state.

Survivors include his wife, Kathryn Fizzell Olmsted, of Pinebluff; a son, Arthur, of Denver, Colo.; a daughter, Mrs. Glen Rounds of Pinebluff; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A son, Warren F. Olmsted of Sanford, an attorney, died in 1950.

Graveside services will be held at Eulalia Cemetery in Coudersport Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. John Moore, Episcopal minister of Coudersport.

Mrs. Holland, 65, County Native, Dies; Rites Held

Mrs. Ruth McKay Holland, 65, died in the Moore County Hospital Monday night.

Funeral services were held at the Cameron Presbyterian Church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. James B. Cooper and the Rev. Mr. Trivetter. Interment followed in the Cameron cemetery.

Mrs. Holland was born in Moore County, daughter of the late Neill and Mattie McKay.

Surviving are her husband, Forest P. Holland of the home; one daughter, Mrs. W. F. Williamson of Raleigh; one grandchild; one brother, Neil E. McKay of Hartford, Conn.; three sisters, Mrs. Carlos McLeod of Olivia, Mrs. John D. McLeod of Aberdeen and Mrs. Jim McDonald of Cameron.

Olympic Funds Drive Carried Over 2 Weeks

Just over half the county quota of $1,000 for the 1956 Olympic Fund has been reached, Garland McPherson, chairman, announced today.

McPherson said the drive would be held another two weeks and urged anyone interested in the Olympics, scheduled for Australia this year, to forward their checks to him in Southern Pines.

To date, he said, $519 has been subscribed from 47 people.
