Circle 8 Meeting Features Program and Surprise for Mrs. Ray

Circle 8 of Brownson Memorial Women of the Church met in regular monthly session Monday night at the home of Mrs. James Stevens, with Mrs. Ethel Everett co-hostess. Eleven members and one visitor, Mrs. George Heinisch, were present.

Mrs. L. L. Woolley conducted the Bible study, Mrs. N. E. Gilliland presented an article on evangelism, and Mrs. Wayland Blue led the "Let's Talk About" feature from Presbyterian Women.

There was an undercurrent of excitement which was explained by a cleverly arranged contest presented during the social hour, which, being solved, brought up the question: "A Birthday Party For?"

The question was answered when Mrs. Dan S. Ray, chairman of the Circle was presented a shower of lovely birthday gifts. The Circle members had been planning the surprise for months, but no inkling had reached the honoree.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a floral arrangement flanked with candles. There was a decorated cake and this was served with ice cream, punch and nuts.

Two Hostesses Honor Mrs. Tyler T. Overton At Outdoor Party

Mrs. Nelson Webster and Mrs. Arthur D. Tener entertained at a lawn party on Wednesday night honoring Mrs. Tyler T. Overton. Guests were greeted by Nelson Webster, Jr., and directed to the lighted back yard at the Tener residence.

Approximately 30 ladies attended, bringing dainty baby gifts which were opened by Mrs. Overton and admired by all present.

The refreshment table was covered with a pale yellow linen cloth centered with a bouquet of garden flowers in pastel shades and flanked by antique hurricane lamps holding yellow candles.

Punch, sandwiches, cookies, nuts and mints were served by the hostesses.

Miss Betty Tew Is Feted At Party On 14th Birthday

Miss Betty Tew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tew, celebrated her 14th birthday at a party at the home of her cousins, Jimmy and Tommy Tew, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tew, 430 North Ridge Street, last Thursday night. The young people danced and played games, after which refreshments were served.

Together for the event were Betty, Jimmy and Tommy Tew; Eddie McInnis, Linda Clark and Nancy Rawlings, of Hamlet; Woody Woodruff, Sue McKenzie, David Duke, Susan Leonard, Judy Hayward and Janet Howard, also Mrs. Howard McNeill.

Picnic Supper Honors Clyde G. Council

Clyde G. Council was honored Monday evening at an outdoor supper in his back yard, given by a birthday surprise for him by his wife and two of her associates on the staff of the Pinehurst Convalescent Home, Miss Vera Chase and Mrs. Estelle Griffin. He was presented gifts, and there was a birthday cake to top off the supper.

MISS BLANCHE STURDIVANT IS WED TO MR. CHOATE IN CEREMONY AT BISCOE

In a 5 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon, August 4, Miss Blanche May Sturdivant and Page William Choate were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Clarence E. Freeman, and Mr. Freeman of Biscoe. Miss Sturdivant is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall Sturdivant of Star, and Mr. Choate is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Choate of Salisbury.

For the ceremony the Freeman home had elaborate floral arrangements in bridal white. The living room, the scene of the ceremony, had white altar arch entwined with fern, flanked by twin floor baskets of white asters, snapdragons and lilies, and double seven-branched candelabra with white tapers, while the center of the mantel was banked with a low arrangement of the same white flowers.

The Rev. C. B. Harris, pastor of Page Memorial Methodist Church of Biscoe was officiating minister for the single ring ceremony at which the principals were unattended. Miss Susan Freeman, niece of the bride, presented the entire program of wedding music.

The bride's wedding ensemble was a silk afternoon dress of champagne with shell pink sequin trim with becoming hat entirely covered with tiny flowers and pink sequins. Her accessories were of the same champagne tints. For her going-away outfit she changed to a sheath-shirted linen suit, on the lapel of which she pinned a spray of cream-colored cymbidium orchids with purple throats.

Mrs. Choate received her education at Elon College and has been employed at Futrell Lumber Co. of Vass. The groom, who is a graduate in Electrical Engineering from the University of North Carolina, is associated with Carolina Power and Light Co. in Southern Pines. Following a wedding reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to a Virginia beach, and upon their return, will be at home in Southern Pines.

BUIE CLAN OF NORTH CAROLINA HOLDS ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING AT BENSALEM

The Buie Clan of North Carolina was organized last Sunday, August 5, at old Bensalem Presbyterian Church with approximately 125 in attendance.

Bensalem Church is located about five miles from the old home-place of the first Buie family to settle in Moore County and was their place of worship even before its formal organization took place. This family consisted of John Buie, his wife, Mary Cox Buie, and their sons, William C. and John C. Buie, who came from Philadelphia, Pa.

A chronology which has been prepared by Mrs. Will McC. Blue shows that as early as 1648 the ancestors of the Buies were having their infants baptized in the organized Protestant churches of that day in America, most of these being Lutheran.

Officers elected at Sunday's meeting were: Lacie Buie of Lexington, president; Ardie Morris of Albemarle, vice-president;

Mrs. Joe C. Thomas was hostess to Circle 2 Tuesday afternoon with 10 members present and one visitor, Miss Letha Copeland, who presented the month's article from the Presbyterian Women.

Circle 6 held a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. George Thompson Thursday evening. Because of rain, the supper was held indoors, but was enjoyed equally as much as if the plans had not been changed. Mrs. Hubert Cameron led the Bible study and Mrs. Joe Bennett introduced the "Let's Talk About..." subject, which was evangelism.

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Circle 1 of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Scheipers Jr. with Mrs. J. H. Tilghman and Mrs. L. E. Grover as hostesses. Mrs. R. S. DuRant and Mrs. Scheipers were guests of the Circle, and there were 10 members present. Mrs. Roy Kelly led the Bible study and Mrs. Jack Ramsey gave the article from Presbyterian Women.

Mrs. Betty Coley is in hospital at Denver, Colorado

Lt. Betty Coley, who for some time has been stationed at the AF Hospital in Salina, Kan., is hospitalized in Denver, Colo., for three weeks for observation, according to information received by her mother, Mrs. Graham Culbreth.

Betty's address is Room 2024, 2nd Floor East, Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, Denver, Colo. Cards from friends at home would without doubt help to speed the days along.

Only members of the immediate families of the bridal couple were in attendance at the ceremony and reception. They included: Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Choate of Salisbury, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. George Machen of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Edwards of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Barron and daughter, Jean, of Richmond, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hilderbrand and daughter, Susan, of Biscoe, Charles Sturdivant of Southern Pines, Mrs. Robert Shaw of Alexandria, Va., and Mrs. B. S. Futrell of Denton.

Each guest made three copies of her favorite recipe, one for each honoree, and the hostess presented each of them with a piece of North Carolina pottery. Dainty refreshments were served.

Guests, in addition to the three honorees, were: Mrs. William Baines, Mrs. David Callaway, Mrs. John Corley, Mrs. Erskine Crew, Mrs. Albert Cupello, Mrs. John Daunt, Mrs. Ogden Fox, Mrs. Daniel Jenkins, Mrs. Paul Kinnison, Mrs. John Loisel, Mrs. Raymond McKeelvey, Mrs. James McNulty, and Mrs. John Mims.
