Jaycees Chartered With 63 Members At Banquet Held Last Friday Night

More than 100 people—members, wives and guests—attended the Charter Night program of the newly-formed Southern Pines Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Country Club last Friday night.

The club, started less than two months ago, has a chartered membership of 63, far exceeding earlier expectations.

In congratulating the club for the splendid membership drive, Bob Cox of Chapel Hill, state Jaycee president, said it was one of the "most amazing and heart-warming" things he had seen since being elected to office.

Jim Baird, instrumental in forming the club and the first president, received the charter from Cox and later the coveted President's Pin from his wife, who had received it from Tuck Gudge, district four vice-president.

A number of state officials, in addition to Cox and Gudge, attended the program to help give the club a rousing welcome. At present the club is the 13th in District Four, which includes the area in and around Charlotte.

Members of the Aberdeen Jaycees, sponsors for the local club, were also in attendance. Russ Batchelor, Aberdeen president, was awarded a Founder's plaque for Aberdeen's assistance in getting the local club organized.

Representatives from Carthage were also present.

The club meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month at the high school library.

First project for the club is the sponsorship of the Southern Pines Golf Carusel, which had formerly been sponsored by the Senior Chamber of Commerce.

Lassiter's Grill New Vass Business

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lassiter have set Friday, August 3, as the opening date of their grill in Vass, which will operate under the name of Lassiter's Grill. Coffee and doughnuts will be served free on opening day.

The business will be operated in a new cement block building on South Street, adjacent to the Lassiters' home, and will be under the active management of Mrs. Lassiter, her husband being employed by the town of Vass. They have installed all-new electric equipment and will serve plate lunches, short orders, and sandwiches to go. For some time the Lassiters have operated the Theatre Grill in Vass, which will now be under new management, it is understood.
