Alice Shamburger Hostess At 'Coke Party'

Miss Alice Shamburger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shamburger, gave a "Coke party" last Friday morning at her parents home in Knollwood. It was given for Dianne Adams, who is leaving soon with her family to make her home in Hartsville, S. C. Alice's guests included Rosie Chandler, Mary Elizabeth Chapel, Jeanie Butler, Clara Harper, Suzanne Hill, Margaret and Cathy Dougherty, Beth Shamburger and Ann McKeithen of Aberdeen.

Clara Harper Entertains At Outdoor Supper

Miss Clara Harper entertained a number of young folks at an outdoor supper Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harper on Kensington Road. The party was given for two of her classmates, Katie Butler and Dianne Adams, as a farewell gesture. Katie will spend the winter in Pleasantville, N. Y. with her family and Dianne will be with her parents in Hartsville, S. C.

After cooking their supper in the backyard, games were enjoyed in the newly painted and decorated basement playroom. Clara's guests included Katie and Dianne, Jeanie Butler and Alice Shamburger, Rodney Pleasants, Joe Hiatt, Francis Dwight and Bob Boswell.

Howard Family of Twenty Together For Picnic Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Howard had the pleasure of having their entire family together Sunday for the first time since their grandchildren have reached the number of a round dozen. The group went to Morrow Mountain, near Albemarle, where they enjoyed a picnic dinner.

Their family includes: Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. MacKinnon and children, Michael, Bobby, Billy and Karen, of Valley Stream, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Howard, Jr., Larry, Anna and Constance, of Morristown, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Howard, their daughter Janet, and two sets of twins, David and Daryl, and Mark and Stephen.

A group picture was made while the family circle was complete.

Woodmen Circle Has Monthly Meeting

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen circle met Wednesday evening the 22nd for the regular meeting. Due to the absence of the president, Mary Scott Newton, Mrs. Florence Perham, first vice-president presided and Mrs. Florence Reinert filled the office of corresponding and recording secretary for Miss Louise Crain who is vacationing in New York State.

Business for the evening included the appointment of a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Elsie Thompson, Mrs. Theodosia Bailey and Mrs. Cecile Cameron. This committee will render a report at the September meeting on the new officers for 1956-7.

Refreshments of cupcakes, salted peanuts and cold drinks were served by hostesses, Mrs. Jo Bettini and Mrs. Margaret Mattocks.

Bride-Elect Complimented At Buffet Supper

Misses Leslie and Effie Bailey and Miss Pearl Dew were hostesses at a buffet supper at the Bailey home last Tuesday evening, complimenting Miss Jo Ann Meador of Pinebluff whose wedding to Mark Stancil of Wilson took place last Sunday afternoon. Their guests included Miss Meador's mother, Mrs. I. L. Meador, Mrs. Fay McCaskill and Mrs. Emily Lawrence of Pinebluff and Mrs. Babyak of Pinehurst. ### MISS ANNE GARRETT PENN IS BRIDE OF DAVID CROSLAND IN NORFOLK RITES

The marriage of Miss Anne Garrett Penn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Penn of Danville, Va., to David Bailey Crosland, son of Mrs. George S. Southerland of Mrs. Concord and the late David Bailey Crosland of Charlotte, and stepson of Mrs. Pauline Crosland of Southern Pines, took place Saturday, August 18. The ceremony was held at five o'clock at Mt. Vernon Methodist Church with Dr. R. O. Bryant, pastor of the bride, officiating.

Preceding the ceremony a program of wedding music was played by Mrs. A. T. Gunn, organist, and Richard T. Penn, father of the bride, violinist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace, hand applied over satin, with yoke of imported silk illusion, and long lace sleeves ending in points on the hands. The satin skirt was overlaid with lace terminating in a full cathedral train. Her three-tiered fingertip veil fell from a shaped lace shell edged in seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaids were Florence Penn, sister of the bride, Ruth Adkins, cousin of the bride, and Miriam Morris, cousin of the groom. All wore gowns of aqua lace and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Honorary attendants were Mrs. Samuel Ogburn of Winston-Salem, Misses Sarah Aron, Betsy Meads, Barbara Green and Sarah Stemberge of Danville.

George C. Southerland of Concord, was best man for his stepson. The groomsmen were Dr. Malcolm McLean, Bill Cornell, and Hamlin Wade of Chapel Hill, James Coble of Sanford, Tom Craven of Huntersville, and George Penn, brother of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Sea Island, Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. Crosland will be home in Glen Lenox, Chapel Hill.

The bride attended Randolph Macon Woman's College and received her A.B. degree in elementary education from the University of North Carolina. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and Phi Beta Kappa honorary society. Mr. Crosland is a graduate of Davidson College, and is attending the medical school of U. of N. C. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

CHURCH RITES SUNDAY IN PINEBLUFF UNITE MISS JOAN MEANOR, MR. STANCIL

Miss Joan Kathryn Meador, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Meador and Mark Lynwood Stancil of Macesfield, were married in a 4 o'clock ceremony on August 26 in the Pinebluff Methodist Church. The Rev. James W. Hamilton heard the vows and used the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Earl Lamplsey, organist, and Miss Mary Lou Troutman and Mrs. Lewis Brown as soloists. Miss Troutman sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" and Mrs. Brown sang "I Love You Truly." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle over satin with a long sleeved jacket of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a small hat with pearls. She carried a prayer book with two white orchids.

