Rev. Funderburk To Attend World Methodist Meet

The Rev. J. R. Funderburk, presiding elder of the A. M. E. Zion Church, has been named a delegate to the World Methodist Conference being held at Lake Junaluska September 1 through September 12.

The conference, which will attract church leaders from all sections of the world, will consist of a series of conferences and meetings on religious problems throughout the world.

Lake Junaluska, summer assembly for Methodism's Southern District, is the largest church assembly grounds in the United States. It was founded by laymen in 1913 as the summer program headquarters of Methodists in nine Southeastern states.

Since then it has grown until it is now considered the Southern "capitol" of Methodism.

The World Methodist Conference is expected to draw 2,600 clergymen and laymen from 40 countries.

Excellent adobe brick work was found by the Spanish conquistadores in Peru and Mexico when they first invaded the New World.

The domestic brick industry was established in Virginia in 1611 and in Massachusetts in 1629.
