By MRS. ALONZO BLUE
Ice Cream Supper

The Jr. O. U. A. M. entertained their families and friends at an old fashioned ice cream party Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Blue on Southern Pines road. Home-made ice cream of six different flavors and home-made cakes were served.

Due to heavy rains, many invited guests were prevented from attending. Around 30 braved the rain to be present.

Brief Mention

N. A. McLeod underwent surgery in the Moore County Hospital last week and is making satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. Alice Watson left Monday for a week's visit with her brother, Dr. E. W. Larkin, and Mrs. Larkin, in Washington.

Miss Gladys Watson left Saturday for a two weeks' stay in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Underwood and two children spent Sunday in Whiteville, with Mrs. Fred Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boing had as their guests for several days Mrs. Boing's aunts, Mrs. J. T. Shearon and Mrs. M. G. Pearce of Wake Forest and a cousin, Mrs. Frank Parrot of Creedmore.

Visit In Ireland

Mrs. Neill Dupree and her second oldest son, John Joseph, left the Raleigh-Durham airport Tuesday for a month's visit with her people in Ireland. The oldest son will stay with his father and Mrs. Frank Boing will keep their five-months old baby while Mrs. Dupree is away.

Miss Bess McCaskill attended the State Democratic Executive Committee meeting in Raleigh last Wednesday.

Receives Master's Degree

Miss Mary Louise McDonald is at home from New York after graduation on June 5 from Columbia University. Miss McDonald received the Master of Arts degree in music and music education. She will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McDonald. She has accepted a position as voice instructor at Penn Hall Conservatoire of Music this fall in Chambersburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Weathers of Raleigh are spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCaskill, on Route 3.

Forest Fires Do
$5,607 Damage In County This Year

A total of 1,245 acres of forest land burned in Moore County in the six-month period ending June 30, it was reported today by Travis Wicker, county forest warden.

Damage was placed at $5,607.40, Wicker said, adding that the burned area was approximately 4 per cent of the total 307,904 acres of woodland in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt McNeill are at home after attending the Miller-Norman wedding in Dobson last Saturday.

Miss Freda Gowling of Philadelphia, Pa., and Claude Kennedy, Jr., of Charleston, S. C., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Muse, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Muse of Robbins spent Sunday in Conover with Mr. and Mrs. George Muse.

Mrs. Charles J. McDonald left Wednesday for a visit with her brother James Dalrymple at his cottage on Long Beach.

Wicker broke down the forest fires—there were 10 of them—into the following causes: campers and hunters, 1; debris burning, 5; lumbering operations, 1; smoker, 1; and miscellaneous, 2.

The damage figures were based on a state-wide appraisal system used by the North Carolina Forest Service.

Wicker said that 80 per cent of the responsible parties starting the fires were discovered; 20 per cent of them were prosecuted.

In the half-year forest fire report, Wicker also released the following totals of tree seedlings that have been planted in the county during the last planting season: loblolly, 578,450; longleaf, 47,975; slash, 653,000; red cedar, 6,100; yellow poplar, 5,000; and white pine, 2,000.

Air Force Names
New Recruiting
Man For Moore

Staff Sergeant Samuel G. Burgin, a native of Asheville and a veteran of six years in the Air Force, has replaced Staff Sergeant Roland L. Hughes as recruiting officer for this area, it was announced this week by Air Force officials in Fayetteville.

Sgt. Burgin, a graduate of the nine-week course conducted in San Antonio, Texas, for recruiting personnel, will carry on the same schedule as did Sgt. Hughes. He will be in Southern Pines at the postoffice Thursday mornings.