Mrs. Eloise Bleau was matron of honor. Her waltz length dress was of white tulle over taffeta. She wore white mitts and carried a bouquet of pink asters tied with blue satin ribbon. Mrs. Herbert Rouse of Boone was bridesmaid. Her dress was aqua tulle over taffeta and she carried a bouquet of pink asters tied with pink satin and wore white mitts.

O. R. Stancil of Macesfield was his son's best man. The ushers were Douglas Easton of Jackson, and Joseph Connelly of Macesfield.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Meador chose a dress of light blue lace with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of aqua with a yellow rose corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Aberdeen High School and received her nursing training at City Memorial Hospital, Winston-Salem. For the past year she has been with Moore County Hospital. Mr. Stancil is a graduate of State College Class of 1955 and is at present with the U. S. Air Force stationed at Opheim, Montana. After a wedding trip to the beach they will leave for Montana where they will make their home.

Following the rehearsal on Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Adcox and Mrs. Eloise Bleau entertained the wedding party, out-of-town guests and friends at a cake cutting, at the Adcox home.

The home was decorated throughout with summer flowers. In the dining room the table was overlaid with a white tulle cloth. Centering the table was an arrangement of white flowers in silver container and white candles in silver holders.

After the bride and bridegroom cut the first slice, Mrs. Howard Troutman served cake and Mrs. M. C. Pickler poured punch.

Mrs. Kelley Enjoys Visits With Family

Chatting with Mrs. Tom Kelley the other day she gave us some interesting news of her daughters. For the past two weeks, she has had Mrs. M. K. Richmond (Hazel Kelley) and her three children, Jim, Tom and Joan as her guests at her home on East Indiana avenue. Mr. Richmond arrived later to accompany his family back to their home in Los Angeles, Calif., where he is an inventor and manufacturer of "Door-King," the radio controlled garage door.

Enroute to the west coast, they stopped in Baltimore for a day with Mrs. Richmond's sister, Mrs. Samuel W. Cox and Capt. Cox. Mrs. Cox, the former Winifred Kelley, is now the mother of five youngsters.

During the Richmond's stay here they had a nice visit with another sister, Suzanne—who with her husband, William R. Mabry and two young children, Lynne and Janet spent the day on their way to Albemarle to visit Mr. Mabry's parents.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church basement.

Rehearsal Party Following the rehearsal on Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Adcox and Mrs. Eloise Bleau entertained the wedding party, out-of-town guests and friends at a cake cutting, at the Adcox home.

The home was decorated throughout with summer flowers. In the dining room the table was overlaid with a white tulle cloth. Centering the table was an arrangement of white flowers in silver container and white candles in silver holders.

MISS BETSY FARRELL OF ABERDEEN WEDS MR. INGRAHAM IN CHURCH CEREMONY

Miss Betty Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell of Aberdeen, became the bride of Norman Rockwell Ingraham, son of Mrs. Ingraham and the late Mr. Ingraham of Dunn in a ceremony at the Page Memorial Methodist Church in Aberdeen last Sunday afternoon, August 26, at four o'clock.

A program of nuptial music preceded the ceremony with Mrs. Eugene Sessoms of Manly, organist, and E. H. Poole, vocalist, who sang "Through the Years," "Oh, Perfect Love" and as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Carl A. Johnson, pastor of the bride.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Janet Farrell, and her cousin, Miss Ann Ferree, of Winston-Salem. They wore identical gowns of Nile green with strapless bodices of satin and bouffant ballerina length skirts of net. Bandoaux of pearls and forget-me-nots and stoles of the net were complemented by bouquets of feathered pink carnations.

Theodore Ingraham of Fayetteville, brother of the groom, was best man, while R. E. Lee and Hugh E. Bowman, II, served as ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white lace and tulle with round scalloped neckline, fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from an elbow length veil of pearls and iridescents. She carried a white orchid topped with a white orchid and showered with white ribbons and stephanotis.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Farrell chose a gown of deep blue, black accessories and a corsage of white blossoms, while the bridegroom's mother wore a lighter blue printed dress with black accessories and red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Farrell entertained in their home at a small reception for both families and the wedding party.

For her wedding trip, the bride changed to a navy blue shantung sheath and bolero with white collar and navy accessories. She pinned at her shoulder the orchid lifted from her prayer book.

After a honeymoon in the mountains of North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham will be at home in Graham where Mr. Ingraham has accepted a position teaching in the city schools.

The bride attended Randolph Macon Woman's College and received her A.B. degree in elementary education from the University of North Carolina. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and Phi Beta Kappa honorary society. Mr. Crosland is a graduate of Davidson College, and is attending the medical school of U. of N. C. ### Church Wide Fellowship Resumes Regular Schedule Sunday

The Executive Board of the Women's Society met at the home of Mrs. Everett V. Walker one evening last week to make plans for the programs and other activities of the Society in the coming season.

Through August the Church and Sunday School held union services in the sanctuary of the church each Sunday morning at 10 o'clock—but with the return this week of Dr. and Mrs. Timmons all regular activities will be resumed at their usual time—Sunday School at 9:45 and the regular church service at 11 o'clock.

Parents of small children wishing to attend this 11 o'clock church service may leave their children in the nursery from 10:45 till 12:15 where Miss Barbara Blackwelder will care for them during that time.

The good attendance at the annual Sunday School picnic at Pinebluff Lake on Wednesday testified to the good judgment of holding this event. Watching the enjoyment of the children in the lake water, under the supervision of James Humphrey and
