

Annual Poultry Show Scheduled At Highfalls Gym

The Moore County Poultry Show will be held at the Highfalls School gymnasium Saturday, September 15, it was announced today by Fleet D. Allen, county agent.

The program will get underway at 8 a. m. with the entry of broilers and eggs, followed by the judging of exhibits and the announcement of the winners.

From 11:30 to 12:30, show officials have scheduled a sale of 4-H Club pullets at auction.

A community club program will begin immediately after the pullet auction.

Allen said a number of cash awards would be made for broilers in age classes from five weeks to 10 weeks, with a top prize in each entry of $8.

Prizes have also been set up for entries in the egg show.

Four County Men Enlist In USAF

Staff Sergeant Samuel G. Burgin, local Air Force recruiter, has announced the enlistment in the Air Force of four men from this area during August.

James W. Dupree of Pinehurst and William C. Obshear of Cameron were re-enlistees, Sgt. Burgin said, and were sent to the base of their choice.

The other two, Willie E. Williamson of Carthage and Walton D. Smith of Southern Pines were sent to Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, for basic training.

Chickens hatched by commercial hatcheries in North Carolina during July amounted to 9, 075, 000, according to the North Carolina Crop Reporting Service. This was a record hatch for the month, and it was 10.6 per cent above the previous high of 8,205, 000 attained in July of 1955.

Local Boy Places First In Southern Archery Tourney

Robert Price, Jr., 13-year-old son of Major and Mrs. R. H. Price of Southern Pines, won top honors in the junior class of the Field Archery Tournament of the Southern Archery Association at Brevard this past weekend.

Price, a student at Southern Pines High School, shot a score of 1206 for the tournament, which was held on the campus of Brevard College.

Archers from 12 states in the association took part in the tournament, held Saturday and Sunday.
