

'Rolling' Charges Preferred Against Two Ft. Bragg Men

Two Fort Bragg soldiers waived preliminary hearing and have been bound over to the August term of Superior Court on charges of "rolling" a fellow soldier near Carthage Saturday night.

The two were identified as George R. Brown, 29, and James E. McFeeters, 20, both of the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg.

Their victim was identified as Keith W. Christensen, also of the 82nd, who brought the charges.

The "rolling," which can best be described in layman's language as an attempt to take a drunk man's "roll" of money while he is unaware of what's going on, allegedly took place between Carthage and Vass near midnight Saturday.

Christensen said he had been in Fayetteville earlier in the evening and the two soldiers stopped and offered him a ride. Their destination Christensen said, was supposed to have been Charlotte.

They went to Vass, where McFeeters stopped and picked up his car, according to the statements, and then headed for Carthage. About half way between the two towns, Christensen became ill and asked to get out of the car. Brown was driving. He said he was "very drunk."

Christensen said that sometime after he got out of the car the two soldiers took $66 and a wrist watch from him. They carried him to Carthage where, Christensen told police, he came to and demanded his money and watch back. The two soldiers gave both to him, he said, after which he (Christensen) held them and called police.

Both soldiers admitted their intentions of "rolling" Christensen and were placed in the Moore County jail for the night. Christensen was jailed on a public drunk charge.

The next morning he swore out warrants charging the two with the robbery which, since the watch was valued at $40, automatically constitutes a felony.

A lieutenant from Fort Bragg visited them Sunday and told officers neither had ever been in trouble before and had exceptional records in the service.

Both waived preliminary hearings and were released on $500 bonds.

Pony Leaguers Lose To Aberdeen 5-3; Watkins Out

The Southern Pines Pony Leaguers, approaching the midpoint of the season, dropped a close game to Aberdeen Thursday 5-3.

Southern Pines had three runs, seven hits and committed four errors. Melva Ray Hall was on the mound with Bobby Watkins catching.

Hall gave up eight hits. Watkins, a mainstay of the locals, was injured in the bottom of the 5th inning and was taken to the hospital. He will be out of action about three weeks.

Butch Ryder, injured earlier in the season, returned to action last week and is expected to fill the gap left by Watkins.

Frank C. Blue, Aberdeen Native, Dies; Rites Held

Frank C. Blue, 60, a native of Aberdeen, died Friday at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Fayetteville after an illness of several weeks.

Funeral services were held at the residence Sunday at 4 p. m. by the Rev. Charles Worth of Whiteville, his former pastor. Burial was in the Old Bethesda Cemetery. He was in the automobile business for a number of years and at the time of his death was associated with Pleasants Sand and Supply Company.

He was a veteran of World War I, and a member of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church, Roman Eagle Masonic Lodge No. 550 of Aberdeen, Order of the Eastern Star, and the American Legion. He was active in church and community affairs.

He leaves a brother, John Eston Blue of Aberdeen, and several nieces and nephews.

CHAMBER MEETING

The regular Chamber of Commerce meeting, scheduled for Tuesday night, was postponed for one week to allow members of the Board of Directors the July 4 holiday. The next meeting will be held at the Chamber offices Tuesday, July 10.
