

Judge Continues Crackdown On Speeders; Pinehurst Man Gets Straight 10-Months Term For 100 MPH Run

Judge J. Vance Rowe continued a crackdown on high speed automobile drivers in Recorder's Court Monday as he gave a young 23-year-old Pinehurst Negro a straight 10-month road sentence for speeding more than 100 miles per hour in an attempt to elude a chasing highway patrolman.

Oscar Bobby Thomas, who lives at Roosevelt, New York, and Pinehurst, was arrested Saturday afternoon about 5:30 after a chase over Midland Road (NC 2) by Patrolman E. G. Shomaker.

Shomaker testified in court that he first saw Thomas rounding a curve on Midland Road coming out of Pinehurst. He estimated his speed at the time as about 75. He gave chase and finally, after attaining speeds of 100 miles per hour, caught Thomas on Carlyle Street.

Shomaker said it was his impression that Thomas was "undecided just whether he wanted to go to jail or not."

He said he told the young construction laborer that he would be charged with speeding and careless and reckless driving. Thomas, he testified, wouldn't get in the patrol car for the trip to Carthage.

Shomaker said he warned Thomas several times he would also charge him with resisting arrest if he didn't get in the car. Twice, he said, Thomas ran down the block and only came back on the urgent pleading of his mother, who was a passenger in his car.

Judge Rowe gave Thomas a straight 10 months' road sentence, which was appealed to Superior Court. After setting a cash or justified bond of $1,000 at the request of Solicitor W. Lamont Brown, Thomas decided not to appeal the case.

There was one other case in court Monday which officers say was one of the "roughest" they had had in some time.

Paul Williams, described as "awfully mean," had been arrested last Friday morning for creating a disturbance, resisting arrest and several other charges.

Officers John Sharpe, Oscar Bailey and A. F. Dees recounted the story this way:

They had been called to the home of Jim Hardy near Carthage to stop a disturbance which Hardy said was caused by Williams. Hardy told the officers that Williams had come to his farm earlier in the day and had tried to stop Hardy from working his mule.

The officers were called by Mrs. Hardy who came to the sheriff's department, took out a warrant, and said that Williams' conduct was getting worse.

The officers went to Williams' home but were refused admission by his mother. Deputy Dees, and ABC officer John Sharpe were at the front door while Constable Bailey was at the back door. Mrs. Williams, they testified, at one time threatened to shoot all of them.

The officers were forced to take Williams in by handcuffing him and dragging him to the car.

On the stand Mrs. Williams went into hysterics when she was testifying and had to be removed from the courtroom. Officers testified that Williams had previous convictions of larceny of an automobile and bad conduct. He also has a bad conduct discharge from the Army.

Judge Rowe sentenced Williams, a Negro, to eight months on the roads, which the defendant appealed.
