

Happy Chandler To Address State Democratic Rally

A. B. (Happy) Chandler, colorful Democratic Governor of Kentucky, will be featured speaker at a pre-convention State Democratic rally at Wilmington Saturday, New Hanover County officials, sponsors of the rally, announced today.

Chandler, who is an avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination for President this year, recently won a comeback election for Kentucky's first office. He has been a Senator, past governor, Congressman and commissioner of baseball.

Master of ceremonies at the rally will be Alton A. Lennon of Wilmington, Democratic nominee to Congress from the 7th Congressional District. Lennon himself is also a "comeback winner," having once been an appointed Senator and then losing to former Governor Kerr Scott.

The Wilmington rally is designed to create interest among Democrats before the August 13 Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

It is being sponsored by the Young Democratic Club and the Democratic Executive Committee. All events are open to the public.

Carthage Youth Made Eagle Scout At Court of Honor

Mickey Davis of Troop 936, Carthage, was awarded the rank of Eagle Scout in Moore District Boy Scout Court of Honor ceremonies held at the Robbins Methodist Church last Monday.

Life Scout rank was achieved by Odes Spurlin, Troop 206, Pinebluff.

In charge of the court was R. C. Self, Jr., of Aberdeen. Leading officials from several towns in the county also took part on the program, including Mayor E. M. Medlin of Aberdeen, Mayor Protem Harry Pethick of Southern Pines, city councilman Jack Williams of Carthage, Mayor E. H. Mills of Pinebluff, and Bill Mc Laurin of Robbins.

Cleve Richardson and Jimmy Steed, both of Troop 74, Robbins, became first class scouts. The second class rank was awarded to Buddy Daurity and Tonie Brewer of Robbins and to Johnny Cagle, Larry Davis, Larry Bennett, R. G. Smith, Steve Paschal, and Eddy Cockman, all of Troop 936, Carthage.

Mickey Davis of Carthage was made a scout life guard and a large number of merit badges was awarded.

Pinehurst High School Graduate Leukemia Victim

Gary Wathen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wathen of Fort Fairfield, Maine, died July 26 in a Long Island hospital at the age of 18, a victim of leukemia. He was buried at Fort Fairfield.

A graduate of the Pinehurst High School this past June, he had for the past three years been a star football and basketball player, and had also played baseball with the local team. He continued his sports activities as long as possible during the past season. Surviving besides his parents is a brother, Wendell Wathen, Jr.

Final Rites Are Conducted Today For Mrs. Marbach

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Knox Marbach of Southern Pines, who died at her home Tuesday after a short illness, were held this morning from the Powell Funeral Chapel.

The Rev. Cheves Ligon, pastor of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church, officiated at the funeral services, which were followed by the burial in the family plot at Mount Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Marbach, a native of Philadelphia, came to Southern Pines in 1939 with her husband, William F. Marbach, who survives.

This year for the first time, around 250 bushels of Foundation North Carolina Abruzzi rye will be available for certified seed growers in this state.

In the last half of 1956, meat production is expected to fall below the 1955 level because of the reduced spring pig crop.
